1. I would draw your attention to the message opposite which you will notice has been sent from the British GPO and is not a SACRED message. No consultation has been made with this Commission. Our letter of 30 October is our last communication on the subject. (L.P.)

2. I profoundly disagree with the thesis of having these police officers from one nation and I am sure that both British and American Ambassadors should have been consulted before the recommendation was sent forward that they should be British. The great virtue of an Allied Police Mission is that we do not wish to impose Anglo-Saxon ideas on this country and that the fusion of Allied police officers would tend to avoid that.

3. Brigadier Carr tells me that after the handover of the Northern Regions there will be 10 police officers surplus to AC requirements. These should surely be used.

4. I would warmly recommend that you discuss this signal with General Browning and Brigadier Carr in order that we can stop this grave tendency on the part of the British of dealing unilaterally with matters that are essentially of allied importance. most import. prefered

1. I submit opposite a draft reply to p. 165. I regret that I did not take the point raised in their para 2 before. In this connection pending consultation with VP, CA Section and yourself we have sent no answer to 161A. Nevertheless p. 166 has since arrived, which hands over the administration and organization of the military training of the Carabinieri to the Land Forces Sub-Commission.
2. I have had preliminary discussions with VP, CA Section on this letter and we are disposed at the moment to leave it as such with the proviso that the last paragraph, which places the civil police training under MMIA, is left open to discussion and possible modification.

10 October 1945

It is essential that the United Forces of the Soviet Union be reorganized; Furthermore the Italian Government will require advice on training etc when reorganizing its armies.

Additional: to make the request for political reasons, We cannot let that be done except for an armed police mission. Party funds etc are considering making reorganization and training of the Italian Police the responsibility of Lanti Torino Sub Commission and attached Police Officers thereto. The proposal is ingenious it gives cover a mission, but it makes less than half the problem, well trained police officers could not meet the problem.

The only solution appears to be to adopt a two pronged unit apply it to the Public Safety Sub Commission and using the cover of the Sub Commission place the Alpine Police Mission thereon and convert the Sub Commission into the police mission.

The Police Mission must be high powered. The public and especially of the U.S. Sub Com. would need considerable strengthening

9th October, 1945

I am seriously concerned at the misapprehension regarding the object of the Allied Police Mission and the composition of the Police Forces in Italy which has appeared in para 3 of Freedom telegram on page 160. While I agree with para 4 in so far as it affects the Carabinieri only, I think we must point out to AFHQ that the object of the Allied Police Mission is to study and advise on the reorganisation of the Police Forces in Italy as a whole including the CCRR, the Guardia di Finanza and the Polizia Sicuriezza. We must not allow CCS to labour under the misapprehension that the CCRR represent the only Police Force in Italy.

My dear Mr. President,

I have the honor to communicate with you concerning the possibility of the establishment in Italy of an Allied Police Mission. I should like to inform you that my Government has now instructed that it believes that if the main benefit is to be derived from such a Mission, it should of course commence its endeavours at an early date. My Government is further of the opinion that the benefits that would accrue to all the domestic forces in Italy, through the gathering of Italy's forces of internal security, which have been sufficiently apparent to the Italian Government that the Council of Ministers would have approved a request to the Allied Governments for the establishment of a Police Mission. In conclusion, my Government has pointed out that a fundamental factor in Italy's desire which she has expressed for the improvement of her international status would be her unequivocal assumption of the full responsibility of maintaining order, as well as giving to the Italian people a guarantee for the free exercise of democratic rights.

Believe me, my dear Mr. President,

Yours very sincerely,

1. In your telegram 1850363 of 25 Oct 45 you refer to your letter AG 014.12 (OCC-4) of 7 Oct 45 to which I have not yet replied. I read your letter under reference in conjunction with your telegram PM 17524 of 6 Oct 45 on which I commented in my telegram 6828 of 10 Oct 45. I was studying the whole question of the transfer to M.I.A. of the responsibility for the O.C.R.C. in conjunction with your letter of 7 Oct 45 when your instructions of 14 Oct 45 arrived (your letter AG 014.12 (OCC-4) - 170). 163

2. I have received a letter from O.C. Land Forces S/C (M.I.A.) in which he states that he had previously informed you that in order to carry out his new duties he would require no less than 20 officers.

3. This matter is under discussion with O.C. Land Forces S/C (M.I.A.) and you will appreciate that in view of the divergence between the number quoted in your letter of 7 Oct 45 and the demands of O.C. Land Forces S/C (M.I.A.) together with the grave shortage of personnel, a rapid decision is not possible.

4. My first impressions are that the numbers quoted in your letter and requested by O.C. Land Forces S/C (M.I.A.) are extravagant but until Land Forces S/C (M.I.A.) and Public Safety S/C have worked out a modus operandi it would be premature of me to express a firm agreement. This will be forwarded in due course.

5. In this connection I forward you copy of a communication received from the US Ambassador in which you will note he has been instructed to communicate the State Department's instructions to the Prime Minister on the question of the despatch of an Allied Police Mission to this country.

6. I still hold that it would be better to prosecute the question of an allied Police Mission as a whole rather than to adopt a plan which deals with only part of the question. I should therefore be glad if this point of view, together with a copy of the Ambassador's letter, could be submitted to BACOMS in support of my views which you note in para 3 of your telegram 1850363 of 25 Oct.

29 October, 1945.

Subject: Disposal of Captured Enemy Material in Italy. UU 6 U 1345

To : Allied Force Headquarters.
Attn: Chief Administrative Officer.

4. Action is being taken on your CAS/24/6 of 20 Oct 45 but the Italian Government, in the persons of the Prime Minister himself, has raised a point of great importance which is referred to in para 5, i.e., the handing over of the material.

2. The Prime Minister recognises the losses which the Italian Government of this material. He also recognises that the police forces of the country are inadequate for the task before them and in computing the strength of the internally held "the Minister of War did not take into account the added responsibility of guarding the devotee and change of captured enemy material. I think that the Minister acted reasonably in this.

3. As you know, in previous communications the Prime Minister has asked for an overall increase in the strength of the CO. 300 from 65,000 to 75,000. It has not yet been possible for this figure to be accepted. He does make this specific request that the strength of the CO. 300 shall be increased temporarily at any rate, by 1,000 men in order that this most valuable material can be guarded and that the responsibility of the Italian Government can be properly implemented. He proposes to effect the increase by deferring the discharge of time expired CO. 300 up to the number proposed for a period of 4 - 6 months, during which time he hopes to dispose of the material.

4. I think that the Prime Minister's request is extremely reasonable.

We cannot accept the Italian Government's full offer which they consider necessary. In this matter I fully concur with the Prime Minister that the extra CO. 300 are necessary and that unless we receive such a larger force, which we do not believe to be immediately justified, we have no alternative but to do without it.

