RESTRICTED Amendment to Letter on Procedure for Return by Air (Contd) of Individuals to the United States

"c. (1) Individuals authorized a furlough or leave of absence whose orders do not designate a new station will be ordered to one of the reception stations indicated in the MD directive for returns by water, or to one of the US air ports, including entry port, whichever is closest to the place they desire furlough or leave of absence, except as follows: In those cases where the furlough or leave address of individuals is on the approximate route of travel to an AAF redistribution station to which the individuals are to be assigned, or where it can be foreseen that an appreciable reduction can be made in total required rail travel time, such individuals will be ordered direct to the AAF redistribution station concerned. In this case, processing will be completed at the air entry port and individuals will be authorized delays enroute to the redistribution station for the purpose of furlough or leave of absence.

(2) In the cases of those individuals ordered to a reception station or other air port, processing will be completed at the reception station or air port concerned. Upon completion thereof, the individuals will be ordered to an AAF station in accordance with a request from the Commanding Officer, AAF Redistribution Center, with delay enroute authorized for the purpose of furlough or leave of absence."

c. Delete paragraph 1of and substitute the following therefor:

"f. Sections I and II, AAF Redistribution Center Form 22, will be completed, in single copy only, for all individuals not assigned to an AAF redistribution Center installation. This form will be forwarded to the 19th Statistical Control Unit, AAF Redistribution Center, Atlantic City, New Jersey. In all other cases, the form will be completed in its entirety."

SUBJECT: Procedure for Return by Air of Individuals to the United States.

TO : All Concerned .

1. Reference is made to letter, AG 370.5 (27 Dec 43) CE-S-37MOT-W, War Department, subject: "Procedure for Return by Air of Individuals to the United States", dated 1 January 1944, which was distributed to the command by 1st Indorsement, AG 370.5/357 A-0, this headquarters, dated 20 January 1944.

2. Information has been received from the War Department that, in some instances, orders issued returning personnel by air have stated a reception station by name, in violation of the letter referred to in paragraph 1, and that, as a result, individuals have departed from United States airports without proper clearance or without indorsement to their orders.

3. Care will be exercised to assure compliance with the reference directive.
