3. These compilations are used infrequently and only for reference but when they are needed are needed badly and should be available.

1. Another small accumulation of memoranda is now ready for printing prior to issue to the field for insertion in the binders, but before proceeding I would like to have the views of Regional Commissioners and SCAD's.

2. The reproduction of memoranda is an expensive matter, whilst considerable labour is involved in the despatch at intervals of upwards of 1500 sets of reprints to officers of the Commission. The books were designed primarily for the use of officers in the field and if they are filling a need I shall have no hesitation in continuing to maintain them up to date but I would like to have your opinion on their usefulness.
