SUBJECT : Files from Naples.

TO : C.L.C. Naples,

1. Seven boxes of files were received yesterday from Naples Liaison Group.
2. The packing was extremely bad; in some cases the files were packed loose and had become badly mixed up in transit.
3. In one case card indices had been so insecurely packed that they had shaken loose from their boxes and the case was merely a collection of loose cards.
4. Your reference is drawn to Signal 4186 of 16 July 1946, last paragraph and an explanation is requested.
