DISTRIBUTION LIST:

NUMBER 7

14 December 1943

DISTRIBUTION OF NATOUSA PUBLICATIONS

1. The number of copies indicated for each command in this distribution list is governed by the facilities available for the rapid delivery of publications to the various units and organizations concerned.

2. Where necessary, reproduction and distribution to lower units will be determined and made by the commander concerned.

3. Distributions indicated on this list are to be used only as a guide, and to insure that each command listed receives a limited number of publications from this headquarters.

4. Explanations of distributions indicated:

a. Distribution " " -- NATOUSA Staff.

b. Distribution "X" -- Headquarters Army Group, Armies, Corps, air forces, air force commands, SOS, NATOUSA, base sections, special commands, plus (1) one copy for each division, brigade, and group.

c. Distribution "Y" -- Same as "X" plus (1) one copy for each separate unit. (Army and corps troops and corresponding troops other commands).

d. Distribution "Z" -- This distribution is designed to be a complete distribution going down to all companies, squadrons, and detachments, including all staffs. (Note: Distribution will be made as indicated, and the provisions of paragraph 2 above complied with when necessary).

5. Distribution to divisions, brigades, and groups will be varied upon request of the unit to permit a "Y" distribution without reproduction within the unit.

6. Voluminous unnecessary distribution should be eliminated whenever possible.

MEMORANDUM

TO : All Concerned

DISTRIBUTION LIST

1. For the information and guidance of all concerned, the distribution lists now in effect for publications of this Headquarters are attached hereto as Appendix "A".

2. Distribution "A" covers, in general, the distribution of public affairs of General Division. This category includes the Daily Bulletin, General Orders, and Administrative Memoranda of General Division. It should be noted, however, that in the case of publications of general application, but of a specialized nature, this distribution may not be complete.

3. Distribution "B" is used principally in the case of Special Orders. In addition to the distribution listed thereunder, copies of Special Orders are forwarded to the individuals concerned, and to their organizations of assignment, where applicable.

4. A number of special distributions are also in use, which cover in the main the higher staff officers of this Headquarters. Such distributions will generally be indicated on the publication affected.

5. It should be borne in mind that the attached schedules are tentative, and subject to change. Such changes, when applicable, will be published as amendments.

6. It is requested that any office wishing to increase or decrease the allotment of publications as indicated herein transmit such suggested alterations in these schedules, in writing, to the Assistant Adjutant General, Miscellaneous Section, Room 13, 8, Via Bari. In requesting increased allotments of publications, especially those of comparatively transitory value, such as the Daily Bulletin, it should be remembered that every effort is being made to conserve our stocks of paper.

By command of Brigadier General McWHIRTER:

411 Stewart
L. H. STALLS
Capt. 2985
ADJ. GEN. 2985

as Appendix "A".

2. Distribution "2" covers, in general, the distribution of publications of General Order. This category includes the Daily Bulletin, General Orders, and Administrative Memoranda of General Order. It should be noted, however, that in the case of publications of General Order, one of a specialized nature, this distribution may not be complete.

3. Distribution "3" is used principally in the case of Special Orders. In addition to the distribution listed thereunder, copies of Special Orders are forwarded to the individuals concerned, and to their organizations of assignment, where applicable.

4. A number of special distributions are also in use, which cover in the main the higher staff officers of this headquarters. Such distributions will generally be indicated on the publication affected.

5. It should be borne in mind that the attached schedules are tentative, and subject to change. Such changes, when available, will be published as amendments.

6. It is suggested that any office wishing to increase or decrease its allotment of publications as indicated herein transmit such suggested alterations in these schedules, in writing, to the Assistant Adjutant General, Miscellaneous Section, Room 13, 8, Via Bari. In requesting increased allotments of publications, especially those of comparatively transitory value, such as the Daily Bulletin, it should be remembered that every effort is being made to conserve our stocks of paper.
