Administrative Memorandum 1. 3, this HQ., dated 4 Sept 44, Cont'd.

ACCOMMODATION OF LAND AND BUILDINGS IN FIFTH ARMY A&L P.B.S. AREAS

1. Application for Billets

Upon arrival in a community, the commanding officer will apply in writing stating the number of officers and other ranks to be billeted. U.S. billeting officer or FBS Real Estate Section will supply information as to the billets available, and, where necessary, issue billeting orders.

When the premises are occupied, the necessary forms will be filled out and copies will be distributed according to the regulations of the U.S. billeting officer or FBS Real Estate Section.

2. Selection of Billets

Troops will not be billeted in places of worship, convents or buildings classified as historical monuments, with women living alone, nor unless absolutely unavoidable, in town halls or buildings used for trade, industry or agriculture. When the use of public or commercial buildings cannot be avoided, arrangements will be made for the safe custody of documents and chattels.

3. Electric Light, Heating and Water

Where available, the occupant of a billet is entitled to bathing and washing facilities, and to electric light and heating. Commanding Officers of units will impress upon all ranks the necessity for conservation of fuel, electricity, gas, and water, and will insure that strict economy is exercised, and will take disciplinary action against anyone guilty of waste.

ACQUISITION OF CIVILIAN PROPERTY
OTHER THAN LAND OR BUILDINGS

1. General

Only essential stores, vehicles and equipment which cannot be obtained through normal military channels will be requisitioned.

No British officer of ACC/AMC has authority to requisition except in emergency.

2. Procedure

All requisitioning will be affected by an American officer appointed by the Regional Commissioner. The procedure will be the American procedure set out in Establishment Memorandum No. 14, ACC, dated 1 May 44.

3. Officers requiring articles requisitioned will inform the Requisitioning Officer, stating:-

CORRESPONDENCE

1. GENERAL COMMENTS.

- a. Letters from this headquarters like those from any business office make an indelible impression of the efficiency of the office on both military personnel and civilians. All official correspondence should be prepared neatly, completely, promptly, and accurately for unless communications are so prepared outsiders may conclude we do not know our business.
- b. Each letter should refer to one subject. Where you must write on two or more subjects to one headquarters or to one individual, compose two or more letters.
- c. All clerks are reminded they should never reveal the contents of official communications except to those entitled to know them.
- d. When, in order to clarify or support statements in your letter you must refer to printed authorities do so in respect to Orders, Bulletins and Memoranda, by referring to the paragraph number, section number, title and number, and date. For example:

Par 2, S/O 12 Hq Region IX, dated 12 August 44.

A reference to a letter or indorsement, telegram and so forth may include as much of the following as is necessary to insure easy identification: symbol, file number, subject, and date of communication. Normally references will be included in the first paragraph of the communication. For example:

Reference your letter, file number RIX/ACR/771, dated 22 July 44, or Reference your letter, file number RIX/ACR/770, subject: Buffalo, Bologna Province, dated 22 July 44.

e. When the name of a Officer, Warrant Officer or Enlisted Man or Other Rank is first mentioned in a communication it is good practice to mention his personal number.

f. This memorandum will not apply to the official correspondence emanating from the Headquarters of the American and British units. Each unit will follow the forms as prescribed by their respective Army Regulations.

2. MECHANICS OF ARRANGEMENT.

a. Use standard letter size paper (8" x 10 1/2") where possible. Type on original on bond paper, using onion skin or tissue paper for carbon copies.
