1. As a result of the fall of Rome and other cities, and the consequent increase in Italian (and neutral) journalistic and literary activity, the following points, which concern all officers, need to be stressed:-

- (a) Pursuant to Executive Memorandum No. 47 of 1 April 1944, copy attached, the Public Relations Branch ACC is the sole channel through which information relating to ACC/AMG may be given to the Press. No officer is entitled to give information, on or off the record, to press correspondents, unless such interviews have been arranged through the Public Relations Branch.
- (b) The PWB (Psychological Warfare Branch) of AFHQ controls the dissemination of Allied propaganda: it is not a part of ACC and its agents are not authorised to publish information concerning ACC/AMG operations without first checking with Public Relations Branch.
- (c) All matters concerning the Italian Press are dealt with by the Allied Publications Board on which ACC has representation. Any questions from ACC/AMG Sub-Commissions or Regions concerning the Italian Press should be referred to the APB through PRB, ACC.

2. Attention of all officers to the above is essential in view of leakages of information which have become increasingly serious during recent weeks. In speaking to correspondents whether Allied, neutral or Italian, officers must avoid discussion or speculation on ACC/AMG operational matters unless the interview has been requested through Public Relations Branch.

Dear Lush:

Referring to your communication of 7 August regarding accreditation of political correspondents to ACC, this Headquarters has no objection to the plan as outlined.

The matter was discussed with General McChrystal and it was agreed that it would be quite proper if the correspondents were accredited directly to ACC, and that all arrangements be made through Colonel Astley, as suggested in your letter.

It is understood such correspondents would be free to comment as they wish so long as security was not violated.

Sincerely yours,

Requests have been made, and more are expected, from newspapers and agencies for permission to send political correspondents, and staff, to Rome. Such requests seem justified by the fact that the war correspondents allowed to each agency or newspaper are fully occupied with the war fronts, now at some distance from Rome, and are unable to cover political events here which are assuming a growing significance.

Colonel Astley, DDP, has expressed the opinion that the Public Relations Branch of ACC should properly be responsible for the accrediting, servicing, billeting, transport etc of such correspondents. ACC PR at the request of Colonel Astley has already taken over these duties in respect of the neutral correspondents in Rome.

It would seem in fact that as events develop political correspondents must be accredited to Rome. Up to the present, the Times has requested permission to employ one political correspondent here (Robert Hadfield, at present working with PWB) in addition to the two war correspondents, Lumby and Ure; the New York Times has requested permission for the immediate employment in its Rome Bureau of Mrs Milton Bracker (wife of its correspondent formerly in Naples); and the Tass Agency has sent Mr Vichniarski as political correspondent (The latter has already been accredited, under a misapprehension, by the War Office).

It would seem also that political correspondents in Rome should normally be attached to ACC Public Relations Branch since their information will come chiefly through that office.

Approval is therefore sought for political correspondents and their staffs to be accredited to, and so far as is necessary by, ACC PRO, who will then be responsible for making the necessary arrangements.

TREND OF COPY FILED BY CORRESPONDENTS APRIL 23

Surprisingly few correspondents had anything to say about the new Government. The despatches of Spriggs (Reuters) who left for Salerno on Sunday morning were conspicuous by their absence. Of the rest only Tetlow (Daily Mail), Hammond (Sunday Times) and Lumby (Times) discussed political changes in detail.

TETLOW, after remarking that "Italian political sense was still dead, and observers here were beginning to wonder whether it would ever reawaken" allowed that the new Government might be "though purely temporary, a tiny step forward." He then devoted a great deal of space to Alberto CIANCA "far the most interesting personality in the crisis, and the Action Party's virtual head" who, he said, was insistent that the King and Badoglio must go and "would have more influence outside the Cabinet than within it." "He will bear watching." TETLOW added that "the amiable Badoglio would have no easy task" but, like other correspondents, stressed the help given to him by the Communists. He concluded "Italy is the first country in Europe to offer the opportunity of setting up a political alternative to fascism and nazism."

HAMMOND after a long factual review of the circumstances leading up to the crisis, and the crisis itself, quoted Rome radio as saying "Badoglio has fooled everybody by turning the roaring lions of Bari, who had sworn to devour the monarchy into weak sheep ready for slaughter." HAMMOND also sent fully the story of AGC public works activities released today by PR Branch.

LUMBY said that the "government of caretakers" was better than had appeared at first sight. He stressed the importance of Togliatti's support, and suggested that this would "bring about the effective cooperation of partisans beyond the lines." He gave special notes of commendation to Gullo, di Napoli, Aldisio, and Quattieri.

SONIA TOMARA (New York Herald Tribune) wrote that it had been a triumph for Marshal Badoglio to obtain the support of Togliatti "known to be Moscow's voice in Italy." After various (quite reasonable) comments on the Black Market position and the failure of the previous Government to take drastic measures she added that "MacFarlane and other Allied authorities had been eager for a new Government which would stop such abuses ... but a raising in the price of wheat would have more effect on farmers than any change of government."

