ROUTINE

PRIORITY FOR AGO 20, AGWP (Ancfarlane)

The reaction of population to transfer of territory may be summarized as follows. People generally apathetic and more concerned with living conditions. Preference for the continuation of AMG or at least for Allied Control for some considerable time is expressed in all regions and both Army areas. This is due to fear that Italian leaders are not capable of governing. Two particular reactions of interest are OZIERI province of Sardinia where people welcome turnover as gesture of Allied sympathy and confidence and in FIVE ARMY area where fears are expressed that turnover strengthens King's hand and defers formation of sound democratic government. No reports of demonstrations for or against have been received.
