Federico RENZI (Independent) appointed Minister of the Treasury.

At Foreign Press Conference PARRI congratulated British Labour Party on its victory and said that ITALY is optimistic because international economic collaboration and just distribution of food appear in programmes of British party. He recalled Bevin's words on treatment of ITALY, explained the programme of the Italian Government said that elections could not be held until ITALY's international status was changed. Said he hoped a small Corps of Italian Volunteers would be sent to JAPAN.

Socialist Congress started on 29 July; after three days'discussions, during which complete agreement on practical matters was reached, the motion by PERTINI (ex-secretary of the Socialist Party in Northern ITALY and new member of the central directorate) asking for complete merger between Socialists and Communists was approved, in preference to the NENNI-SARAGAT motion (asking for union between the two parties and for political autonomy of each).

Public Safety: On 1 August, 400 ex-PW from GERMANY stormed the Municipio NAPLES demanding work and relief. No injuries, no arrests, damage extremely slight. Situation in hand within half an hour.

Public Health: A case of typhus resulting in death was reported from a Refugee Camp in MILAN.

Refugees: Approximately 35,000 Italian refugees have been repatriated by SHAEF and from SWITZERLAND during the period 23-26 July. During the week 15,000 Italian refugees were evacuated from the North to ROME and the South by rail and sea for dispersal to their homes, while 21,000 were returned to their homes in the Northern Regions. 10,000 Italian refugees were transported by rail to the South from Rome, for dispersal to their homes.

General Remarks: A forage survey has been completed, in conjunction with the Ministry of Agriculture, which indicates a critical shortage of livestock feed in Southern ITALY and SARDINIA. Arrangements are being made to move forage from Northern ITALY into deficit areas.

It has been agreed with the Ministry of Agriculture that the slaughter up to 15% of live weight of cattle a year for meat should be authorised in Northern ITALY. This percentage approximates the normal rate of culling.
