Thank you for your letter of the 10th September asking for news of Mrs. Carla Roberti. I made inquiries with the following result:

Inquiries were made this morning at 102 V iale Giappone, Rome concerning Contessa Roberti. She is in excellent health and quite happy. At present she is in Naples but expects to return to Rome tomorrow evening. She is living at the address given.

I am glad to hear they are in good fettle. I believe they came to dine one night but I am not sure.

The Group Captain was down here last weekend in very good form. He left the house under a cloud of suspicion as he had a small travelling bag into which he was busy stuffing bombs. Everybody thought that he was a Communist, but they were only these American anti mosquito bombs.

Sorry to trouble you, but I thought you were the only person who could help.

Things are going along quietly

The Office of the U. S. Political Adviser, A.F.H.Q., has requested the American Joint Vice-President of the Political Section to investigate the case of two elderly ladies named Adele COSTAGNOCCHI and Orsola PERAZZI who reside at Montefalco about 12 kilometers from Foligno, Province of Umbria, in a dwelling called 'Casa Costagnocchi'. The situation of Foligno is described as being at a fork on Highway 3 where the road branches to Fano and Perugia respectively.

It appears that these two ladies have been stranded in this place for more than a year and it is desired, if possible, that permission be accorded them, and transport afforded them, in order that they return to Rome.

My Dear Lush,

1. You may have heard of my leaving the old Ministry of Information job last year, but I expect that this letter and the address from which I write will be the first you have heard of my being back here and of the new job I am in. I came out last March and am settling down very happily and like my work very much. It's on the same lines as I have always worked along, out in these parts though, of course, there is a fresh objective and a different directive.

2. I travel a lot and a recent tour brought me down into the Sudan and out to El Geneina which perhaps you know far better than I do. Since my visit, the supervisor in charge of the local P.W.D. Office - a likeable and educated Italian - has asked our B.O.A.C. Station Manager there whether he could get him any news of his wife and family from whom he has had no news since August 1943 when they were still at Castel Fiorentino, near Florence. The address then was

Signora Maria Marino
c/o Zaccardi
Castel Fiorentino
Florence.

The husband is very anxious to know whether his wife and children are alive and, if possible, where they are living.

3. If you could help, I would be most grateful and I hope you don't mind my troubling you personally in this way.

4. I hope all goes well with you and that you are keeping well. I know how busy you must be. I shall be visiting Tripoli very shortly and am very sorry that I shall not find you there.

The Deputy Chief Civil Affairs Officer of the British Military Administration, Tripolitania, has written to me enclosing a letter to the wife of a certain Ten. Medico Mario Felici. This lady is living at Via Claudio Monteverdi No.20, Rome, and I have been asked if the enclosed letter could be delivered to her, and if possible to get from her some reply. Better still it will be appreciated if you will look into her situation and if she is in distress, as the authorities in Tripolitania appear to be the case, some special effort be made to relieve her.

I have also been asked to let the Deputy Chief Civil Affairs Officer know how she is and whether their child Ida is in good health.

The reason for this request is that above-mentioned Doctor has done very excellent work for British troops in Tripolitania and has therefore a special claim for consideration.

Dear Arthur

There is a certain Ten. Medico Mario Felici here who by his excellent work for British troops and others has a special claim to our consideration. He recently saved the life of the Ringuist baby by sitting with it continuously for 22 hours and applying artificial respiration at short intervals.

I would ask you to have the enclosed letter delivered to his wife and to get from her some reply. Better still will you look into her situation and if she is in distress, as we fear to be the case, make some special effort to relieve her. Can you also let me have a line to say how she is and whether their child Ida is in good health.

16th August, 1944.

My dear Harold,

A rather serious situation has arisen with regard to the death of Signora Canepa and her daughter, who died practically simultaneously. The question arises to who is their next-of-kin and it is also difficult for us to obtain Probate of their Wills without this knowledge.

Signora Canepa was married to Signor Giovanni Luigi Bartolomeo Giuseppe Canepa and he was last heard of at Sestri Levante Italy. If he was alive on their death, which was about 8 a.m. on the 3rd July - he is their next-of-kin, if not, I shall have to look about and find who is their next-of-kin.

Do, if you have time, write and give me some gossip !

I do not often see Nancy, as we are all so busy, even in the week-ends, but, I hear her occasionally over the telephone.

All good wishes,

Yours ever,

Tom.

Dear Brigadier,

Sometime ago we were asked to forward some information about Professor Mario Praz, of Rome University to Allied Force Headquarters. Professor Praz is the son-in-law of D.L. Murray the journalist, who was anxious that the Allied Authorities should be made aware of his presence in Rome, with a view to utilizing his services.

I have now heard from A.F.H.Q. that this has been arranged and have informed Mr. Murray accordingly.

I would, however, be grateful if you would let me have any information you may be able to obtain concerning the welfare of Professor Praz and his family. His last known address is given as:-

147, Via Giulia,
Rome.

Yours sincerely
