The Advisory Council for Italy has issued the following Communique
FOR RELEASE IN MORNING PAPERS JANUARY 13, 1944:

Members of the Advisory Council for Italy have visited various parts of liberated Italy, including Sicily and Sardinia, during the last few days. They have been able to make many contacts with Italians, both official and unofficial, of all points of view, as well as with the officials of the Allied organizations.

On January 10th the Council held its 5th meeting at Naples.

There were present:

M. Massigli (in the Chair) French Committee of National Liberation
M. Macmillan (U.K.)
M. Vyshinsky (USSR)
M. Reinhardt (USA) in the absence of Mr. R.D. Murphy

The Council reviewed the present political and economic situation in Italy and had the opportunity of hearing the views of Marshal Badoglio and members of the Italian Government.

SUBJECT: Meeting of Advisory Council.

1. It was originally thought that the meeting might take place on 4 Jan and that Salerno might be suitable for the purpose.
2. General Joyce pointed out that AOC were moving to Salerno on 3/4 Jan and that their arrival coinciding with the meeting might cause confusion. Joyce has since been informed that Vishinsky's party will not arrive Italy until 7 Jan.
3. When it has been decided where the meeting is to be held Vishinsky should be informed and accommodation for his party (14 in number) arranged.
4. Attached is itinerary of Vishinsky's party.
