FOREWORD

A Library Reading Room is at the disposal of all military and Civilian officials of the Allied Control Commission for study or perusal of documents, reports, intelligence material, and publications of general information. The Reading Room is also available to accredited representatives of other Allied agencies.

It is hoped to obtain a collection of the best recent books in English on Italy and adjacent regions and on post-war settlement, by British and American publishers.

Supplements to the catalogue will be issued periodically.

The numbers in boldface type, which are the library accession numbers, are used as the call numbers. The prefix CR or UD (which should be used with the call numbers) indicates Classified Registry or Unregistered Document.

In addition to the material listed in this catalogue, the Central Reference Library holds:

1. The Enciclopedia Italiana (Treccani), 37 volumes.
2. The Gazzetta Ufficiale, from 1939 onwards, with its important supplements including the Bollettino Mensile di Statistica and the Bollettino dei Prezzi.
3. Much information and reading material on Italy gathered locally.