5. I therefore strongly recommend that without prejudice to consideration for the overall increase of the CO. 300 from 65,000 to 75,000 which will be necessary and additional material will be denoted from the Allies.

2. The Italian Minister recognises the immense value to the Italian Government of this material. He also recognises that the police forces of the country are inadequate for the task before them and that in computing the strength of the interior and the exterior of War did not take into account the added responsibility of guarding the deposits and dumps of captured enemy material. I think that the Minister acted reasonably in this.

3. As you know, in previous conversations the Prime Minister has asked for an overall increase in the strength of the CO.IL from 65,000 to 75,000. It has not yet been possible for him to agree to be accepted. He now does make this specific request that the strength of the CO.IL shall be increased temporarily at any rate, by 1,000 men in order that this most valuable material can be guarded and that the responsibility of the Italian Government can be properly implemented. He proposes to effect the increase by deferring the discharge of the required CO.IL up to the number proposed for a period of 4 - 6 months, during which time he hopes to dispose of the material.

4. I think that the Prime Minister's request is entirely reasonable. We cannot expect the Italian Government to fulfil their responsibilities in keeping law and order and in guarding this immense amount of material if we do not allow them to maintain the force which they consider necessary. In this matter I fully concur with the Prime Minister that the extra CO.IL are necessary and that unless he receives them, either law and order will suffer or the material will not be properly guarded, the economy of Italy will suffer and additional materials will be landed over the Allies.

5. I therefore strongly recommend that without prejudice to consideration for the overall increase of the CO.IL from 65,000 to 75,000 which will be the subject of a further communication, immediate permission be granted to the Italian Government to maintain with the colonies the 4,000 CO.IL requested. Only in this way can the tasks of your directive be properly implemented.

In view of my letter AG O 14, 12 Oct-0 of 14 Oct which laid down that by 1 Nov the adn of the Garibiniieri will have passed from AC to NMLA this letter is addressed to both.

1. Because the degree to which military help may be required in aid of Civil Power depends largely on the efficiency of the CGE it has always been my policy to help them whenever possible. Such help has taken the form of instruction in driving, maintenance and use of weapons, and particularly the encouragement of their morale by strengthening their search parties with the loan of tpt and British type.
2. Unfortunately, such help is becoming increasingly difficult to give owing to shortages of personnel and vehicles, and the CGE are having to rely on their own resources.
3. In 217 Area, these resources are scarce, and the morale of the CGE is being seriously affected by three things -
 - (a) Uniforms
 - (b) POC
 - (c) Tpt
4. The uniforms is poor and in short supply. Some men have no more than a hat and an armband and are not taken seriously by the public. The dark green battle dress which comes from FLORENCE is old, badly worn in the seat, very roughly sewn together and torn. During driving it has shrunk and only the smallest men can be fitted. Normal sized men become objects of ridicule. The self respect of the CGE is further reduced by the fact that the dye comes out on the skin. No overcoats have been received.
5. The CGE get their POC from civilian sources and apparently receive an inadequate allotment so that they are frequently immobilized although needed to move elsewhere.
6. The tpt also seems inadequate. In each of the provinces of FLORENCE and LIGURIA, the CGE have only a private van and two M/OM, which means they are virtually immobile. The new mobile bn has 400 men and 12 tanks, but no tank can be started or moved or any driving instruction given because there is no petrol. Only four tank drivers are trained and there are no other vets in the bn.
7. The result is that the CGE find themselves in that area ill-clad and heavily handicapped when their duties require them to make a raid or go to the scene of a disturbance. Their morale naturally sinks and undoubtedly keen men are losing heart.
8. In view of the Italian's natural liking for display I would suggest that a smart

(a) Uniform
(b) Rags
(c) Paint

4. The uniform is poor and in short supply. Some men have no more than a hat and an armband and are not taken seriously by the public. The dark green battle dress which came from YUGOSLAVIA is old, daily worn in the heat, very roughly sewn together, and torn. During driving it has shrunk and only the smallest man can be fitted. Normal sized men become objects of ridicule. The self respect of the COSS is further reduced by the fact that the dye comes out on the skin. No overcoats have been received.

5. The COSS get their fuel from civilian sources and apparently receive an inadequate allotment so that they are frequently immobilised although needed to move somewhere.

6. The COSS also seem inadequate. In each of the provinces of HAVELIA and MOLIA, the COSS have only a private van and two m/cars, which means they are virtually immobile. The COSS mobile has 40 men and 12 tanks, but no tank can be started or moved or any driving instruction given because there is no petrol. Only four tank drivers are trained and there are no other tanks in the COSS.

7. The result is that the COSS find themselves in that area ill-clad and heavily handicapped when their duties require them to make a raid or go to the scene of a disturbance. Their morale naturally sinks and undoubtedly been much more losing heart.

8. In view of the Italian's natural liking for display I would suggest that a smart uniform would be of great encouragement, and that the sight of a well dressed body of men with glorious pride in themselves and adequately equipped would be a great deterrent to those of the public who at present treat them with contempt and challenge their authority.

TO: Executive Committee, ✓

Informed officials have, in general, as regards personnel, my Public Safety Sub-Commission officers to MCA, the situation is as follows:

A public safety officer WILLIAMS that was selected and is now to be transferred to CMA. But, he did not do his job satisfactorily but with all other police he acted in well. WILLIAMS ~~was~~ ~~will~~ ~~be fully authorized.~~

He will remain, at the request to assist one or two officers with his experience to the Public Safety Sub-Commission for, very soon after he arrived here, I formed the opinion that Public Safety Sub-Commission had neither adequate or qualified staff to deal with this problem. Given no adequate or suitable personnel no immediate action was taken. The only one item dropped when it was known that full responsibility for the ~~SAFETY~~ ~~SOCIAL~~ administration was to be passed to the Ministry for MCA.

Public Safety Sub-Commission can, therefore, spare no officers for transfers to MCA. Presently there is the Establishment Section which we have and 1/2 Translators which could be taken up by MCA.

I do not know whether you intend to depend on this, but, in my opinion, not enough staff. The proposed staff follows the lines of a letter received from ACPA who, you wrote to me, I believe, for action. I do not think that the ACPA has been sent to ACPA yet. The ACPA propose very, however, depends upon the question of the police strength and the officers were to be in the 400 police officers.

175.

As regards the 400 officers referred to in attached letter, the majority of these officers would not necessarily require police experience, given the fact that are not going to be responsible for writing in police duties.

