HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR SANCTIONS AGAINST FASCISM

THE COMMISSIONER FOR PURIFICATION

ROME . 14 Sept 1945

TO: THE PRESIDENCY OF THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS

SUBJECT: Request for a seat in airplane

We declare that Dr. Carlo A. GALANTE GARRONE, judge of the Tribunal in Turin, has been appointed Delegate of the High Commissioner for sanctions against fascism for the province of Turin; that he went from Turin to Rome upon request of the High Commissioner on duty and more precisely to have an interview with Dr. D. Riccardo Peretti Griva, Assistant High Commissioner and receive from him the instructions and directives required for the activity that the afore-mentioned Delegate shall carry out in the Province of Turin; that Dr. Carlo A. GALANTE GARRONE, must return as soon as possible to Turin because of the said exigencies of service in connection with his position of provincial Delegate of the High Commissioner.

We therefore wish to ask you that Dr. Carlo A. GALANTE GARRONE be given a seat in the airplane which starts from Rome next Monday 17 September.

The Identity Card of Dr. A. GALANTE GARRONE reads as follows:

Railway Card of the Ministry of Pardon and Justice, No. 4285, issued in Rome on 11th April 1935 and renewed Sept 5, 1945

- 2 Sig. G. Battista Boeri is an important official of the Italian Government. In addition to his position as Commissioner for the Government Credit Institution for Public Works he is charged with the responsibility of advising the Prime Minister on problems affecting the German speaking minorities in Northern Italy. In this latter capacity he has had official business to transact with the Civil Affairs Section of Allied Commission; and it was in connection there with that the journey was authorized.
- 3 Brigadier Upjohn, in his capacity as Vice President of the Civil Affairs Section was aware of the necessity for Sig. Boeri's journey and personally authorized it.

Qualora, nel viaggio di andata a Milano, non fosse possibile ottenere contemporaneamente tutti i tre posti richiesti sullo stesso aereo, le sarò grato se vorrà far disporre per due posti, per me e per il dott. Colli, per il giorno 14 cm. ed un posto, per l'avv. Cacciatori, per il giorno 16 cm.

Io resterò a Sua disposizione per qualsiasi richiesta o chiarimento.

Basterà che mi faccia telefonare ed io verrò subito ed avrò così anche il piacere di vederla.

Con i migliori saluti e ringraziamenti.

F. De André

Dear Colonel,

With reference to our conversation, and while waiting for the report of Avv. Cacciatori on the interview he had with Col. White in connection with my letter to Brigadier Upjohn for obtaining seats on a plane, I am sending you the number of my identity cards and those of the officials that will accompany me in Northern Italy.

Avv. Domenico Riccardo PALETTI-GRIVA - postal card of Turin, No. 405237

Dr. Giovanni Colli - Railway card issued by the Ministry of Justice, No. 41422

Avv. Francesco Ferruccio CACCIATORI - fire-arm permit issued in Rome, No. 656497.

Will you kindly arrange for a seat for Dr. Colli and myself also from Milan to Turin and for myself alone for the return from Turin to Milan and from Milan to Rome for about the 24th of this month.

If it is not possible to obtain the three seats on the same plane for the trip to Milan, I should be grateful if you can get two seats, for Dr. Colli and myself for the 14th and a seat for Avv. Cacciatori for the 16th.

I shall give you whatever clarification you may want. You may just call me and I shall come to your office immediately, and also have the pleasure of seeing you.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely yours
