In re-reading my letter 649/50/EC of 31 July I observe a certain terseness of language which may give you the impression that we were not anxious to do more than was absolutely necessary to supply the necessary information. This, I would assure you, is far from the case, and I would like you to assure General Lee that we will, with our limited staff and resources, do all we can to help him in the preparation of his book.

1. References your No. 5-5 461.7 of the 22nd July 1946.

2. Much of the information requested in your letter under reference has already been forwarded to your Headquarters and identical information was asked for by Major Howell of the Political Intelligence Branch of your Headquarters. This Commission finds it increasingly difficult to obtain the type of information requested in your letter. 3. The following information is given:

(a) Place and date of birth

This information was given in the biographies enclosed with the Executive Commissioner's Letters No. 649/40/33 dated 16 July and No. 649/42/33 dated 19 July but is repeated in tabulated form.

(b) Party affiliation

This information was contained in my signal No. 1466 dated 14th July to your HQ but is given above for easy reference.

(c) Activities during 1923-43

All the available information on this subject was contained in the biographies enclosed with the above quoted letters.

(d) Reputation as to Strength of

- i) Character
- ii) political leaderships

(e) Attitude towards:

- i) the British
- ii) the Soviet Union
- iii) the Americans (USA)

With regard to (d) and (e) this Commission has no information on these points and it is suggested that this is a matter for the Political Intelligence Branch of your own HQ.

This Commission obtains its information by asking the Ministry concerned and doubtless you will agree that this course is not practicable with questions such as these.

(f) Does he speak or understand English?

Endeavour is being made to obtain this information and it will be signalled to you as early possible.

Action

Born in 1901 at Regalbuto (Sicily). Took a degree in Engineering at Milan University in 1923, and as student he became interested in politics, became an anti-fascist and contributed to "Rassegna Nazionale" (which was linked up with the "Cahiers Internationaux"), and fought often in encounters against the fascist militia. In 1930 he was arrested in Milan by the Fascists, tortured, and then released. In 1940 he started another form of anti-fascist activity and became a leader of the first group "Giustizia e Libertà" which later became the Action Party. As a representative of that party he became a member of the C.L.N.A.I. (Committee of National Liberation of North Italy.) He became Minister of Transport in December 1945.

After 1918 he became deputy of the Popular Party (Catholic) for Pisa and Leghorn. Later he left open political life and joined the Clandestine front as a leader of the new Catholic movement. He became Minister of Industry and Commerce under Bonomi and Parri and stayed in that post under De Gasperi in December 1945.

The German S.S. arrested him and tortured him in Genova, but were unable to extract any statement from him. He is a self-taught man; yet he edited the "Quovo Giornale" of Genova.