Now that responsibility for administration and equipment of the SAFA has been handed over to the Ministry for MCA I cannot imagine that one Lt. Col.
and 500 men are going to do it this satisfactorily.

As regards the police colleges there MCA representatives will be responsible only for ~~for~~ military training, I suggest advising that negotiations

The other the police colleges are at Saci and Saciford and I am ~~for~~ 5625

As regards UNIA representatives at territorial headquarters, I understand that territorial headquarters will eventually consolidate to a common headquarters in the U.S. and will deal with all sides of military activity such as operation of stores, maintenance of vehicles, etc. At present, UNIA have no representatives there but I understand that it is proposed that, instead of having allied liaison officers with UNIA, London Liaison would be represented at territorial headquarters and I understand that this will mean about 3 or 4 Allies represented there. It will be UNIA's liaison officer. I should like to point out that our representatives could quite easily be called the "Diplomatic Corps," meaning that they will move up further in connection with political relations in operational use. No information on this proposed change in organization is available.

Rome, October 18, 1945

Rear Admiral E. W. Stone,

Oct 18, 1945

Dear Admiral Stone:

With reference to your letter of September 19, 1945 (File No 3626/149 /SC) to G-5 Section, AFHQ, regarding an Allied Police Mission, I have received the views of the Department of State. The Department agrees with you that it is preferable not to impose a Police Mission on the Italians under the Supreme Allied Commander's present authority. It is even reluctant to insist upon its establishment as part of the peace treaty. The Department had hoped that the President of the Council of Ministers would be sufficiently aware of the advantages to democratic government in Italy, through strengthening internal security forces, to accept the responsibility of obtaining the Cabinet's approval of a plan to request the Allied Governments to send such a Mission. The Mission should begin work at once, of course, if the greatest good is to be accomplished.

The Department has instructed me, at my discretion, to inform the President of the Council of Ministers of the position of the United States Government as outlined above. The Department is of the opinion that factors governing the Italian Government's expressed desire for an improved international status are the assurance of free exercise of democratic rights to the Italian people and a clear assumption of responsibility for the maintenance of order.

I intend to communicate the substance of the Department's instructions to Professor Parri at an appropriate opportunity.

Sincerely yours,

L. Kirk

1. It has for some time been the view of this HQ that all Italian Police Forces require radical reorganisation and training. (Ref your 5884 of 10th October). It was with this object in view that introduction of an Allied Police Mission was recommended in NAF1051. As a result of your representations combined Chiefs of Staff were asked in NAF1077 to take no further action regarding provision of a Police Mission.

2. It is fully appreciated that MMIA can only undertake responsibility for basic military training and administration of Carabinieri. In view of this and your objections to a Police Mission it is difficult to see what Allied assistance could be offered to reorganise and train Guardie Di Finanza Polizia Sicurezza Municipale Police and other forces of civil security. Unless you can forward recommendations no further action in this matter will be taken by this HQ.

2. It is believed that the time has now come when the supervisory functions of MGA should parallel the executive functions of the Italian Ministry of War. It is therefore desired that you cause all matters connected with the training and administration of the Carabinieri which have heretofore been handled by the Public Safety Sub-Commission to be transferred to the Land Forces Sub-Commission (MGA). This will result in all matters connected with the Carabinieri except their operational functions, which should remain as at present, being placed under the supervision of MGA.

3. The date of transfer of responsibility will be mutually agreed between Public Safety Sub-Commission and MGA and will be reported by you to this Headquarters. In any event this date will not be later than 1 November 1945.

Draft letter to General Morgan

My dear General:

The Chief Commissioner has asked me to write to you on the question of the Allied Police Mission and the alternative proposed in NAF 1077 to which the Admiral has made telegraphic reply.

One of the troubles about the Italian Police Organisation lies in the multiplicity of police forces all of whom are under different authorities. The CGRR under the Ministry for War represent only half the total force. It may be said that they are the most important half but the others are by no means unimportant. There are the Guardia di Finanza under the Ministry of Finance, the Polizia Sisiliense under the Ministry of Interior, the Municipal Police under the Provincial Gov'ts, the Railway Police under Ministry of Transportation, and Forest Guards under the Min of Agriculture.

Until all these bodies are reorganised and until there is some co-ordination in the direction or action of public security it seems to me that we cannot look forward to a stable Italy.

It is to examine this comprehensive problem and to advise in a solution whereof that we have recommended the sending of an Allied Police Mission to Italy. Its mission would be to study the whole question of public order, the forces now employed to maintain it and then to advise on re-organisation, training and administration.

The ingenious, if I may use the word, device of infiltrating a small number of officers into the Land Forces Sub-Commission (MIA) in order to reorganise and train the CGRR meets only part of the problem. It has the advantage of speed and the use of the machinery of MIA but this group could not take the place of an allied mission and they could not deal with the other police forces. Nor in my opinion could MIA be expected to tackle the greater problems. It needs the whole time work of a highly technical Police group.

In that aspect we appreciate the proposal to make the reorganization and training of the Italian Police the responsibility of Land Forces Sub-Commission as stated in para 4 of MAP 1077 though the C.C. would consider the possibility of putting the responsibility of training and organizing the ~~COHR~~^{only} on to that Sub-Commission. We have as In CCR R you know, advocated the assumption of administrative responsibility by ALTA without success for some months.

It seems to us that the best and most immediate solution to the difficulty is to strengthen the Public Safety Sub-Commission both in quality and in strength, to convert them in fact into the high levelled Police Mission which we have been attempting to obtain and to arrange for them to continue their work in some form or other even after the Peace Treaty when the Allied Commission will disappear. Chair of Commission

It is essential that the police forces of this country be reorganised; furthermore the Italian Government will require advice on training etc when reorganising is complete.

We have asked for an allied police mission. That finds it difficult: to make the request for political reasons. We cannot let that interfere with prosecution of the ATM and consider making reorganisation and training of the Italian Police the responsibility of Land Forces Sub Commission and attaching police officers thereto. The proposal is ingenious! It gives cover a mission, but it meets less than half the problem. Well trained and reorganised CO. BR. will help but the other forces need reorganisation. NATA cannot undertake this; the addition of a handful of subordinate police officers would not meet the problem.

The only solution appears to be to adopt ATM principle but apply it to the public Safety Sub Commission and using the cover of the Sub Commission place the Allied Police Mission thereon and convert the Sub Commission into the Police Mission.

The Police Mission must be high powered. The quality and quantity of the P.S. Sub. Com. would need considerable strengthening

We have asked for an United Nations Master. Please let that interfere with my action of the matter.

