1138 personal for Jones. SCAO hasinformally consulted Sullivan and we on Alcoms amendment to second paran of draft order on additional sanctions against crimes of a fascists nature. He understands from legal officer that amendment reading "In conformity with the Policy adopted by the Italian Government" should be inserted at Behest 2 Embassies. SCAO is advised insertion would have no legal effect but is concerned at possible political repercussions of including overt acknowledgement of application Italian law here, contrary to practice since AMG took over. I am inclined to share this apprehension but said am unaware your reasons for wanting insertion, which on its faceappears to give pro Jugoslavs additional propaganda point of exception to new law which they probably wont like anyhow. Other hand new law by applying Italian procedure appears meet local Italian objections to present 1 even without the amendment. Since SCAO anxious publish final order soonest, grateful for your early comment which I may use in further personal and informal discussion with him.

AICOM ROME ECONOMIC SECTION ATTN LE AREKSBEGG M DZQSMH

UNCLASSIFIED.

Subject is supply program 1946 for Venezia Giulia. From letter concenning blankets for this Area, received this office from commerce division this Headquarters, following information presented.

Para 1. Referring to the indent for woolen blankets for 1946, understand now from the chamber of commerce that a general demand for woolen blankets in the Venezia Giulia is not actually felt owing to: the distribution of blankets already made by AMG, the availability and offers in the free market at reasonable prices, the advanced season.

Para 2. The hospitals, communal and other charitable instructions are sufficiently provided with blankets and will require at the utmost a fresh supply of about 1000 woolen blankets only in the next winter.

Para 3. It is considered therefore that a supply of 10.000 blankets should be sufficient for the requirements of the rest of the civil population during the next winter .

Para 4. Allowing for a certain number of blankets to be kept in stock to cope with emergencies arising from accidents, etc. And to prevent "disease and unrest", 50.000 woolen blankets all told shouldd suffice to amply cover therequirements of this territory for this year.

Para 5. It is suggested to amend the figures, given in the programme for both the I and II semester of 1946, accordingly.

The following amendment became effective March 15: "SPA revised regulation 8, dated January 3, 1946, entitled " foreign disposal "is Hereby amended by deleting all of para 8308 point 16 (E) and substituting therefor the following: (E) consideration for disposition of surplus property. (1) In general. Surplus property may be disposed of for cash, credit or other property. (2) Disposal of surplus property forclaims. Surplus property may be disposed of in return for the settlement of cancellation of any claim determined by any properly authorized governmental agency to be an appropriate claim against the Government of the United States, and for the settlement for which appropriations exist : upon settlement, reimbursement will be made from such appropriations in an amount equal to the claim. (3) Disposal of surplus property for other property or property rights. Surplus property may be exanged for other property, real or personal, tangible or intangible, where this course of action is determined bythe department of state to be in the best interests of the Government of the United States. The property or rights thus acquired may be disposed of by sale or by transfers authorized by law, including transfers to the Government agencies authorized to acquire such property and having appropriations which can be charged with the value of the property so transferred. Where surplus property is exchanged for property or rights which are not appropriate for sale or transfer, the department of state will be the custodian of the documents evidencing such property or rights and will be charged with the responsibility for any other governmental negotiations incident to the protection, enforcement or continuance of such property or rights. This amendment shall become effective March 15, 1946." Para under the new amendment surplus property may be disposed of to settle a claim which has been determined by the proper agency to be appropriate for settlement. This procedure will apply only to claims which the War department or other authorized agency could otherwise settle for cash. Claims which the War Department or other departments of the Government are not authorized under existing law, to settle by the payment of cash may not be settled by transfer or surplus property.

The most immediate instance in which the new power to exchange surplus property for other tangible property will be utilized is in connection with a program of the state department to acquire improved and / or unimproved properties and improvements on properties including commitments to construct and rehabilitate buildings at the request of the U S. This program is the responsability of the foreign buildings operations division of the state department and the secretary of state has instructed this office to provide every cooperation in the acquisition of such properties. When programs are received for particular countries these will be forwarded to you immediately AD on the basis

The properties to be obtained and the values to be placed thereon will be the responsibility of the foreign buildings operations representative and you should obtain his certificate as set fourth in operating directive no 21. Permanent transfer of the property to the state department will be made only after appropriations or other enabling legislation has been passed. Meanwhile suitable arrangments can be worked out with Embassy for holding title documents in escrow under circumstances which would not complicate a subsequent sale of the property by F[illegible] should permanent transfe[illegible] of the property to the department not be authorized. The nature, quantity and valuation of the surplus to be transferred will of course be your determination. In the event that specific properties have not been agreed upon between representatives of the foreign Government, you may, to the extent of any program received by your for the acquisition. The contract should be so worded however as to create a clear obligation to pay for the surpluses in the event of the failure to arrive at an agreement as to properties to be transferred. Where credit agreements have already been signed for surpluses already transferred which arrangements provide for accelerated payments in local currencies, the question of using such local currencies for the purchase of properties desired by FBO is a matter for which you as field commissioner have no responsibility. Under the new regulation other types of tangible property may be accepted in exchange for surplus, and we are presently requesting information as to any strategic materials desired by the army or navy for stockpiling which might be obtained in return for surplus property. Your comments are invited as to any other type of tangible property which you think we might possibly accept in exchange for surplus property.

You will also be advised of any instances in which the state department feels that surplus property can be advantageously exchanged for intangible interests desired by the Government, such as landing rights or a commitment to maintain operation of navigational aids. Your suggestions as to other valuable rights which might be required in return for surplus are de-BASILINI of Trieste and Prima Sprecantura of Monfalcone normally processed about 75 per cent of oil seeds imported into Italy occupying first and third places in national production with combined monthly capacity of 32500 tons. Rehabilitation of plant now completed has made available combined monthly capacity of 17500 tons. Necessary to resume production to retain workers in employment and stimulate important local industry. Request you approach Italian Government to allocate minimum of 7500 tons monthly of peanuts colza needs sesame soya benne and sunflower seeds for processing. Resulting products would be returned to Italy for distribution. In view of importance of these establishements to Italian Economy please use best endeavours on our behalf to secure favourable decisi from Italian Authorities. Repeat what we want is work for plant not products.
