2. He is of the 1913 Class and is therefore liable for Demobilisation.

At present he looks after the water supply, Comune trucks flour mills etc.

He is anxious to have his position regularised and I should be glad if the matter could be placed before the appropriate authority so that this may be done.

HISTORY OF THE SERVICE OF LIEUTENANT GIUSEPPE LA PALOMBARA

Lieut. Giuseppe LaPalombara, son of Vincenzo, born at Savona on 11 September 1913, commissioned as an officer of artillery and assigned in January 1940 to the Fourth Artillery Regiment, attached to corps, participated in June of that month in all the military operations of the front in southern France, then passed across the Italian-Swiss frontier, returning home to Rovereto in October of the same year.

At that time he was again galled into service and transferred with his unit to Bari to embark for Albania.

However after three months' stay at Bari, in April 1941 he returned home and, after a brief leave, was sent with his unit to the 21st Artillery Regiment of the Trieste division ready to sail for North Africa. He sailed the same year on the motorship Oceania from Taranto and seventy miles from Tripoli it was torpedoed and sunk.

Saved by one of our destroyers, he disembarked at Tripoli on 18 September 1941 and was immediately sent to the front. He participated in the siege of Tobruk and in the holding battle of Sidi-Rezek and in other battles until 12 December 1941, the day upon which his unit was destroyed by overwhelming enemy forces and he would have been taken prisoner had he not pretended to be dead and fled at night, finally succeeding after three days in the desert without water or food in reaching his own lines.

Then, transferred to another group, he returned to the front line for another two months, taking lifely part in the advance which brought our troops to El Alamein and in the retreat which followed, up until he was wounded near Agedabia, during an aerial bombardment on 14 November 1942.

Returning to Italy, after two months in the hospital, he was given a convalescent leave of six months and then found fit for limited service, which he resumed with the 21st Artillery Regiment at Piacenza in July of 1943. The day following Italy's surrender he was made prisoner by a German unit, while he telephoned his own headquarters asking instructions.

After two _____ of prison, he was able at great risk to escape and remain hidden for several days, after which he decided to go to the German-English front, he left Piacenza, using whatever means that could be found, including walking, and was able to cross the lines at Vasto late in November 1943.

A few days after his arrival he was charged by the Sindaco and AMGOT to make the grain-mills of that part of the country work with internal-combustion motors, because of the absolute lack of electrical energy and then, remaining in the service of AMGOT, to place in service the largest number of civilian automobiles possible and to organize a motor transport service to provide the most important kinds of food for the region, finally assuming also the direction of the Co-operative Aqueduct of Sinello.

Vasto, 25 March 1944

Faithfully,

Giuseppe LaPalombara

STORIA DEL SERVIZIO DEL TENENTE GIUSEPPE LAPALOMBARA

In Tenete Giuseppe La Palombara di Vincenzo, nata a Savona L' undici Settenbre 1913, niminato Ufficiale d i Artiglieria ed assegnato nclGennaio del 1940 al Quarto Reggimento Artiglieria di C. A., partecipava nel Giugno del medesimo anno a tutte le operazioni di guerra del fronte Occidentale Francese. Da dove passava sul confine Italo Svizzero per rientrare in Sede a Roveto nel mese di Ottabre.

In tale epoca nuovamente nobilitato veniva trasferito con il suo gruppo a Bari per imparcarsi per L'Albania.

Ma dopo tre mesi di permanenza a Bari, Nell'aprile del 1941 rientrava in Sede dove, dopo un breve periodo, era aggrecato con il suo gruppo al 21 Regg. Artiglieria della divisione Trieste e mobilitato per l'Africa Settentrionale.

Per cui, nel settembre dello stesso anno si imbargava a Taranto sulla Motonave Occanea, che a settanta miglia di Tripoli fu silurata e affontata.