AMC are considering making arrangements and training of the Italian Police the responsibility of Local Forces Sub Commission and attaching police officers there to. The proposed is a suggestion; it gives cover a Mission. But it makes less than half the problem. Well trained and responsible CO, MR. ALI help but the other forces need reorganization WPA cannot undertake this; the addition of a handful of subordinates will not solve the problem.

The only solution appears to be to adopt AMG principles but apply it to the public safety Sub Commission and using the cover of the Sub Comd to place the Allied Police Mission there and occur the Sub Comd in into the Police Service.

The police mission must be high covered. The quality and quantity of the P.S. sub. Comm. would never conceivable strengthen thoroughly. Arrangement would have to be made to continue its functions possibly after the peace treaty and the disappearance of the allied commission. 3/61
But one established administrative office of the commission that will prevent power difficulties that the creation of a new mission.

Something must be done. AMG has given us a lead in slightly the wrong direction. I recommend soon personally that we follow them in the right direction.

I send to you letter from 3/27 to many 3/29 to prevent the crowd.
I will follow with an official letter after discussion with AMG, Carte H,

My dear General:

The Chief Commissioner has asked me to write to you on the question of the Allied Police Mission and the alternative proposed in NAF 1077 to which the Admiral has made telegraphic reply.

The Soviet Union has nothing to do with the new peace. The decision of Soviet Russia cannot affect us in any way. The Soviet Union's present state of peace is temporary and cannot last very long. It is conceivable that consequences of war will be far more serious than an ordinary peace. There is no safety for us in a general war. It is organized to sustain an Hitler approach to world politics. The USSR from its side will undoubtedly not fight alone to defend the rest of Europe.

SUBJECT: Attachment of Police Officers to Carabinieri.

TO : Headquarters, Allied Commission, APO 394

1. The transfer to UNIA of responsibility for the supervision of the administration and training of the Carabinieri is under consideration at this Headquarters.

2. If this transfer is approved, it is proposed that, in view of the fact that the projected Police Mission is now unlikely to materialize for some time at any rate, a small number of trained police officers should be attached to UNIA for duty with the Carabinieri. It is appreciated that, in view of the unwillingness of the Italian Government to accept the Police Mission, the numbers of these officers would have to be kept to a minimum and their purpose disguised as far as possible.

3. The following is an estimate of the number of officers who would be required:-

HQ UNIA	1 (Lt. Col.)
Three Police Colleges	3
Eleven U.L.s. (one per Territorial region)	11
Total	15

4. Your views are requested on the proposal outlined in para 2 above. At the same time, will you please say how many of the appointments listed in para 3 above could be filled by trained police officers now serving under the Allied Commission, who could be made available after the proposed hand back to Italian control of the Northern Regions (less UDINE and possibly BOLZANO) has been completed.

i. In NAF 1051 it was recommended that you approve an Allied police mission to overhaul and increase the efficiency of the Italian Carabinieri and stated that details would be forwarded. This is NAF 1077. INFO - ACTION

2. The present situation with relation to the Italian Govt is this. PAARI personnel appears to agree the desirability of such a mission. He officially states however:

- A) That it would be inexpedient to invite a Mission because the communists would probably demand Russian participation.
- B) That if the Allies imposed a mission it would be contrary to present Allied policy and would be resented by the Italians.
- C) That, after elections when presumably the communists would be an opposition party, the Govt might request a mission.
- D) That a mission might be agreed as part of a supplementary agreement to the Peace Treaty or even imposed as part of the Treaty.

3. I still hold to the view that, unless the reorganization and training of the Corabinieri is placed under a qualified Allied Police Mission, it will remain an inefficient and undependable force in which the Govt cannot depend in any crisis. I am hesitant however about insisting that a Mission be accepted until it is clear that such action conforms to your policy.

4. A detailed examination is therefore being made of the feasibility of making the reorganization and training of the Italian police the responsibility of the Military Mission to Italian Army. As the training of the Carabinieri is a function of the Italian Ministry of War this would not be illogical. In this event the provision of a small increment of police officers on the staff of the Military Mission would be required and it might be necessary for these officers to be given army rank.

5. Meanwhile, no action by you in regard to para 12 (D) of NAP 1051 is at present required.

My dear Lush,

Your DO letter 3636/EC of 1 October 1945 to General Morgan has been passed to me for action.

You may have found that the G-5 letter to which you refer was perhaps not very clear, the policy involved, however, was fully agreed on an Allied basis. It most certainly is intended that the Italians themselves should do the bulk of the work in the collection of arms. One cannot lay down hard and fast rules as the precise methods must be left to the direction of local commanders. However, roughly speaking, the first step in the collection of arms should normally be the employment of Carabinieri, the next should be employment of units of the Italian Army and only in the last resort should Allied troops be used. In those parts of ITALY which are handed back to Italian Government control no Allied troops have been so far employed.

last

When I was in Rome you discussed with me the proposal that British troops should mother the Carabinieri in the business of collecting arms. This proposal was, I know, coloured by what Graham had been doing in Turin. The conditions under which Graham was working do not really obtain in other parts of ITALY and when we examined the proposal it was decided that no general directive in such terms was practicable. What we have got to do is to ginger up the Carabinieri as a whole. As I expect you know, we are examining the possibility of doing this through the Military Mission, giving them policemen disguised as soldiers to help them in their task.

Yours ever

LAND FORCE SUB OFF. A.C.
(M.I.A.)	R.D.W.
A.O.I.
Z Oct 45

1. (a) Part 24 of A.M. AG.991.711/1950 of 18 Nov 44 states that "The Commandant (Co. 18), except those units which are formations in the role of military police, are a civil police organization under the command of the Commanding General in charge of the Commandant and directed by the Safety Sub-Commission."

(b) At present, therefore, there are merely two safety army units regarding clothing, coats and equipment.

(c) Operations will for the police function (see 24.8.1.8) are under the Italian Minister of the Interior.

(d) For their organisation, coordination, preparation (i.e. from the S.C. and Administrative point of view) the C.I.A. are under the Italian Minister of War and are the senior corps in the Army.

2. (e) The problem of the possible reorganisation of all the ITALIAN police forces is thus a vast one, with a considerable civilian and personnel problem.
- (f) It is therefore necessary to be quite clear what exactly will have to take over.

- (g) It would perhaps take over the C.I.A., as regards the Commission in part (a) provided certain conditions (see para 3 below) were made to the state, in order to conclude with the entire work involved by about 66,000 C.I.A. personnel. The directive as in para 1(a) would have to be issued accordingly.
- (h) To compete with a possible reorganisation of all the ITALIAN police forces as in para 2(a) would be beyond the power of Italy and would necessitate a complete project. Such a Mission should be given to British or American, as well as to other national police, to insure that the whole question and problems to be discussed accordingly.