TEYLOW, after remarking that "Italian political sense was still dead, and observers here were beginning to wonder whether it would ever reawaken" allowed that the new government might be "though purely temporary, a tiny step forward." He then devoted a great deal of space to Alberto CIAMCA "far the most interesting personality in the crisis, and the Action Party's virtual head" who, he said, was insistent that the King and Badoglio must go and "would have more influence outside the Cabinet than within it." WILL LANG (Time Magazine) filed a highly-coloured despatch on life in Naples. According to him, amusements (including Marlene Dietrich) and black market restaurants flourished, the "beat-fed army in the world" needed 1,500 police to handle crime, prostitution was rampant ("there's nothing they won't do for a can of meat and beans") and Allied stores were constantly stolen by organized gangs, about which he wrote in great detail. In fact, we may expect "City of Luxurious Vice" to be the next Time headline.

BROWN (Reuters) sent the whole story of ACC public works released by PR Branch.

/ MORGAN (Chicago News)

5/

MORGAN (Chicago News) after some days of silence filed a long despatch which is perhaps the most encouraging summing-up which AGC has yet received. He described at length, and correctly, the steps leading to the erection of AGC and the present position of AGC/AMG (AGC "slipping the initials"). Most of this information he obtained from PR Branch. After devoting much space to a consideration of the difficulties involved - "the AGC is constantly hamstrung ... the average GAO sometimes wished that co-belligerency had never been invented" - and also to the feeling that British were outranking Americans in the AGC ("But this organizational irritant is being dealt with by MacFarlane") he stated that "whatever limitations historians place on the success of this noble experiment they must measure in the light of the facts that it has never been done before and that too many Italians in places high and low had seized the occasion to play at political and black market intrigues." He concluded with a close study of "tall, silver-haired MacFarlane" who was "scrupulously fair and honest with his men but fires those who can't work"; and ended "La Guardia himself might be forced to give up in despair if he had to try to run New York City with the same number of men as General MacFarlane has to run Italy."

1. The reorganization of Public Relations Branch as a part of HQ ACC and the consequent abolition of Regional Public Relations Officers involve the following arrangements:

2. The present establishment of the Public Relations Branch is as follows:

Director of Public Relations - Major Lionel Fielden (B)
Deputy Director of Public Relations - Major Theodore L. Bullock (Gdn)
Public Relations Officers - Captain Joan P. Leacacos (A)
- Lieut Gene F. Caprio (A)

Changes or additions in Public Relations personnel will be announced when they occur.

3. Location of the Public Relations Branch is Room 25, First Floor, Provincia Building, Headquarters, Allied Control Commission, Naples. Telephone numbers during office hours are Naples 5429 and Vapor (10050) 172. After office hours Major Fielden may be reached in Naples at 53807, Major Bullock at 52547 and Captain Leacacos at 16441.

4. The Public Relations Branch is responsible for ensuring as far as possible that an accurate and comprehensive picture of the work of the ACC and AMG is supplied to the world press and radio, either through accredited correspondents, or by direct release of news. This necessarily entails, on the one hand, a measure of control over all news issued, and, on the other, the cooperation of all personnel in keeping PR Branch fully informed. PR Branch has of course the responsibility for the collection and dissemination of news, but its success must derive largely from the readiness of Regional and Provincial Commissioners, SCAGOs, GAGOs and Heads of SCAGOs to communicate to PR all developments in their areas or spheres of activities which may add usefully to the general picture of the work of the ACC.

5. To illustrate this point, a memorandum issued by the Head of the Legal Sub-Commission is attached. Instructions of this kind are of the utmost value to the work of PR Branch and of the greatest assistance in combating criticism and providing regular and accurate material for the Press.

The Public Relations Branch is responsible for ensuring as far as possible that an accurate and comprehensive picture of the work of the ACC and AG is supplied to the world press and radio, either through accredited correspondents, or by direct release of news. This necessarily entails, on the one hand, a measure of control over all news issued, and, on the other, the cooperation of all personnel in keeping PR Branch fully informed. PR Branch has of course the responsibility for the collection and dissemination of news, but its success must derive largely from the readiness of SCAGs, CAOs and Heads of Regions and Provincial Commissioners, SCAGs, CAOs and Heads of Regions and Provincial Commissioners to communicate to PR all developments in their areas or spheres of activities which may aid usefully to the general picture of the work of the ACC.

5. To illustrate this point, a memorandum issued by the Head of the Legal Sub-Commission is attached. Instructions of this kind are of the utmost value to the work of PR Branch and of the greatest assistance in combating criticism and providing regular and accurate material for the Press.

6. Administrative Memorandum No 12 dated 12 March 1944 contains general guidance for Press interviews. It follows from this that, except in special cases, interviews to Press correspondents are not to be associated with the name of an officer, and are for "background information" only. Correspondents accredited by PR Branch can however be trusted not to divulge information given "off the record" and such information may sometimes be essential in order to give adequate background.

