The President of the Council of Ministers

Dear Admiral:

As you will probably know, the English Military Court in Afragola (Napoli) sentenced to death on March the 8th the Carabiniere Marinello Sodini, accused of killing an Allied prisoner of war. The man has appealed to higher authorities against the sentence.

As I am receiving letters from all parts begging me to intervene in favor of Sodini, I am bringing the case to your attention so that with your high sense of justice and impartiality you might be willing to consider the action of Sodini as an action that went beyond his intentions, and that his behavior was determined by a subjective, even if wrong, interpretation of the intentions of the prisoner towards him.

Believe me,

SUBJECT: Persons Wanted by the Allied Authorities

TO : AFHQ (Attn: C-5 Section).

/MA

1. There has been lately a considerable increase in the number of requests for information in respect of Italian Army officers and men, believed to be connected with War Crimes against the Allies. It is understood that these requests originate with the International War Crimes Investigation Authorities, from whom they are passed via AFHQ to Land Forces Sub-Commission, Allied Commission (AWA) for investigation by the Italian War Ministry.

2. In recent lists appear the names of several Italian Generals and senior officers who are well known to have co-operated wholeheartedly and fought with the Allied Armies in Italy since September 1943, who are still engaged with us in reorganising the Italian Army as required by the Allied Combined Chiefs of Staff, and on whose services reliance is being placed for future co-operation and success.

3. It is realised that in many cases requests for tracing these officers are based on very scanty information and that they may be required more for purpose of evidence than actual indictment; nevertheless, such demands, particularly when made in their present form, are likely to have a disturbing effect on the morale, confidence and co-operation of the Italian Army.

4. It should also be remembered that at the same time there is going on the Italian defascistisation and epuration campaign involving investigations into the former activities of most Italian officers.

5. Although this matter has not been discussed with the Ministry of War, it is clear that they are a little disturbed at these requests; and 1731 is only natural to suppose that, not knowing for what purpose the information on an individual is required, they may in some cases not pursue their investigations as energetically as they should.

6. Whilst it is obvious that enquiries must be made in respect of those reasonably suspected of crimes and justice done to those guilty, it is felt there should be some means of differentiating between these and those against whom there are no charges but who are wanted for evidence.

7. Without willing Italian co-operation in this matter we can achieve but little and full co-operation is not assured by the present procedure. It is recommended, therefore, that a full policy statement should be issued by AFHQ which can be passed to the Ministries concerned; and that when requests for naming individuals are made, these should be accompanied by some remarks or reasons or background for the request, perhaps mentioning the nation or nations concerned who have made the request. It is felt that by so doing we shall be more likely to achieve our object and to avoid unnecessary unsettling in Italian minds.

Il sottoscritto SCIANTI Dottor Ulderico di Camillo da Modena, attualmente in servizio presso l'Ospedale Militare di Modena come S. Tenente Medico, presenta al Comando Militare Alleato in Modena, la seguente dichiarazione :

Il 17 Maggio 1944, prestavo servizio presso l'Ospedale Civile di Modena come medico di guardia. Verso le ore 13,30 veniva da' trasportato, a mezzo di autocarro, da militari della guardia repubblicana, un pilota americano, che costretto ad atterrare nelle vicinanze della città, coll'apparecchio in fiamme, era rimasto gravemente ustionato.

Subito gli ho prestato aiuto dal collega Dottor CAIUMI Gino di Modena, e da alcuni infermieri il pronto soccorso; le condizioni generali dell'ustionato, sono apparse subito gravissime, la prognosi sicuramente mortale.

Presentava infatti ustioni di II e III grado diffuse a tutto il corpo: particolarmente colpito il viso, gli arti superiori ed inferiori, ed il tronco. Al palmo delle mani le ustioni erano di IV grado. La coscienza era però ben conservata: diceva di soffrire atrocemente "cocktail". Come medicazione abbiamo applicato su tutta la superficie cutanea compresse di garza bagnate in soluzione fisiologica ed Amuchina, mantenute da continuo umide, cardiocinetici, ed abbondante morfina per via ipodermica, seziando la sete con acqua e cognac.