In could and probably should work independently, consulting MIA and I.M.A. systems.

(*) Organizationally and for their police functions § in D.C. & P. are under the Italian Minister of the Interior.

(*) For their organization, administration, pay etc. (1.0 - from the S.S. and Administrative point of view) the C.I.D., are under the Italian Minister of War and are the senior corps in the Army.

(a) The C.I.D. for only part of the older forces of Italy and work in the municipal or local police - "metropolitain", "territorial", etc.

2. (a) The problem of the possible reorganization of all the Italian police forces is thus a vast one, with a considerable civilian and political aspect.

(b) It is therefore necessary to be quite clear what exactly will have to take over.

(a) S.M.I.L.A. could perhaps take over the C.O.D., as regards the functions in para 1(a), provided certain additions (see para 3 below) were made to this staff. In order to compete with the extra work involved by adding 65,000 C.O.D., to S.M.I.L.A. to S.M.I.L.A. to S.M.I.L.A. would have to be changed accordingly.

(a) To compete with a possible reorganization of all the Italian police forces as in para 2(a) would be beyond the power of S.M.I.L.A. and would necessitate a special police mission to investigate the whole question and produce a complete project. Such a mission should be either British or American, so that the final project is not a compromise between the differing British and American systems. It could and probably should work independently, consulting with the necessary.

The question as to whom this mission should be directly responsible is one for decision by higher authority. The choice appears to be between A.C.C., A.R.M., or M.G.I. If M.G.I., the Police Mission and the military mission would have to be incorporated under one Commander. This would give a considerable extra burden on this Commander, who would have to deal with the Minister of the Interior, the Minister of War and D.P.G. as the Minister of War.

3. (a) As regards the extra staff required by S.M.I.L.A. to take over the functions in connection with C.O.D., as per para 1(a), this should consist of three main elements -

- (1) "coincidental" police service officers,
- (2) Extra military staff officers in C.O.D. formations, as may be necessary.
- (3) Liaison officers with C.O.D. formations, as may be necessary.

3. (cont'd)

- (a) For 3(a)(1) the following are considered the citizens -
- One Lt. Col. (staff officer 1st grade) - police college trained and with wide experience of police duties and procedure.
 - One Major (staff officer 2nd grade) - with experience of police duties from the operational and more detailed organizational aspects.
 - One Major (staff officer 2nd grade) - with administrative and of police duties from the administrative and legal aspect.
- In the same way as e.g. A.D.S.T. in the mid 1950's proposed under my 30/101 in 1959, Army.
- (b) For 3(a)(1)(i)
- These 3 officers would be "technical advisors and inspectors" This would have to be the subject of consultation with both Safety Commission.
- (c) For 3(a)(1)(ii)
- This would have to be the subject of consultation with parts 1(d), it is decided that before the personnel and transport specialists of part 3 should be present when MULI would call the personnel and transport specialists of the products, before the transfer of responsibility was assumed by MULI.
- (d) For 3(a)(1)(iii)
- Or course, the requisite administrative, clerks and transport would also have to be added.
4. It is decided that before the hand-over takes place in para 1(d), it is decided that all the personnel and transport specialists of parts 3 should be present when MULI would call the personnel and transport specialists of the products, before the transfer of responsibility was assumed by MULI.
5. The above is MULI's initial reaction to this matter. It has not been discussed with Public Safety Sub-Commission. Such discussion would be demanded in order to examine all facets of the products, before the transfer of responsibility was assumed by MULI.

B. M. L.

One Major (staff officer 2nd grade) - with experience of police duties from the administrative and legal aspect.

These 3 officers would act as "Technical advisers and inspectors" in the same way as S.C. A.D.U.T. in the U.S.A. proposed under my SC/101 of 18 Sept., Appx "A".

(e) For 3(a)(ii)
Three additional staff officers and grade) would be necessary, one each for J, A and Q.

(d) For 3(e)(iii)
This would have to be the subject of examination with Public Safety Sub-Commission.

Of course, the requisite additional between, clerks and transport would also have to be added.

4. If it is decided that NSA are to take over functions as in para 1(c), it is essential that all the personnel and transport specified in para 3 should be present with NSA before the hand-over takes place.

5. The above is NSA's initial reaction to this matter. It has not been discussed with Public Safety Sub-Commission. Such discussion would be necessary in order to examine all facets of the problem, before the transfer of responsibility was accepted by NSA.

SUBJECT: Illegal Retention of Arms

TO : Chief Commissioner,
HQ, Allied Commission, APO 394

SEP 24 1945.

1. Reference is made to your letter, subject as above, ref 3636/49/EC dated 5 September, which enclosed a staff memorandum.

2. The following represents the present views of the responsible Sections at AFHQ:-

"In view of the overall reduction of Allied Forces in Italy, and the resultant increase in the commitment of the remaining forces, it is not considered advisable to place the additional burden of responsibility for advising and training Carabinieri and local police agencies on the District and/or Base Section Commanders.

The AFHQ signal (FX 38435 of 25 August) directs all concerned to take all possible steps to collect illegal arms, and this directive has the additional value of permitting commanders to fit the methods employed to the local conditions encountered.

In view of the above it is considered that no further action should be taken on the matter at this time.

That there should be this demand for assistance to the Carabinieri from ALCOM, seems to be an added reason for the early acceptance of the Allied Police Mission by the Italian Government."

SUBJECT: Allied Police Mission,
TO : G-5 Section, A.P.M.

I refer to your G-5 O.D. 12 of 5 September 45.

1. I much regret that my two letters under reference, which were not consistent, should have caused confusion. It would have been better if I had indicated that part of the First Letter was cancelled by the second.

2. The question of the establishment of a Police Mission being made competent to judge. I am, however, convinced that the matter should be raised in the discussions on the Peace Treaty and that it should either be one of the conditions of the Treaty itself or that the Italians should be induced to agree in an exchange of letters between the Italian and the Allied Governments.

3. As I stated in my letter dated 25 August 45 the Prime Minister so far as to say that it might be made a condition of the Peace Treaty itself. In view of the position we held at that time I agree with the proposition of 1st July 45 and would give the Italian Government a lead start. I do not think the Prime Minister would be able, even if induced, to play down any tendency on the part of the Italian to say that he was against his policy of neutrality towards Italy, as stated in your letter of 5 September.

4. I do not recommend that opening of a Mission under General's proposal stated that it would not be well received as such and I agree with the Prime Minister of 1st July 45 and would give the Italian a lead start. I do not think the Prime Minister would be able, even if induced, to play down any tendency on the part of the Italian to say that he was against his policy of neutrality towards Italy, as stated in your letter of 5 September.

