

Declassified E.O. 12356 Section 3.3/HND No. 785015

ACC

10000/100/896

Net

Declassified E.O. 12356 Section 3.3/WND No. 785015

10000/100/896

SHIPPING & PORTS
OCT. 1943

10/1

Ditta Vincenzo Burgio

Lloyd's Agent

Palermo 24 Octobre 1943

Via Annunziata 84

Major General

Sir Rennel of Rodd

Chief of Civil Affairs

Palermo

The Firm : VINCENZO BURGIO, the LLOYD Agent, s for Palermo and Porto Empedocle respect fully reports to you that since the beginning of the war has been persecuted by the Italian Police because it had been suspected of furnishing news to the ALLIES.

Its English correspondent and another employe have been imprisoned and received severe sentences by the Rome Military Tribunal they are still held in jail.

The Firm dealt in maritime business among which, the loading and unloading of merchandise at the docks from Merchant Ships had to cease its activities especially for the bitter persecution suffered and now it is compelled to appeal to you for the revival of its former activities.

In the port of Palermo there call many Allied Ships with varied material and goods and the work has been entrusted to few companies, which in the past worked with the enemy.

The Burgio Firm is confident that its wide and correct reputation, honor and prestige will be restored by you, for Lloyd can give you full assurance.

Very truly yours

DITTA VINCENZO BURGIO

M. B. Burgio

Lloyd's Agent

The Firm: VINCENZO BURGIO, the LLOYD Agent, s for Palermo and Porto Empedocle respect fully reports to you that since the beginning of the war has been persecuted by the Italian Police because it had been suspected of furnishing news to the ALLIES.

Its English correspondent and another employe have been imprisoned and received severe sentences by the Rome Military Tribunal they are still held in jail.

The Firm dealed in maritime business among which, the loading and unloading of merchandise at the docks from Merchant Ships had to cease its activities especially for the bitter persecution suffered and now it is compelled to appeal to you for the revival of its former activities.

In the port of Palermo there call many Allied Ships with varied material and goods and the work has been entrusted to few companies, which in the past worked with the enemy.

The Burgio Firm is confident that its wide and correct reputation, honor and prestige will be restored by you, for Lloyd can give you full assurance.

Very truly yours

DITTA VINCENZO BURGIO

Ch. B. signor

Lloyd's Agent

Appeal from Lloyd's Agent to operate at Port of Palermo.

6224

[1913]

