G-I ARCHIVES

The present Head Clerk is handing over to Mr. PIGMEINO on June 1st. At interview today he stated that the files of G-I (A) other than Regimental were with Archives with the exception of a few recent letters which would be given a file Number (after No 52/) and sent down when they close. No Master Files are therefore necessary as Present-List are in order.

1. Your two volumes are returned herewith.
2. As explained to your S/Sgt the instructions of Executive Memorandum No. 8 do not ask for files to be sent to Archives unless accompanied by a list in quadruplicate showing the names of the files sent down.
3. In order that the list may be comprehensive, will you please retain the files until a sufficient quantity are ready for storage to justify such list being prepared. We suggest not less than 20.
