SUBJECT: Officer for Port Duties in Genoa.
TO : DMS Establishment Section.

1. The Regional Commissioner, Liguria Region, has written in asking for the posting of a competent officer for port duties in Genoa. In view of the importance of this port for the whole of N.W. Italy it is essential to make the services of a really first class officer available.

2. In September last a request was made for Major Gael Sullivan (A) to Economic Section, but this request was turned down. (Letters 10/2 of 18 September and G-1 (A)/128/el of 26 September refer). I understand that another application has been made for the services of this officer, and I should like the most careful consideration to be given to this request, and to be informed if for any reason his services cannot be made available.
