Il Comandante del 2 Corpo Polacco.

A (Poz... 2.4.....1945.

La guerra d'alta marea ha causato la separazione di molte famiglie polacche; gli uomini, entrati nell'Armata prendevano parte nelle lotte, le donne collaboravano con gli uomini - ricevendo incarichi nella Armata Rossa Polacca e in altre istituzioni paramilitari.

Dopo la cessazione delle attività belliche, parte delle donne con bambini di tenera età si sono trovate nel Medio Est, mentre i loro mariti sono in terra italiana.

Presentemente le famiglie auspicano ricongiungersi: le mogli e i bambini desiderano venire nei mari e nei paesi in Italia.

Il loro soggiorno qui non graviterà in nessun modo su la popolazione italiana perché, essendo membra di istituzioni paramilitari, l'assegnamento alquanto è necessario per vivere, verrà loro da fonte militare.

Quanto detto riguarda non un gran numero di persone, all'incirca solo trenta.

Le Autorità Militari Inglesi non trovano nulla in contrario se il Governo Italiano concederà il suo accordo.

Ecco perciò di esprimere il consenso generale per far pervenire in Italia la detta quantità di persone.

A seconda del Suo giudizio, le liste nominative saranno presentate prima o dopo l'arrivo.

FROM G.O.C. 2nd Polish Corps

Ancona 2 April 1946

TO : Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

The storm of the war has caused much separation in many Polish families, the men fighting in the Army and the women helping their men being in charge of Polish Red Cross and of other similar military institutions.

After the cessation of the hostilities some women with young children are in the Middle East while their husbands are in Italy.

At the moment families are hoping to join up again, the wives and children wish to come to their husbands and fathers in Italy. Their stay will not weigh on the Italian population, being members of quasi-military institutions the food assignment will be provided by military source. The above rations will be assigned to only about 30 persons.

The British Military Authorities do not have any objection if the Italian Government should consent.

I beg your consent to let these families come to Italy.

According to your agreement a list of names will be sent before or after their arrival.