5. I think it would be right to repeat if I were instructed to inform the Prime Minister that the establishment of a Police Mission would be proposed to him from the other end a condition of the Peace Treaty and if a date were taken when he would be in a position to discuss its terms of reference. It might be politic if some time of this were to last out from London currently in order that we could best Italian motions.

Letter to you 6-5 AM, 12 of September 45.

1. I much regret that my two letters under reference, which were not consistent, should have caused confusion. It would have been better if I had indicated that part of the first letter was cancelled by the second.

2. The question of the establishment of a Police Mission being made one of the conditions of the Peace Treaty is a matter on which I do not feel competent to judge. I am, however, convinced that the matter should be raised in the discussions on the Peace Treaty and that it should either be one of the conditions of the Treaty itself or that the Italians should be invited on a consultation of the signing of the peace Treaty to request and accept such a Mission in an exchange of letters between the Italian and the Allied Governments.

3. As I stated in my letter dated 25 August 45 the Prime Minister believes that such an arrangement would be acceptable to the Italians and went so far as to say that it might be made a condition of the Peace Treaty itself. Some politicians would resent it and try to seize capital out of it, but there is little doubt that the officials in authority would welcome a Mission and the mass of the people would favour it.

4. I do not recommend that naming of a Mission under Secord's present authority. You will notice from my letter of 25 August, that the Prime Minister states that it would not be well received as such and I agree that an appointment in these circumstances would be resented as an example of opposition to the principles of P.D.U.L and would give the Italian Leader a bad start. I do not think the Prime Minister would be able, even if invited, to play down any tendency on the part of the Italians to say that Secord is going against his policy of leniency toward Italy, as stated in your letter of 5 September.

5. I think it would be quite proper if I were instructed to inform the Prime Minister that the establishment of a Police Mission would be proposed in some form or other as a result of the Peace Treaty and if steps were taken at once to annul this Mission and discuss its terms of reference. It might even be politic if some news of this were to leak out from London currently in order that we could test Italian reactions.

To : Executive Commissioner

I favor the third suggestion (sub paragraph c) of paragraph 3 of G-5's letter attached, that an Allied Police Mission be appointed under SAC's present authority to increase the efficiency and possibly completely re-organize the present Italian police system.

I feel that the various suggestions made by the Prime Minister regarding the appointment of such a Mission in the future are conflicting and infeasible. There is no assurance that the Communist Party will be out of the Government after the holding of national elections. Nor would it be any more feasible to provide for an Anglo-American Police Mission under the terms of the peace treaty, in which the Soviet Union will be a full participant, than to obtain agreement on this question in the present coalition Government of Italy. Furthermore, the need for reorganization and increased efficiency in the Italian police force is immediate and precious time, undoubtedly running into months, would be lost if the proposed Mission had to wait for the conclusion of peace before it could even begin work.

I am not convinced that the sending of an Allied Police Mission to Italy under SAC's present authority is contrary to the spirit of FAN 487. Certainly internal security during the coming months is a question which vitally affects the military interests of the Allied powers, who are forced to keep Allied troops in this country to implement our pledge to the Italian people of a free choice of government and to protect the Allied lines of communication with the northern military theaters. While it is probably correct that the present Italian Government, because of its political complexion, will be unable to invite an Anglo-American Police Mission to Italy, I doubt that the Italian Government could or would refuse to accept it if SAC took the decision and had the Italian Government informed that such a Mission was being sent to Italy for the purposes specified.

Consequently I suggest that the Chief Commissioner, in reply to AFHQ, recommend that SAC proceed with the appointment of an Allied Police Mission under his present authority and authorize the Chief Commissioner to so inform the Italian Government, expressing the belief that the Italian Government will share the views of SAC in regard to the urgency and importance of this problem and that the Italian Government will cooperate to make the Mission effective.

2. The question of the establishment of a Police Mission being made one of the conditions of the Peace Treaty is a matter on which I do not feel competent to judge. I am, however, convinced that the matter should be raised in the discussions on the Peace Treaty and that it should either be one of the conditions of the Treaty itself or that the Italians should be induced as a condition of the signing of the Peace Treaty to request and ~~have accepted~~ such a Mission in an exchange of ^{3,000} letters between the Italian and the Allied Governments.

not consistent, would have caused concern. It would have been better if it had been a part of the first letter and corrected by the second.

2. I do not demand the interpretation of a Polito Treaty by concluding that there should be included in the Polito Treaty and that there should be included a provision in the Polito Treaty itself. I am, however, compelled to do so because I believe at the time of the signing of the Polito Treaty and that there should be included in an explicit definition between the United and the Allied governments.

3. As a response to my letter dated 25 August 45 the Prime Minister tells me that he is prepared while in accordance to the Polito and that as far as to say that it is difficult to make a conclusion of the Polito Treaty itself. Some politicians would request it and this is within and out of the Prime Minister's hands. In this letter, that the officials in authority would release the press and the news of the Polito would favour it. 4 I do not recommend the opening of a discussion with foreign government authority. This will cause further trouble or 35 August that the Prime Minister stated that it would not be well informed as such and I agree that in legislation in these circumstances will be received as an complete opposition to the publication of the Polito and would give the situation itself a bad name. 5 do not like the Prime Minister to be given power if there happens to inform the public of other as a result of the Polito Treaty and if a copy were taken at one to another country and become the basis of another. It is best Minister would be able to see through and through the other party's plan, to bring down an influence, to gain the other party's plan.

Reference is made to your 3626/EC of 25 August and your 3626/133/EC of 31 August.

1. The following facts and considerations now emerge in connection with the provision of an Allied Police Mission to Italy:

a. Military Aspect

(1) A Police Mission would help to increase the efficiency of the CCRR and this in turn would assist the Italian Government in maintaining law and order.

(2) If (1) above was successful, then fewer Allied troops would be required in Italy.

b. Italian Government aspect as indicated by Prime Minister Farri

(1) He would personally welcome the Police Mission.

(2) He feels that the present government couldn't invite a purely Anglo-American Police Mission, and that the communist element of the present government would insist on Russian representation.

(3) He believes that after the elections, when the Communist party will probably be in opposition, it may be possible for the Government to ask for an Anglo-American Police Mission.

(4) Presumably as an alternative to (3), he considers that such a Mission could be offered by the Allies and accepted by the Italians as a condition of the Peace Treaty or as a separate arrangement in connection with the Peace Treaty.

(5) He feels that should an Allied Police Mission be imposed upon the Italian Government under the Armistice terms, it would not be well received, since this step would be in conflict with the general policy of holding the Armistice terms in reserve.

c. Allied Commission's Aspect

(1) In your letter 3626/EC of 25 August, you state that it is presumed that no action should be taken at this stage in regard to the organization of such a Mission.

