(original on 112/HA).

The underlined sentence concerning vehicles seems to me utterly wrong especially in view of 2 herein. They must be able to do something even if they do have to wait for a requisition through 8 Army.

2. Meanwhile Up. Capt. Benson is no better off.

As Region 3 & 4 are under command cannot they be asked to surrender some transport to Up. Capt. Benson?

Above has been at 9/10.

AMGOT 8th Army Organization

358/HQ

MIS, AFHQ

30 Sept. 3

1. Group Captain Benson reports to us that 8th Army has requested immediate organization of a mobile staff to accompany 8th Army in future operations. Group Captain Benson has just visited this HQ to work out arrangements which are considered most immediate and urgent.

2. The arrangements suggested involve the following:

(a) Immediate creation of a staff of 35 officers which will be drawn from existing Region II personnel,

(b) Provision of following motor vehicles:

Seven 15 cwt.
Twenty-one jeeps
One staff car
Five 3 tonners
Six motorcycles

By reason of the time factor certain vehicles will be drawn from Region II but must be replaced. Advice is requested as to the earliest date at which vehicles may be obtained and shipped from North Africa. No additional vehicles are available from 7th or 8th Army sources. A formal requisition will follow.

3. To the permanent staff of 35 it is contemplated that a varying number of officers will be attached from time to time. For the immediate future operations 50 officers should be attached and moved forthwith to Bari. It is suggested that these officers be drawn from Region IV personnel since the area of probable operations of 8th Army will include Region IV territory. These 50 officers should include two legal, two finance, two public health and two civilian supply officers. The balance should be officers for C.A.O. or C.A.P.O. field duty with several competent to act as provincial S.C.A.Os.

4. The transport for the permanent 8th Army AMGOT staff and the personnel to be attached is of the highest priority, since AMGOT 8th Army HQ will move forward not later than 6 October. It is requested that transport
