WEEKLY SITREP NO. 52

Political:

Council meeting (9 and 10 August) decided to pay special indemnity of 3,000 lire to all state employees, granted administrative autonomy to the Val d'Aosta, allotted one billion lire to building of "shelters" for those whose homes have been destroyed. Council also approved Italy's joining Central European Railroad organization. Paretti-Griva, Commissioner for Epuration, was appointed president of Bascia Court of Appeals. Appointments of Reale and Negarville (see last week's telegram) formally confirmed.

It was reported that some 30,000 Italians wish to leave Fiume.

Farri, commenting on end of war, said Italians might now hope more tennage would be available for relief and reconstruction.

Public Safety:

10,000 pairs of new boots received for the 3rd Brigade of CC.RR. in FLORENCE. The re-organization of Carabinieri strength is continuing - some older classes being released to make room for younger men re-enlisted in the North.

Overcrowded conditions of all jails and the slowness of Italian courts still reported from Northern Italy. At Regina Coeli (Rome), 1,400 prisoners have been transferred to other prisons. Less than 1,000 inmates remain.

Refugees:

During the week 37,688 Italians have returned to Italy, 36,117 through the Brenner and Swiss routes and 1,571 by sea from Durazzo and Cagliari. 8,958 Italians have been dispersed to the South from Rome and 7,406 arrived from the North including two refugee trains from Germany.

Wheat Collection:

Total amassed to 13 August -- 4,216,167 quintals.

Olive Oil Collection:

Total amassed to 13 August - 528,695 quintals.

General Remarks:

Sample textbooks in German for elementary and lower schools have been brought from Switzerland to be reprinted and used in the schools of Bolzano Province. Contact has been made with the European Student Relief Fund in Geneva and arrangements were .

discussed for help to Italian universities.

A repository for Allied use but with an Italian staff, is to be established for those Italian archives likely to be of interest to Allied agencies. This repository will be ^{open} available to Italian Ministries.

Additional materials decontrolled from AFHQ(I)B list were tin solder and white metal for bearings.

247 tons of wine have been exported to Malta and 2500 tons of sulphur to Greece since 7 August.

The S. Elpidio superphosphate factory near Macerata has started production. Full production is estimated to be 2000 tons a month. This factory is controlled by the Consorzi Agrari.

Production of coal in Sardinia reached the highest level since Allied occupation. Production for July was 50,128 tons; daily production averaged 2,030 tons. Number of underground workers averaged 3,817 a day. 390 mine workers were shipped from CIVITAVECCHIA to SARDINIA and the recruiting programs continued.

Approximately 39,000 tons of molasses have been located in NORTH ITALY and frozen pending allocation by priorities of this valuable material. Allocations from the stock have been made for yeast manufacture and extraction of sugar by barytization.

The 50,000-volt electric transmission line between PORTOMAGGIORE and FORLI has been repaired and is now furnishing power to FAENZA, FORLI, and CESTINA, areas which previously had very little power. Increased supply of electric power to RAVENNA is expected within three weeks.
