(Attn: Chief Commissioner)

1. Considerable interest is being shown here in the decree reported to have been published by the Italian Government setting up the Italian Consultative Assembly. It is appreciated that a full copy of the decree in Italian will be sent to this section in accordance with your practice to send in copies of the Official Italian Gazette but what is desired in this case is a summary in English of the main provisions of the decree together with details as to how the Assembly is to be selected and the terms under which it will function.

2. It is requested that the above information be forwarded urgently and that the practice be instituted of supplying similar information automatically on decrees of outstanding importance.
