G-2 Summary number 143.

A. ITALY. Enemy attitude continues passive. 2 battalion 290 GR (98 Div) identified by PW area COTIGNOLA M 3534. This is southern sector of previous front 356 Division. PW say battalion arrived 8-10 days ago and relieved formation which had only been few days in line. This evidence in accord with previous statement of PW 362 Division who stated latter was only staying short time in line. Consider 356 Div now wholly out of line and 362 Div probably in process of extraction. No evidence yet as to destination of either.

B. BALKANS.

1. HUNGARY. Enemy claims further progress area SZEKESFEHERVAR. No details.

2. JUGOSLAVIA. Some indication MOSTAR area being reinforced 1000 troops formerly of GREECE reported arrived SIROKI BRIJEG and NEVESINJE.

600 troops BRANDENBURG Regiment reported left BLEED for Germany 14 January. Probably refers LEHR Regiment BRANDENBURG previously SLOVENIA. Absence reports on BRANDENBURG Regiment for some time suggests their continued existence JUGOSLAVIA doubtful and may have been withdrawn from southeastern europe. Departure LEHR Regiment suggests some reorganization about to take place.

G 2 summary number 142.

A. ITALY. 1. No major activity reported throughout front. Deserter 1044 GR (232 Div) area I 5016 stated he was clearing tracks in preparation for attack by mountain troops. Had also heard his division was being withdrawn for dispatch to Eastern front. Deserters 1 Bersaglieri Regt ITALIA Div in coastal sector and 5 Marine Regt area MASSA. Latter had left SAVONA about 26 December and had reached MONZONE P 9015 on 17 January. No knowledge whereabouts of remainder division.

2. Rear areas. Ground source reports new division forming at VERONA under General STAUM from elements drawn from all formations in ITALY. On 7 January division left VERONA for TREVISO. Comments: tentatively accept 155 FD training div this area. Earlier reports placing 20 GAFFD Div area TREVISO suggest that it is contributing to formation of the new division. Several reports from NW ITALY mention hurried German preparations for evacuation. Evidence however as yet remarkably unspecific.

3. Conclusions. Spite of reports and rumours regarding divisional moves and general evacuation to be expected at this time nothing concrete has yet emerged. In any case consider enemy will postpone to last moment any decision involving radical change in policy. Consider his present position would allow him to dispense with at least 2 divisions immediately without affecting his holding in ITALY.

B. BALKANS. 1. HUNGARY. Enemy recaptured SZERESFEHERVAR in course of operations to relieve BUDAPEST from South. 1 Panzer Division reported engaged this fighting.

G-2 summary 141.

A. ITALY. 1. Whole front generally quiet. Defensive preparations continue along lower SENIO including demolitions at ALFONSINE and LUGO.

2. Identifications. 2 corpses on 4 PARA DIV front, preliminarily identified as 15 PGR (29 PG DIV) now believed to have been transferred to parachutists. In western coastal sectors normal identifications of 148 INF DIV.

3. Rear Areas. PW 906 FORTRESS BATTALION states his unit had exchanged sectors with unit from GENOA. Appears therefore possible that elements of 135 FORTRESS BRIGADE replaced 285 GR when latter rejoined 148 DIV. Further to G-2 summary number 138 para 2, regiment of ALPINE "DIVISION" into BELLUNO area reported almost complete by 21 January. No further evidence as to identity these troops but suggest number exaggerated its likely to refer to training drafts rather than complete formation.

B. BALKANS. 1. HUNGARY. Reports continue of enemy attacks in area SXEKESPEVERVAR and Lake VELENCEI. According ROUMANIAN CS RUSSIAN line west of GARAN river passes southwest BATORKESZ to DANUBE 1 mile east of SATTO. If confirmed this appears indicated local withdrawal by RUSSIANS from east bank VITYINA river.

2. YUGOSLAVIA. Heavy troop movement reported by rail ZAGREB-VARAXDIN. This probably accounted for by departure 3:24 JAEGER
