Chief of Staff.

I submit comments as requested. I don't think "briefing" is necessary. The C.C. knows all the points such way as is. I have drawn attention to anything which in my view might raise difficulties.

V. No comment.

VI. 1. Agreed.

2. No objection.

3(a) The task will be assumed by OWI, MOI and the Embassies.

(b)(1) No. The AC does not assume such responsibility. The responsibility will be the Italian Government's, AC naturally assisting in so far as it can do so.

(b)(ii) No. Function of the Italian Government.

(b)(iii) No. This to remain a responsibility of PWB until such time as the Film Board can arrange to pass it to ordinary commercial control.

(b)(iv) No. PWB itself wishes to continue its intelligence reports. AC furnishes its own reports and would prefer to see such reports coordinated.

(c) Presumably AC admits this. It leaves a large loophole for things like ANSA.

(d) Agreed.

(e) Agreed.

(f) This falls into the same category as intelligence reports. It gives very wide potential powers to PWB in AC Italy. 498