Salvato da un nostro Cacciatorpediniere, sbargeva a Tripoli il 18 settembre 1941 e subito inviato al Fronte, partecipava all'assedio di Tobruch ed alla Battaglia di arresto di Sidi-Rezech e ad altre Battaglie fino al 12 Dicembre del 1941, giorno nel quale fu distrutto il suo gruppo da forze soverchianti nemiche e sarebbe caduto Prigioniero, se fingendosi morto, non fosse di notte tempo fuggito,riuscendo dopo tre giorni di deserto, senza acqua ne' viveri a riguadagnare le proprie linee.

Indi, passato ad altro gruppo, ritornava in linea, dove vi rimase ancora per altri II mesi, prendendo viva parte all'avanzata che condusse le nostre forze fino ad El-Alamain ed alla successiva ritirata, precisamente sino al 14 Novembre 1942, giorno in cui fu ferito nei pressi di Agedabia, durante un bombardamento Aereo.

Tornato in Italia, dopo due mesi di Ospedale, veniva inviato in licenza di convalescenza per sei mesi, quindi giudicato idoneo al sevizio, condizionato, riprendeva servizio al 21 Regg. Artiglieria di Piacenza nel Luglio 1943, fino al giorno seguente alla Resa dell'Italia, giorno nel quale veniva fatto prigioniero da un Reparto Tedesco, mentre da solo telefonava al proprio Comando per chiedere ordini.

Dopo due (manca una parola) di prigionia riusciva con grave rischio a fuggire e a rimanere nascosto per alcuni giorni, finche' decise a raggiungere il Fronte Tedesco Inglese, partiva da Piacenza e facendo la strada con i mezzi piu' disparati, non escluso quello di camminare a piedi, riusciva ad attraversare il fronte e giungere a Vasto alla fine di Novembre 1943.

Ove dopo pochi giorni dall'arrivo, fu incaricato dal Sindaco e dall'A.M.G.O.T., di far funzionare i mulini del paese com Motori a combustione interna, a causa della mancanza assoluta dell'Energia Elettrica.

E da allora e' rimasto al servizio dell'A.M.G.O.T., rimettendo in efficenza il maggior numero di macchine Civili possibili, organizzando un auto-servizio, per rifornire il paese di generi alimentari di prima necessita', assumendo infine anche la direzione dell'Acquedotto Consorziale del Sinello.

Dear

1. I am sorry not to have answered your 2128 G(O) of 22 Aug before. But this case has taken some digging out, being rather complicated, and I have had to go to AFHQ and CIL from which I have just returned.

2. I am sorry but I cannot do any more re LOMBARDI. There is a considerable doubt over his case, which has to be examined by one of the four special courts we have set up to examine the cases of all Italian officers. These courts are sitting now and his case will be looked at shortly, but even if it finds that he is a Regular, that is no criterion that he will be kept on. We have too many Generals and I have been ordered to reduce the numbers. In any event the result will take time. Incidentally there have been and still are many legal difficulties (requiring alterations of law) in all this business.

3. Moreover, TARANTO is now onl a Colonel's command and the new incumbent has been appointed.

4. So, in view of all the above, as I say, LOMBARDI must vacate TARANTO command and wait for the Court's decision.

Sorry - but there it is.

Yours L.B.

Dear Browning.

I wrote you on 25 July requesting the retention in his appointment at the Comando Presidio Militare in TARANTO, of General LOMBARDI.

In your signal AQ 1752 of 31 July you told me that LOMBARDI would have to be demobilised as he was a Reserve Officer.

Brigadier CALWELL of 52 Area, who is particularly anxious to keep LOMBARDI, tells me, however, that LOMBARDI had an interview with the Italian Ministry of War on 19 August. They agreed that he is not on the Reserve List as was previously supposed - but on the Active List.

Apparently investigations into his case are proceeding and LOMBARDI fears that owing to the slowness of the Italian machinery, the Italian Board of Generals will not have completed these by September 1st, the date he is due to vacate his appointment in TARANTO and he will therefore be removed.

