TO: Heads of Sub-Commissions, Sections, Etc.

1. On arrival of your Sub-commission at these Headquarters it will be found that the doors of all office accommodation allocated to you are locked. Keys will be in the possession of the Headquarters Commandant. You should appoint an officer from your department to call on the Headquarters Commandant, when the key will be issued in signature. Henceforth, the safe custody of keys will remain your sole responsibility.

2. Each office has been carefully furnished and prepared for your reception. An inventory of the furniture in each office has been made, and you will be required to sign this inventory after checking. It will be seen, therefore, that it is most essential that no removal of furniture from one office to another takes place. Should it be found that your accommodation is insufficient, the matter should be referred to the Headquarters Commandant who will do all he can to meet your requirements.
