SUBJECT: - Major John McSweeney, Spec. Res. -O-164741

TO : - G-1 (Through Administrative Directorate)

1. Request above named officer be transferred to this Sub-Commission.
2. This officer is now in the Interior Sub-Commission but has considerable experience of Welfare work in which he has expressed keen interest.
3. This matter has been discussed with Lt. Col. Spicer who would not resist Major McSweeney's transfer to Welfare if it were to the benefit of the Allied Commission, and provided the vacancy thus caused in his establishment can be filled. Lt. Col. Spicer entertains the highest personal regard for Major McSweeney, and wishes this point to be unmistakably clear. I should be glad, therefore, if this transfer could be arranged as we are particularly short of Welfare officers in this Sub-Commission and would welcome this addition to our staff.

SUBCOMMISSION FOR NEWCASTLE, FIVE ARTS AND ARCHIVES

[February 1944]

SUBJECT: Travel Orders and assignment of Captain James ELLIS.

TO: Lt. Col. GIPPS
Administrative Directive

1. Captain James ELLIS, 053567 US arrived from First Depot in Naples on the evening of 5 February and reported for duty with the Subcommission on the morning of 7 February. He arrived with no copies of his travel orders or of any orders assigning him to the Subcommission. His assignment to the Subcommission was made verbal on his arrival to First Depot by the assignment board and he reported at First Depot as calling for the Subcommission and that he reports to Naples as a change of station and not a new assignment.

2. After consultation with him and the other two officers from First Depot it is felt that he would be of most use in Region V as he was with Major JENNIS with 4th Hq. 5th Army Area Forward. This arrangement has the verbal consent of Col. WILLIAM H. BROWN, for Region V. Since Col. WILLIAM's D/O is full he suggests that Captain ELLIS be attached to his Hq. and proceed as soon as practicable to Foggia. It is requested that orders be issued for Captain ELLIS in the following manner as suggested by the Assistant Adjutant General:

(a) Captain James ELLIS, 053567, Spec. Asst. Monmouth, Five Arts and Archives, held for report and by stated to Region V for temp. Foggia Hq. as without delay, Hq. to CAO for Hq. Upon completion of temp. Hq. will return to proper sta. Travel by gov't Hq. is authorized.
