Assignment of Red Cross Personnel to Assist in Operation of Former Internment Camp at Ferramonte.

AMCOT/3065/HQ.

Deputy Chief Civil Affairs Officer,
(Through Deputy Chief Staff Officer)

16th October, 3.

1. Request has been received from Chief Civil Affairs Officer for dispatch of Red Cross personnel to FERRAMONTE near COCHINA to operate the former refugee camp there. Chief Civil Affairs Officer states that non-military personnel should operate camp in order to improve morale. (Folio 21 in File AMCOT/3065/HQ is the signal from Chief Civil Affairs Officer, folios 16 to 21 in File 385/HQ are the detailed report of the Chief Civil Affairs Officer on this camp).
2. American Red Cross has one man and two women who are attached to AMCOT HQ and is willing to send these to the mainland at once. Two additional men are expected today or tomorrow.
3. A signal (Folio 3 in File 118/HQ) from JCS, AFHQ indicates that Lt. Col MacFarland of the Displaced Persons Sub-Commission of the Allied Commission will arrive in PALERMO on 22nd October, 1943, accompanied by 5 officers, 10 other ranks and 6 Red Cross personnel and that Lt. Col MacFarland, subject to your orders, presumably will deal first with the camp mentioned in paragraph 1.
4. Your decision re whether or not currently available Red Cross personnel should be sent to COCHINA or action should be withheld pending the arrival of Lt. Col MacFarland is requested. Possibly you may consider other action advisable.

L. A. SCHULZ
Major,
Deputy Director of Public Health.