7. No interviews to Press Correspondents will be given by members of Headquarters staff of Naples or Salerno without first clearing with PR Branch. In Regions the procedure followed will be, as far as possible, to have correspondents accredited by PR Branch and to warn Regions in advance of their visits.

1 / Occasions

Occasions may arise, however, when correspondents visit Regions without having been to HQ, or when correspondents not generally accredited to ACG (e.g. war correspondents in operational areas) desire to obtain information of ACG or AMG activities. In such cases information should not be withheld by any red-tape considerations: Regional and Provincial Commissioners, SCACs and CAOs must, however, ensure that the correspondent holds proper credentials, and they are asked in all such cases to inform PR Branch briefly but immediately of the interview and information given. This ensures (a) that the source of information is known (b) that the correspondent's release can be properly checked if censorship questions arise and (c) that no one correspondent is favoured to the exclusion of others.

8. Since it is highly desirable to change the somewhat critical picture of ACG which has characterized some parts of the Allied Press, it follows that all possible courtesy and consideration should be extended to correspondents. PR Branch will, as far as is within its power, arrange for the transport of correspondents from HQ to Regions, but the responsibility for billeting and transport in Regional areas will necessarily fall on Regional staffs, who are asked to give their fullest cooperation in this connection.

9. A special situation exists as regards news intended for publication or broadcasting by the organs of Psychological Warfare Branch (PWB) in Italy. PWB personnel are authorized to seek information of Allied Control Commission or military government activities for publication in their controlled Italian organs without the necessity of constant reference to the Public Relations Branch. It is suggested that Regional Commissioners in Regions where PWB newspapers are operating maintain liaison with them. In the event of a major difference of opinion concerning the handling of any news that may affect the operations of the Allied Control Commission in any area, PR Branch should be consulted.

10. It is intended that members of the PR Branch shall visit Regions as frequently as possible in order to keep themselves fully acquainted with Regional problems and developments, and to carry out as far as possible the wishes of Regional Commissioners and their staffs in regard to publicity. Members of the PR Branch will also attend Regional Conferences whenever possible. It is emphasized in this connection that Regional Commissioners should unhesitatingly call on the services of PR Branch for any advice or information they may require on matters of publicity. This Branch will gladly despatch or assign an officer to Regions within limitations of available staff whenever special circumstances so require.

11. The control of newspapers, newsprint, applications for, or withdrawals of, publishing licenses, and all correlated matters in the Italian theatre of operations, fall under the Central and Regional Allied Publications Boards (The Central Board meets fortnightly on Mondays in Naples; the Regional Boards meet weekly on Mondays in Naples, Palermo, Cagliari, Bari and Cosenza). All questions concerning newspapers and other publications in Italy will normally be referred to these Boards. The Director of Public Relations is a member of the Central Board; urgent enquiries or complaints may therefore be channelled through PR Branch if required and requests for ACC action by the PRB will normally be made through PR Branch.

12. It will be generally agreed that it is essential to maintain the confidence, as well as the interest, of the Allied Nations in the work of the ACC, whose example is bound to be of great value in future operations of a similar kind. PR Branch will use every endeavour to ensure that the news issued and the record kept, are comprehensive, accurate, and well presented. In this endeavour it invites the cooperation of all concerned.

1. The Legal Subcommittee is anxious to arrange for a systematic supply of information to the Public Relations Officer to form a basis on which the PRO can launch a campaign of deterrent publicity against black market activities through the newspapers and PWB. For this purpose the PRO asked for the following returns from all Regional legal divisions:

(a) Weekly summaries of the number of cases tried for black market violations, the number of convictions and the length of the average sentence and amount of goods confiscated;

(b) Particulars of outstanding cases of big violators whose crimes are more sensational and whose capture and subsequent conviction reflects credit on the law enforcement machinery of the Allied Control Commission.

2. While I am anxious to give all possible assistance to the PRO on this important matter, it is not my wish to add to the work of legal divisions by calling for additional returns, but I ask you to treat this matter as important and to make from time to time such returns as may be possible without placing an undue strain on your existing facilities and staff. If you cannot make the returns under (a) please at any rate do so under (b).

3. Please send the returns direct to Major L. Fielden, Public Relations Officer, ACC, Naples, as from the week ending 1 April 1944, who will arrange for their dissemination in Allied and Italian newspapers and through PWB.

4. Apart from the special class of black market cases, any trials of interest and importance, with particulars containing the name of the accused, short description of the facts, verdict and sentence should from time to time be communicated to Major Fielden for publication in the most suitable manner. Please bear in mind the following principles:

(a) It is a good plan from the point of view of publicising the fairness and impartiality of Anglo-American justice to ask the PRO from time to time to insert an account of a trial which ends in acquittal, showing why the accused was acquitted.

(b) While there is no objection to publicising a forthcoming trial, it is on the whole better to concentrate on trials which have been held. In this connection publicity should not be withheld until the case has been reviewed. If, for instance, a death sentence is imposed, this might be reported first at the conclusion of the trial and secondly when the accused is executed.
