This is MAT 568.

Summary of statement by Secretary of Treasury MORGENTHAU before Congressional Committee on 27 February on subject of invasion currencies have been reported in Italian Press. His reported disclosure that Italian Government has assumed responsibility for AM lire under armistice has called forth headlined comment in ITALY, including statement by Finance Minister SOLMI, to effect that it would be "unjust" to expect ITALY to be responsible for AM lire. This reaction was not unexpected, in view of Italian Government's memorandum of 9 January demanding complete dollar/sterling reimbursement for all lire expended by or on account of Allied Forces, which memorandum was forwarded to you by this headquarters on 28 February by air mail with our comments. The Italian Government has gone far to connect stability of lire with such reimbursement in minds of public.

In connection with our study of paragraph 13 of TAM 445, as mentioned in MAT 554, it would be helpful to have official summary of Secretary MORGENTHAU's statement, and any additional information on subject which you consider relevant

A. ITALY. Lack of contact with 715 Infantry Division, together with identification regiment of 334 Division in former area 715 suggest latter withdrawn from front lines. Possible 278 Division assuming part of sector. This view supported by lateral movement after relief by 26 Panzer, and indications 992 Grenadier Regiment in forward area. On other hand reliable report preparations being made latter part February area BASSANO-TREVISO and northwards for large movement of troops end of month. Suggest therefore 715 Infantry possible candidate for Germany, but so far no concrete evidence this division actually in transit. Possible signs regrouping observed 90 Panzer Grenadier Division area PT in northwestern ITALY evidence accumulating MONTE ROSA Division taking over little by little from 5 Mountain Division which has been dribbling down SUSAS Valley and eastward for several weeks. Report received medium artillery on March to east, and element 100 Mountain Regiment identified ALESSANDRIA Area by partisans 21 February.

B. BALKANS. 1. JUGOSLAVIA. Enemy concentration which recently observed east of ZAGREB shown by PR 1 March to have moved northeastwards towards VARAZDIN. No identification yet received but destination likely to be southern HUNGARY. Cossack troops occupied DARUVAR and GRUBISNO POLJE in SLAVONIA, presumably with intention opening up lateral communications through this area.

2. AEGEAN. 14 Germans captured by British Naval patrol at sea between

Soap for NORTH ITALY. This is LAC 1045.

1. This is requisition WFO-773-04 for 5000 tons of soap required during early June as a reserve for NORTH ITALY.
2. Northern soap stockpile only about 50 tons at present.
3. Southern production will not permit stockpiling for north. North has no substantial indigenous fatty material to support production.
4. Normal ration is 150 grams per month per person. During period May/July 10000 tons needed to support this ration in north. Expected that civil commitment can be met by provision of 5000 tons in early June.
5. Wish to advise that liberated ITALY is also deficient in soap at rate of 1280 tpm. Critical global supply position is realized and this requisition covers only amounts necessary to insure supplies during initial stages of entry into NORTH ITALY.

This is COM 45. Mercury exports from ITALY.

Refer COM 379, LAG 634 and GAI 1054. It is our understanding from reports of the Allied Commission that mercury exportation has been considered.

There have arisen in the UNITED STATES mercury needs. Consequently opinion now is that reexamination should be made of mercury, based on direct end use which will be made of commodity.

LAG 630 states that mercury price includes exporting tax of 100 dollars levied by Govt of ITALY with whom we recommend your negotiating re the possibility of tax being repealed or suspended.

1. Your para 2. Banca D'Italia letter to Bank of England requesting opening of reserve account was despatched on 12 February further letters are being prepared to UK banks authorising transfer to the reserve account in sums of Pounds 5000. It is proposed that when receipts for remittances effected are returned to UK banks Banca D'Italia will at the same time instruct the banks to transfer sums in round amounts thus ensuring that only such sums will be transferred as represent remittances paid to beneficiaries in ITALY.

2. Your para 4. Banca D'Italia has now agreed to the following:

(a) As from 1 March the bank will provide Banca Di Napoli and Banco Di Sicilia with the Lire necessary for effecting remittance payments. On 1 March bank will reimburse AFA for total amount of Lire provided to banks for remittance payments prior to that date. This will not alter the present relationships between banks who will carry on as heretofore. The UK banks positions will be exactly same (DPM 599 of 25 February also refers)

(b) As soon as above arrangements completed Banco Di Sicilia will request