Ebbero allora a verificarsi i seguenti episodi:

Glie' ell'ingresso dell'americano nella camera di medicazione, situata a pianterreno (testimoni numerose persone che, trovandoci in periodo di allarme, stazionavano nel cortile interno dell'Ospedale) un sergente delle guardie nazionali repubblicana, con rivoltella in pugno, si precipitava contro di lui con parole infuriate e gridando di volerlo uccidere. Trattandosi da uomini del personale ospedaliero, ed alla vista delle condizioni del prigioniero, desisteva però, dal suo proposito. Dieci minuti dopo quando glie' la medicazione era a buon punto, penetrava nella camera un energumeno (che più tardi risultò essere un capitano delle guardie repubblicana) che, gridando parole accie, si precipitava sul ferito, cercando ripetutamente di colpirlo con pugni. Tali colpi, però, andarono a vuoto perché lo che in quel momento ero chino sull'americano e sistemargli le bende umide m'rialzai di scatto e parei i colpi respingendo violentemente quel forsennato. Nella rapida colluttazione però, quel degnio ufficiale della guardia, riusciva a strappare le bende applicate sul viso dell'usignato, trascinando con esse anche estesi lembo di cute. Con un urto cacciai indietro quel vigliacco, che giunto tra le robuste braccia del Dottor CAIUMI volava letteralmente fuori della porta. Tale scenetta ebbe la durata di pochi secondi. Portata a termine la medicazione, interrogai l'americano che conosceva qualche parola di tedesco: disse di chiamarsi PTF Franklin di anni 20 da S. Francisco di California, di essere un pilota cacciatore del campo di Lecce, dal quale era partito il mattino a bordo di un Lightning. Temeva che lo si maltrattasse, anzi che lo si uccidesse; io lo rassicurai più volte e lui, persuaso, ringraziava continuamente. Uscito dalla cameretta di medicazione, venni affrontato da un capitano del-

Io gli risposi di non saperlo e mi rammaricai con lui di non essere riuscito io a fare cio' che il mio collega aveva fatto. A tali parole lui s'imbestiali, mi chiamo venduto, traditore, anglofilo, partigiano, ecc. ecc. Io pero' rimasi calmo e cercai di fargli capire che la mia missione di medico mi imponeva di soccorrere i malati e feriti, senza curarmi di quale nazione fossero, a quale esercito appartenessero e che fede professassero.

Alle mie argomentazioni, lui rispondeva (sempre arrogante) con altre degne di un alienato mentale, finche' io, ormai stanco, e chiamato ad altro lavoro, minacciandolo di farlo buttare fuori Ospedale da due facchini, riuscii a liberarmi di lui. Tale discussione duro' oltre mezz'ora. Verso le ore 16 venne l'autorita' militare tedesca e quella della polizia locale ad interrogare l'americano; tutti si sono comportati nei riguardi di lui, nel modo piu' corretto. Verso le ore 18 l'ufficiale, sempre gravissimo, ma pero' sempre consciiente, veniva trasportato all'Ospedale Militare di Modena. Due giorni dopo, il 19 Maggio, venivano ad arrestarmi a casa mia i due agenti in borghese; a mezzo macchira, sulla quale trovai il solito capitano, venni trasportato aella caserma sede allievi della scuola guardia repubblicana. Durante il tregitto venni minacciato di sicura, anzi di immediata fucilazione, dopo essere stato tacciato come traditore e favoreggiatore del nemico. Dalla caserma fui condotto e rinchiuso nelle carceri locali di S. Eufemia, ove rimasi fino alle ore 10 del giorno dopo. In tale periodo ed anche prima, non fui mai soggetto a maltrattamenti ed a violenze. Il giorno dopo insieme al Dottor CAIULI, pure lui arrestato la sera prima, venni trasportato per un interrogatorio alla caserma Nutti; il colonnello comandante la guardia nazionale repubblicana, dcro la nostra deposizione, provvedeva all'immediata nostra scarcerazione, pregandoci di accogliere mille scuse. Provvedeva pure affinché l'ufficiale in oggetto, venisse arrestando e giudicato. Non so se questo sia avvenuto; so soltanto che si trattava di un certo capitano COVA da Reggio Emilia comandante di compagnia ed istruttore presso la scuola allievi delle guardie repubblicane in Modena e che il nostro arresto era stato un abuso suo personale. Tutte le autorita' civili e militari di allora e tra esse specie il magnifico Rettore dell'Universita' di Modena, prof. MOR, il Prof. TRABUCCHI, ed il Prof. DE GAETANI, si sono subito interessati al caso, e riconoscendo tutti l'assurdita' dell'accusa, mi liberavano definitivamente dalla incomoda situazione.