Should the facts be as LOMBARDI has stated, I would be most grateful if you would arrange for him to be kept on in TARANTO until the Italian authorities reach a final decision in his case.

Yours Sincerely.

AG 201 Damico Gaetano (Ital.Civ)
CBPCSW (25 Aug 44)

SUBJECT: Damico Gaetano.

To: Army Sub Commission, AAI APO 394 U.S.Army

1. On 23 August 1944 Damico Gaetano, a resident of Capua, Italy was arrested by military order and put in jail at Santa Maria.

2. Damico Gaetano is a foundryman working for the 12th Chemical Maintenance Co. at Capua, Italy. He was originally hired by the Chemical Warfare Section of the Fifth Army on 15 February 1944. At that time he was given a statement by the Fifth Army that he was employed by them as an essential worker and that they were requesting military deferment for him.

3. On 15 May 1944 the Chemical Warfare Section, Peninsular Base Section, transferred this group of workers, including Damico Gaetano, from the Fifth Army to the 12th Chemical Maintenance Co. Inasmuch as he had been given a statement to the effect that deferment was being requested for him, he apparently innocently assumed that he had been deferred. The Chemical Warfare Section, Peninsular Base Section, had no knowledge of the matter and therefore did not advise him that they would not request deferment.

4. It is requested that the Italian Ministry of War be furnished this information in order that the extenuating circumstances in his case may be brought forward at his trail.

5. He has been a very conscientious and loyal worker.

TARANTO

Il Ministero della Guerra, con telegramma No. 200151/11 del 7 agosto c.a., ha disposto il ricollocamento in congedo di tutti gli Ufficiali del R.Esercito i quali appartenevano alla Milizia fascista e vi prestavano servizio all'atto del suo scioglimento.

Nelle suddette condizioni si trova il capitano del genio GATTI Edoardo, comandante la 13" Compagnia Artieri Genio, impiegata da codesto Comando.

Poichè, secondo la disposizione, il ricollocamento in congedo del capitano Gatti doveva avvenire entro il 15 agosto, rappresentai subito al Superiore Comando Militare della Puglia e Lucania che l'Ufficiale comanda un reparto impiegato degli Alleati e che perciò non era possibile dare immediata attuazione all'ordine.

Il citato Comando, con foglio No. 18771/1 del 21 agosto, mi ha comunicato che il Tenente del Genio PAOLETTI Pietro viene destinato alla 13" Compagnia, per sostituire il capitano Gatti, il quale deve essere ricollocato in congedo.

To the Allied Command V[th] Army

Sirs,

My son, Pericle Buttazzoni, sublientenant of the "Genio" actually serving with the "Genio Autonomo n°910 per A.A." military post 179, aggregated to the Fifth Army, has finished his 5[th] year of studies in Architecture at the University of Rome, but was unable to take his degree owing to 3½ years' military service. The Italian War Ministry conceded 6 months leave to soldiers finding themselves in these conditions in order to enable them to complete their studies. This provision has latterly been suspended, for what reason is not known in the case of mobilised officers, that is, those who have shown, by their work, to have done more than the others for the common cause. As these officers also depend from the Allied Command, the undersigned permits himself to make known the position in which, naturally, many men, besides his son, find themselves, in order that your Command may be good enough to examine the case and, if approved, emit dispositions to enable these young men to profit by the 6 months' leave, or, at least, that they may be assigned for service near their University, where Confirming conversation of todays date (Capt SPECTOR - Capt GREGORY).

1. Information has been received that the a/n officer will be ordered on permanent leave by the Italian Army C in C unless objections are raised by the British military authorities.

2. The Officer Commanding British Cadre RASC 1004 Italian Army GT Coy has stated that this officer is one of the most reliable in the Italian Company, and he does not want to lose him.

3. Furthermore, Capt MARCHESI does not wish to leave the Army, and a copy of his application to be allowed to continue to serve, is attached.

