G2 Summary number 121.

A. ITALY

1. Operations. No positional changes of note. Arrival of 16 SS PG Div on Adriatic Sector marked by extremely aggressive patrolling. In western coastal sector strong resistance met by our patrols southeast of MASSA.

2. Dispositions. Deserters 577 GR (305 Inf Div) taken on 5 Army front say they left BAZZANO 16850 31 December. Statement accords with previous information from deserter 578 GR 25 December that Division was moving for rest and LEFTODO BOLOGNA area. 26 Panzer and 98 Inf Div still unlocated but believed probably in close reserve to 10 Army front. 157 Mountain Div also not yet satisfactorily accounted for.

3. General. Enemy's intention to stand firm on east flank underlined by bringing in 16 SS PG Div. 3 of his 4 mobile Divisions now engaged this flank. Central Sector reasonably strongly held with fatted Infantry Divisions. Both parachute divisions particularly strong in numbers. Reserves now amount to 2 Infantry and 1 mobile division in addition to 157 Mountain Division. Enemy therefore still capable of launching diversionary operations with object of keeping Allied forces

IN CLEAR.

A new years greeting from the Chief of Chaplains, United States Army, to go out over a world wide signal corps network to all Chaplains.

New Year in the calendar is merely an artificial date fixed by CAESAR nearly 2000 years ago, but the new year can be a vital spiritual reality in your consciousness and mine if with Gods help we make it so. Not one of us is satisfied with what we did last year, and many of us have suffered some disappointment. Regrets may be justified but the backward glance is futile unless it leads us to look forward steadfastly and with new hope and faith. Confidence in the supreme worth of our task and of the eternal values we build gives power to endure and to achieve.

If we will, we may gain a large measure of these 2 supreme values in the year to come: a consciousness of our own growth in disciplined and dedicated character, and a knowledge that we have helped others to live a more abundant life.

Let us say with one who accomplished much, "forgetting the things that are behind and stretching forth ourselves that are before, we press towards the mark"
