Salerno 29 May 1944

File No. 1651/Prot.

TO: Capt. Ellery W. Stone,
Allied Control Commission,
Naples.

Dear Captain Stone:

One of my employees has asked me to try and obtain news and the address of his brother, full-corporal Filippo Tocca, of the 47/32 Compagnia Cannoni (Artillery Company)--Grenadeers of Sardinia--who was taken prisoner in Tunis.

In September 1943 he wrote and said he was a prisoner in Egypt.

Since then the brother has had no news of him, and does not know the exact locality where he is held prisoner.

I would be most grateful if you would be so kind as to have inquiries made and provide me with some indications.

I thank you cordially,

The Private Secretary of the President of the Council of Ministers.

(Lt. Col. G. Valensano)

/s/ G. Valensano.