4. The proposal by the Italian authorities that this officer should be sent on permanent leave is not understood, in view of the difficulty which is being experienced at present in finding suitable officers for the Italian Army GT Coys.

5. It is requested therefore that the strongest representations be made to the Italian authorities concerned in this case, and that they be asked to cancel the order issued by the C in C Italian Army.

An order has been issued by the Italian Army C in C that Capt Marchesi will be sent on permanent leave providing no objections are raised by OC British Cadre RASC, 1004 Coy, under whose command this officer is serving.

5. His household was in ROME as he was Aiutante Maggiore in the 8th Regt in 1938 - 1939. His furniture is all missing (stolen by the Germans).
His wife and family live in enemy occupied territory, and all his property is beyond the front line.

In view of the above he therefore requests that he may be allowed to remain in the army.

Subject:- Italian GT Coys RASC.

Complaints have been received by 3 District from OC Brit Cadre, 1003 (It) GT Coy, RASC regarding the rations issued to the Italian personnel of the coy.

The coy is operating in a large area from ROME to CAIAZZO and rations are drawn from the Deposito Viveri, ROME.

Specific complaints are that they are not being issued with bread and that quantities os rations arrive in a state unfit for human consumption. There is also a lack of olive oil though this, I believe, is general.

Could investigations please be made direct with the coy and also the correct procedure be pointed out to them for indenting for clothing. It would seem that their past demands for the latter have not been made through the correct channels and that the clothing of the coy, generally, is in a very bad state.

Major,
MMILALO,
3 District.

1. The above named soldiers, personnel of No 2009 Services Pl. (Italian Sabauda Division) Italian Increment to this HQ under WE NA/447/1, have absented themselves from duty, w.e.f. the dates shown. All available steps have been taken for the apprehension and subsequent trial of these men who are deserters under Italian Military Law.

2. The consequent depletion of this Services Platoon by reason of the above, is proving to be a considerable handicap to this HQ, particularly in view of the recent reduction in the number of British ORs, and it is a matter of urgency that replacements should become available.

3. Would you please state what system exists to provide for reinforcements of Italian Military personnel, to meet deficiencies due to desertions, illness, and such other causes.

He says he was in F (Italian) P.W.Coy., Pioneer Corps at SYRACUSE until 25 July 44 when, having been granted a pass to MESSINA from SYRACUSE, he escaped to CROTONE to see his family. On his return to SYRACUSE he found his P.O.W.Company had left. He was told that they had gone to ALGERIA. (If this is true it seems obvious that he escaped with a view to avoiding shipment to ALGERIA).

I have lodged this man temporarily at 207 Infantry Depot, CATANZARO, and I shall be glad to hear from you what should be done with him.

1. The Italian Ministry of War has reported your view that Lt.Col.LETO Andrea should remain in his presen service. The Ministry state :-

(a) He has had intimate relations with the wife of a private soldier.

(b) He is too old.

2. In view of the above, the Italian Ministry of War' decision to demobilise him seems reasonable. A very large amount of demobilisation is taking place in the Italian Army to bring the strength within the ceiling proposed by the Combined Chiefs of Staff, the policy being that older officers go first.

3. Under the circumstances it is hoped that you will not press for his retention.

Il tenente art.G.a.F. BELMONTE Domenico, attualmente ufficiale di collegamento presso la 10^ divisione indiana (V corpo inglese) è stato implicato, tempo fa, in un trasporto abusivo di olio dalle Puglie in Abruzzo. Per tale motivo è stato punito dal comandante della 209^ divisione con 10 giorni di A.R. e 15 A.S..

Poichè il prestigio dell'ufficiale è rimasto scosso anche nei confronti del comando presso il quale presta servizio, questo S.M. ritiene opportuno allontanarlo dall'incarico attuale e metterlo a disposizione del Ministero della guerra per ulteriore impiego in reparti della sua arma.
