1. Lt. Col. MORIARTY of MMIA accompanied by a senior officer of Italian Ministry of War inspected two barracks in SPOLETO this morning in order to suggest suitable accommodation for a BR-ITI depot to house the intake of the ABRUZZI call-up. As there are no tents available and as there is not thought to be roofed accommodation in the ANCONA area, SPOLETO is considered acceptable as a location for such a depot.

2. Of the two barracks in SPOLETO - i.e. MINERVINO Barracks (considered by Allies to house 1400 personnel) and Officers Cadet School (considered by Allies to house 1600 personnel), the latter is thought eminently suitable and further, the Italian Ministry of War stated that it would be capable, without alteration, of housing 3,000 Italians. Although the call-up is 6,000, it is felt that this building of 3,000 would be sufficient, as reinforcements to forward units or combat group depot could be speeded up accordingly.

It is learned however from 1 District that this barracks is earmarked for Allied Diva restings out of the line. 5420

It is requested that if at all possible you allot this barracks as an Italian reinforcement Depot in order that arrangements for the call-up may proceed. If not, will you please nominate accommodation approx. ANCONA - PERUGIA - SPOLETO as soon as is practicable in order that the reinforcing and replacing of Italian personnel working for British formations may not be retarded.
