Memo:

To : Colonel J. W. Chapman, Director, Public Safety Subcom.

You may be familiar with this case. It was handed to me by the American Red Cross, who received it from the family of Signor Improta and simply passed it on to the Commission for any action the latter might care to take. Perhaps it has already been disposed of. If not, would you pass it on to the appropriate subcommission for consideration.

Dear

This will acknowledge the letter from Miss Gertrude Champion, of 663 North Francis St., Madison, Wisconsin, inclosing the $10,000 contribution for the Italian Red Cross.

I have had the contribution delivered today to the Marchese Theodoli, since Count Umberto Zanotti - Bianco was not available.

The Italian Red Cross are writing a letter of appreciation direct, I understand.

Yours,

DUNCAN H. PIERCE,
Colonel
