1. Food S/C should be informed that G.O. 29 has been repeated.
2. G.O. 29 (Revised) does not contain simply a list of commodities but is a combination of commodities and quantities. See GO and in particular Art IV. (2)
3. I agree that RCs could issue their own notice locally and I suggest the following:-

"Pursuant to Article VI of AMG General Order No 29 (Revised) notice is hereby given by the Allied Military Government that with effect from the date ~~of this~~ hereof the Schedule of Commodities mentioned in Article IV Section 2 of the said General Order shall, within all territory subject to the administration of ... Brewers' Malt	?	5950

4. G.O. 29 (Revised) has not been posted in any part of Emilia, Liguria or Lombardia or Venezia. It is impossible that it has been posted in Piemonte. Apparently in March 8th. Any improperly posted GO 29 (original) in Foli & Ravenna. I don't know about Bologna & Apennine Provinces.

Before I ask the Legal Sub-Commission to draft the necessary amendment to General Order 29 I would be glad to know whether, so far as you know, any other commodities are likely to be added or withdrawn from the present list.

I should add that I am not at all certain that G.O. 29 has in fact been posted in all of Allied Military Government territory.

Chief Commissioner:

1. This new revised General Order No. 29 (Declaration of Essential Supplies and Fixing of Prices) is originated by Economic Section (Food Sub Commission) principally to legalize by decree the obligation to declare stocks of olive oil and molasses, which was not required by the previous G.O. (see Article II Section 2 and Article IV Section 2 of the revised G.O.). Several other, but minor, changes have been incorporated.

 Attention: Lt. Col. Grossman,

1. With further reference to Minute 8, I have discussed General Order No. 29 with Colonel Evans who states that as far as Commerce S/C is concerned, GO No. 29 no longer has any value, its place being taken by Italian Government decrees or by other administrative instructions. This applies to present AMG territory as well as prospective new regions. Colonel Evans has no further interest in GO No. 29.

2. Colonel Legg, Food S/C, states that he wishes to continue the use of GO No. 29 with the amendment suggested in Minute #5.

3. It would appear necessary therefore to prepare a new revised GO No. 29, exclusively devoted to the interests of the Food S/C.

1. The attached file (6/5.4/3A General Order No. 29) has to do with the revision of GO-29. You will note that the Commerce Sub-Commission feels that it no longer is needed by them in view of certain Italian Government decrees. However, the Food Sub-Commission suggests its continued use, with additions.

59.2

2. Colonel Cripps, Civil Affairs Section, is being informed that the matter is now in your hands. Since the Food Sub-Commission does not actually state that the GO is essential, but simply that it be amended if any new order is to be drafted, you may wish to make them your point of departure.