(2) In your letter 3626/133/EC of 31 August you state that the matter should not be allowed to rest and suggest that the acceptance of a Police Mission may have to be included as one of the clauses of the Peace Treaty.

2. It appears that if the CCRR is to be depended upon for internal security, increased efficiency and possibly complete reorganization is necessary. No other solution than a Police Mission has been offered.

3. In view of the fact that it is difficult to reconcile your two letters referred to above it is requested that you restate your views to cover the following specific points:

a. Do you recommend the imposition of a Police Mission on the Italians by including such a provision in the peace treaty?

b. What would be the reaction of the Italian Government to such an imposed mission?

c. Do you recommend the appointment of a mission under SACMED's present authority?

4. If you agree the desirability of a police mission, please consider the practicability of approaching Professor Parri with the viewpoint that both he and SACMED realize that the appointment of such a mission is in the best interests of Italy; that in your view the most desirable line of action would be for SACMED to appoint such a mission and for him (Parri) to play down any tendency on the part of the Italians to say that SACMED is going against his policy of leniency toward Italy.

5. No future action will be taken at AFHQ pending the results of your talk with Professor Parri, or if it does not take place, pending your further remarks and recommendations.

SUBJECT: Allied Police Mission to ITALY.

TO : Allied Force Headquarters.
Attn: G-5 section.

with reference to this ^(b) letter 3626/RG of 25 Aug 45.

1. On further consideration being given to this matter the following additional views are forwarded in amplification of paras 1(b) and (c) and in reply to your specific question.

2. The object of the mission would be in the first place to review the whole of the machinery for maintaining law and order now existing in ITALY and to advise the Italian Government in respect of any reforms or changes deemed necessary for the establishment of an adequate police system in the country.

3. The secondary duty would be to furnish advice and supervision on the organisation, administration and training of the police formation adopted. It would probably not be necessary or politic to give the mission such extensive authority as has been proposed for the Police Mission to GREECE. With advisory functions only the mission should without difficulty be able to attain its object.

4. Similarly, whereas the mission to GREECE will contain some 40 officers I consider between 10 and 30 should suffice for ITALY, but I should prefer to leave this to the decision of the Chief of the Mission.

5. Doubt has been expressed as to the desirability or even possibility of forming an Allied Police Mission for the reason that methods in various countries differ widely. I see no difficulty in this. Our object is not to impose any specifically national form of police system on Italy, but to evolve a system best suited to this country and the Italian population. Combined study by experts with possibly a different approach would seem an excellent way to achieve this. I would recommend parity between US and UK officers.

6. The staff must be police experts with long experience and if possible it would be helpful if their experience of police systems were not limited to American or English systems. On the British side I would welcome an officer with experience in the Dominions or Colonies. The principals must be very highly qualified.

7. Until more is known of the future of Allied commitments in ITALY it is ~~now~~ difficult to make recommendations as to how the personnel of the Mission should be held. In my letter of 23 June I recommended an Allied Mission, one of whose duties would be to care for the Police Mission. If this does not eventuate, the Police Mission could remain independent and on the same lines as the Military, Naval and Air Forces Missions or Mission.

- Confidential

(133A)

8. In spite of Signor PAVI's first reactions, I feel that we cannot let the matter rest. The future of ITALY will depend largely on the adequacy of her police forces. The Allies have a responsibility in this respect. It may well be that the acceptance of a Police Mission will have to be included as one of the clauses of the Treaty or be a matter for an agreed exchange of letters concomitant with the Treaty.

With reference to your G-5: 321, 12 of 11 AUG 45.

I. The following reply is sent in regard to the points raised in para 2 of your letter under reference;

(a) The Chief Commissioner discussed with the Italian Prime Minister on 21 Aug 45, the question of the Italian invitation to an Allied Police Mission.

In brief, the Prime Minister's position was that while he would welcome an Anglo-American Police Mission for the purpose of reorganizing the Public Security Forces of Italy, including the Garibini, he did not feel that the Italian Government as at present constituted from the six parties of the C.I.N. would be able to invite such a mission to be sent by the U.S. and British Governments. He stated that the Communist Party would certainly be opposed to inviting such a mission unless it included Russian members - a proposal which he would not favour.

He believed that after elections were held the resulting Government would not comprise as many parties as the present Government, that it would probably have the Communist Party in opposition and that with a more closely knit Government such an invitation for an Anglo-American Police Mission could then be made by the Government.

He felt that if such a mission were instituted now by the Supreme Allied Commander or by the Allied Commission it would not be well received and it would be considered as constituting an employment by the Allies of their powers under the Armistice in conflict with the present policy of holding the Armistice powers in reserve.

He did feel that the furnishing of an Allied Police Mission could be offered by the Allies and accepted by the Italians either as a condition of the peace treaty or as a separate arrangement made in connection therewith.

From the foregoing it will appear that the Prime Minister sees political objection to the furnishing of an Anglo-American police mission forthwith but is disposed to accept such a mission at the time of the conclusion of a peace treaty. He assumes that the peace treaty will be concluded before there is a new government as a result of national elections.

- (b) In view of the foregoing, it is presumed that no action should be taken at this stage in regard to the organisation of the Mission or to its composition by nationalities.
- (c) Your Headquarters, under your telegram DZ 24913 of 12 August 45, was endeavouring to obtain particulars of composition and terms of reference of the Special Police Mission to Greece. No information has yet been received from your Headquarters but since this matter was raised, this Headquarters has seen copies of correspondence which passed between the British Ambassador in Greece and the Greek Prime Minister. In this correspondence the status, the powers and composition of the mission to be sent to Greece are outlined.

J In view of the foregoing no action has been taken at this stage as regards the attachment of a Senior Police Officer to your Headquarters as suggested in para 3 and 4 of your letter under reference.

Letter dated 9th May from His Majesty's Ambassador to the Greek Minister about the Police, Gendarmerie and Prison Service situation.

The Greek Government requested His Majesty's Government to send a mission to Greece to recognise the gendarmerie, police and prison services.
As has already been made known to the Greek Government, His Majesty's Government sent to Athens to afford every assistance towards the re-establishment of the Greek State services in general and the forces of law and order in particular. In consequence His Grace, the present Inspector-General of the Royal Ulster Constabulary, visited Greece in March to enclose to the mission and to give his views to His Majesty's Government to the status and powers of such a mission. His Majesty's Government gave full consideration to the request and are willing to make available

Reference to paragraph 1 of my telegram No. 1167 of the 12th inst pertaining to the second of the two letters of 1st inst to Sir John Lubbock which ought to have been sent to Sir John Lubbock on the 12th inst, and my telegram of the 12th inst on the 2nd point to follow, and my telegram of the 1st inst to Sir John Lubbock on the 12th inst, concerning the same subject.