Translation of enclosed document follows:

The undersigned SCALMI Doctor Ulcerico, son of Camillo from Modena, at present employed at the Modena Military Hospital as a medical 2nd Lt., presents to the Allied Military Command of Modena the following statement:

On the 17 May 1944 I was the doctor on duty at the Civil Hospital in Modena. Towards 1330 h an American pilot was transported there by soldiers of the Republican Guard using a truck. The pilot was forced to land his plane in the vicinity of the city and was gravely burned.

I offered my immediate help and was assisted by a colleague, DR CAIUMI from Modena and a few attendants. The condition of the burned person appeared to be very grave and it looked like he will surely die.

As a matter of fact he had second and third degree burns all over his body; and wounds especially on the face, upper arm, lower limbs, and the body. On the palms of his hands he had fourth degree burns. However, he was quite conscious, talked about suffering greatly, complained about continuous and intense thirst calling for water and "cocktail" for medications we applied gaunce immersed in physiological and amuchina solutions that we constantly kept wet; sufficient morphine applied through hypodermic quenching the thirst with water and cognac.

Just then, the following episode happened:
In front of the entrance ~~entrance~~ of the room in which the American was cared for, located on the ground floor, (in front of numerous witnesses who, because of an air raid warning, were assembled in the inner courtyard of the hospital) a sergeant of the National Guard with drawn revolver rushed against the American yelling insulting words and crying that he wants to kill him. Held back by the hospital personnel and seeing the condition of the prisoner, he desisted however. Ten minutes later, when a medicament reached a satisfactory degree an enervumen penetrated the room (later he proved to be a Captain of the Republican Guard) and yelling profane words rushed at the wounded man trying repeatedly to strike him with his fist. These endeavors ~~endeavors~~ 1723 over, American applying damp bandages. I rose suddenly counteracting the punches, and pushing the madman violently away. In this rapid fight, however, this worthy officer of the guard succeeded tear away the bandage from the face of the burned flyer ripping off also long strips of flesh. With a quick move I pushed this coward into the strong arms of Dr Caiumi who literally made him fly through the door. This scene lasted a few seconds. Having finished the treatment, I asked the American who spoke a few words in German: he told me that his name was Pit Franklin, 30 years of age, from California, a fighter pilot from the Lecce airfield, and that he left that field in the morning with a Lightning plane. He was afraid that he would be maltreated after being released from the hospital, or would even be killed.

I assured him several times that he was safe, and he thanked me repeatedly. When I left the treatment room I was stopped by a Captain of the Republican Guard (the same madman) who asked me ~~me~~ in a rough way who for the name of the doctor who threw him out of the room. I told him

In a way in which only a mentally sick person can express himself. I grew tired and was called to work and threatened to have him thrown out of the hospital by two attendants. In this manner I succeeded in freeing myself from him. This discussion lasted for more than a half an hour. Towards 1600 H German Military authorities and members of the local police arrived in order to interrogate the American. All behaved in a more correct manner towards him. About 1800 H the burned pilot, still in a grave condition but always conscious, was transferred to the Military Hospital of Modena. Two days later, on 19 May 1944, two agents in civilian clothes came to my house to arrest me. I was brought by a car in which this same Captain was seated, and was transported to the school for the Republican Cadet Guards. During the trip I was threatened to be shot with certainty since I acted like a traitor and favoured the enemy. I was escorted from the barracks and locked up in the local prison of S. Eufemia, where I remained up to 10 o'clock the following day. During that time, as also previously, I was never subjected to maltreatment or violence. The next day I was led, together with Dr. Caiumi (also arrested the night before), to the military barracks for an interrogation. The Colonel in charge of the National Republican Guard effected our immediate release after hearing our statements and apologized sincerely. He also ordered the arrest of the officer in question and his proper punishment. I do not know whether this took place. All I know is that the name of the Captain is Cova from Reggio Emilia, company commander and instructor at the Cadet School of the Republican Guard in Modena. Our arrest was a personal revenge of his. All civilian and military authorities (among them honorable dean of the Modena University, Prof Mori, Prof Trabucchi, and Prof De Gaetani) took interest in the case at once and recognized the absurdity of the accusation and freed me from this unpleasant situation.

O 2 3 4
I give my word of honor with regard to the truth of the above statement which I made for the sake of justice.
