SUBJECT: Distribution List.

TO : All Concerned.

1. The following information concerning Distribution List #4 is furnished for the guidance of all concerned:

a. A and W will be employed to indicate staff distributions. They are identical with the exception that W will not include those purely British sections shown in paragraph 1b of Part I.

b. Distribution B, C, and D will be the same as X, Y, and Z respectively, with the exception that X, Y, and Z will not include the units and sections shown in Part VII and paragraph 1b of Part I.

c. Distribution A, E, G, and H normally will be employed on Allied Force Headquarters publications, whereas X, Y, and Z will appear on Headquarters MTOUSA publications.

d. Distributions E and X are devised to reach specified major commands as well as certain units to which no other channels of communication exist. The number of copies of a given publication to any organization included in these distributions may be varied as required.

e. Distributions C and Y will cover the headquarters of army groups, armies, corps, air forces, base sections, special commands, and one copy for each division, brigade, regiment, group, and separate units of an echelon of equivalent size.

f. Distributions D and Z are designed as complete distributions and should reach all companies, squadrons, and detachments as well as all staff sections.

2. Distribution lists will be revised or issued as often as is necessary to conform to changes in strength or location. Information on these matters should accompany any request for increase or decrease in number of copies

SUBJECT: Distribution List.

TO : All concerned.

24 August 1944

1. The following information concerning Distribution List #2 is furnished for the guidance of all concerned:

- a. A and W will be employed to indicate staff distributions. They are identical with the exception that W will not include those purely British sections shown in paragraph 1b of Part I.
- b. Distribution B, C, and D will be the same as X, Y, and Z, respectively, with the exception that X, Y, and Z will not include the purely British units and Sections shown in Part VII and paragraph 1b of Part I.
- c. Distribution A, B, C, and D will normally be employed on Allied Force Headquarters publications, whereas W, X, Y, and Z will normally appear on Headquarters NATOUSA publications.
- d. Distributions B and X are devised to reach specified major commands as well as certain units to which no other channels of communication exist. The number of copies of a given publication to any organization included in these distributions may be varied as required.
- e. Distributions C and Y will cover the headquarters of army groups, armies, corps, air forces, SOS NATOUSA, base sections, special commands, and one copy for each division, brigade, regiment, group, and separate units of an echelon of equivalent size.
- f. Distributions D and Z are designed as complete distribution and should reach all companies, squadrons, and detachments as well as all staff sections.

2. Distribution lists will be revised or issued as often as is necessary to conform to changes in strength or location. Information on these matters should accompany any request for increase or decrease in number of copies required.

By command of General WILSON:

R. H. CHRISTIE,
Colonel, AGD,

Acting Adjutant General.