I have, etc.,

The Greek Government received the telegram in question, to send a copy of the letter to Sir John Lubbock, who wrote, concerning the same subject to Greece to inform him of the proposed visit of the Greek Prime Minister to the Greek Government, the Foreign Minister, Dr. S. B. C. Charlesworth, the recent Ambassador of the Royal Australian Government, visited Greece in July last to discuss the proposed visit of the Greek Prime Minister to the Greek State Secretary, in regard to the former of his two visits to the Greek Government, the Foreign Minister, Dr. S. B. C. Charlesworth, gave full consideration to the request made by the Greek Government to give him the opportunity to enter the country during his present visit, and do so without infecting the Greek Government. He would much prefer this arrangement to the present one, however, to do so before the election, and postpone it until after the election, and do so to give him the opportunity to do so without infecting the Greek Government.
The Greek Government has given full consideration to the proposal of the Greek Government to give him the opportunity to do so before the election, and postpone it until after the election, and do so to give him the opportunity to do so without infecting the Greek Government.

2. In the first place have been two messages to Sir John Lubbock and General M. L. Doherty and General G. W. Smith, ordered a copy of the same sent to Sir John Lubbock, and further consideration by the Government to meet the requirements of the Greek Government to do so before the election, and postpone it until after the election, and do so to give him the opportunity to do so without infecting the Greek Government.

It is not possible for His Majesty's Government to indicate the cost of the arrangements which no entitlement has been placed, but it is clear that both will be undertaken by the Greek Government, and then be reimbursed by the Greek Government. The benefits in kind would be provided by the Greek Government direct.

1. Possibly it is suggested that contracts for service should be for two years, would be gratuitous to honour from year to year indemnity as soon as possible whether the Greek Government agrees to above proposals.

12th May, 1945

My dear Ambassador,
 I have received your letter of the 3rd May on the subject of the mission which the previous Greek Government requested His Majesty's Government to provide to reorganise the gendarmerie, police and prison service. Your letter has been considered by the Government, who are fully aware of the importance of this question to the future of Greece, and they are happy to learn that they can assist you in the maintenance of His Majesty's Government in this matter.
 The Greek Government approve the financial proposals and other suggestions of the mission and powers of the mission, as set out in your Excellency's letter. On this point, however, they desire to make their own position clear. They respectfully urge that the chief of the mission should have those full powers mentioned in paragraph 2 for the organisation, administration and training of the services concerned. For this purpose they recognise that His Majesty must have the direction of appointments, promotions and transfers. At the same time, it is the understanding of the Greek Government that in operational matters, outside daily routine, as in other matters, including appointments, promotions and transfers, he will conform to the general policy laid down by the Greek Government, whose final responsibility in such matters must remain.

As the reorganisation of Police services is a matter of urgency, the Greek Government will be pleased if His Majesty's Government will accept the arrival J. A. S.

TO: MR. ALDO MUSCO, R.M.: Executive Commissioner.

For your information in preparing a reply to the attached secret letter, file 3-5001-A of 13 August, and with particular reference to para 2(a) thereof, I discussed with Prime Minister Farini yesterday the question of the Italian reaction to an Allied Police Mission.

In brief, Farini's position is that, while he would welcome an Anglo-American Police Mission for the purpose of reorganizing the public security forces of Italy, including the Carabinieri, he does not feel that the Italian Government, as at present constituted from the six parties of the left, would be able to invite such a Mission to be sent by the U.S. and British Governments. He stated that the Communist Party would certainly be opposed to inviting such a Mission unless it included mission members -- a proposal which he would not favor. He believes that after elections are held, the resulting Government will not comprise as many parties as the present Government, but it would probably have the Communist Party in opposition, and that with a more closely knit Government, such an invitation for an Anglo-American Police Mission could then be made by the Government.

The fact that if such a Mission were constituted now by all or the supreme Allied Command, it would not be well received and would be considered as constituting an usurpation by the Allies of their powers under the armistice in conflict with the present policy of holding the mediation powers in reserve.

He did feel that the furnishing of an allied Police Mission could be offered by the Allies and accepted by the Italians either as a condition of the peace treaty or as a separate arrangement made independent therefrom.

From the foregoing it will appear that the Prime Minister has political objections to the furnishing of an Anglo-American Police Mission, but is disposed to accept such a Mission at the time of conclusion of a peace treaty. He assures that the peace treaty will be concluded before there is a new Government as a result of national elections.

SUBJECT: Allied Police Mission to reorganize the Carabinieri.

TO : Headquarters, Allied Commission, APO 394.

1. Paragraph 7 of NAF 1051 (of which you have an information copy) informed the Combined Chiefs of Staff that it was considered that an Allied Police Mission should be provided urgently to reorganize and train the Carabinieri. Paragraph 12(a) of the same signal stated that details in regard to the suggested Mission would be made the subject of a separate signal.

2. It is now necessary, as a preliminary to the further signal envisaged, to determine at least the following points:

a. The Italian reaction to the suggested Mission.

b. The suggested composition of the Mission by nationalities (including staff, transport etc) and the organization on which its personnel should be held.

c. The suggested terms of reference of the Mission and its duration.

3. It is felt that the most expeditious way to arrive at conclusions on the above would be for a Senior Police Officer from your Headquarters, briefed by you and knowing the Italian viewpoint, to be attached to this HQ on temporary duty for a few days during which the staff work in connection with the proposed Mission could be worked out with all concerned.

4. It is requested that you will state the soonest date by which such an officer as above could be briefed and be made available. It is necessary that the supplementary signal to CCS should be sent with the least possible delay.

Since my return from Rome and from your conference on Saturday morning the 14th I have been in discussion with my R.P.S.O. on the various measures which we can take during the forthcoming six weeks to support every possible way the efficiency of the Carabinieri.

In this connection I have been fortunate to have a visit this morning from General Brunetto, the Chief of all the Carabinieri of Italy. We have discussed fully the various steps which may be taken; provision of clothing, provision of arms, support and recognition by allied authorities, assistance of transport, etc. I have decided to call a conference for 1600 hours on Tuesday next, the 24th July, to go further into this matter and I have invited 13th Corps and No 1 District to send representatives. I believe that with care we can take steps, even in the short time available, to leave the Carabinieri in a better condition than they now are. Naturally an increase in numbers would be a help and this must be a matter to be taken up on your level. However, as General Brunetto says very wisely, numbers are no substitute for quality.

Linked in with this question is the whole matter of public morale and public security and on that I am writing a separate letter to you describing my conversation with the prefects.
