RSP. 1- 15/AB
SUBJECT 1- Files.
TO 1- A.C. Chief Liaison Officer, PIAWON.

On checking files deposited in Archives by Piemonte Region, against the file lists submitted by them, it was found that quite a number of files were not to hand (lists attached in duplicate).

It is of the utmost importance that such files be traced and if not in use, be deposited in Archives as early as possible.

In the case of files loaned to outside organizations (USGMA etc.) a receipt will be obtained (as per attached specimen) and forwarded to this branch without delay, in accordance with Executive Memorandum No. 7 para 8 dated 5 January 1946 (copy attached).

for and on behalf of Executive Commissioner.

SUBJECT: Transmittal of Records.

TO : S.L.O. Piemonte.

1. It has come to the knowledge of this Branch that 4 boxes of Financial Records have been sent from CUNEO Province direct to A.F.A. Rome through the Transport Section of this Headquarters.
2. Attention is directed to paras. 7 and 8 of Executive Memo No. 7 (copy attached for easy reference) and it is requested that the Province concerned be advised of the irregularity of this procedure.
3. The A.F.A. Section is now a Branch of A.F.H.Q. and as such is deemed an "Outside Body" so far as A.C. Archives are concerned.
4. Since all records of A.C. have eventually to be micro-filmed, it is essential that this Branch is in possession of complete file lists showing the disposition of all files i.e. whether file has been destroyed, retained for use, or loaned to an "outside body".
5. In the case of records being loaned to any "outside body", a separate list of these records, signed by the receiving body, will be forwarded to this office.
