Your Q/200/P of 16 June 44.

1. The matter has been carefully reviewed in conjunction with the Italian General Staff, and the position is as under.
2. 7.65 mm BERETTA pistols. Availability is NIL.
3. 9 mm BERETTA pistols. Total availability on the mainland and SARDINIA is under 2000.
4. Italian General Staff have been asked to consider allotting to you a total of 500 9 mm pistols, and you will be notified of the result.
5. Please inform this HQ if these 500 weapons, if released to you, are to be given to Italian troops, or to non-Italian troops, and whether there is any likelihood of the weapons being returned to the Italian Army.

Ref your ACC/14613/3/PS of 23 May and 10 Jun 44 regarding arms and amm from Italian Army stocks for P.S. Agents.

1. The matter has been carefully examined by this H.C. in conjunction with the Italian General Staff, and it is regretted that it is not possible to supply the arms and amm (except 6.5 mm) requested, since present stocks are not sufficient even for the needs of the Italian Army itself.
2. A limited amount of 6.5 mm rifle amm can be released to you if you wish.

1. There is a constant demand from the Italian formations administered by HQ Special Operations, Mediterranean, for small automatic pistols.
2. The ideal weapons for this purpose are either the 7.65 or 9mm Beretta of the type normally carried by Italian officers. In this connection our signal SI948 of 15 Jun refers.
3. Please give details showing what quantities of these weapons are held in Italian Army Depots.
4. S.O.M. state their requirements for these weapons are likely to be about 20 pistols per month.
5. On receipt of your answer to para 3 above the situation will be reviewed in the light of availability and Italian Army total commitments.

1. There is a constant demand from formations administered by this HQ for small automatic pistols and great difficulty is experienced in obtaining supplies from Allied sources.
2. The ideal weapons for this purpose are either a 7.65 or 9 mm Beretta of the type normally carried by Italian Army officers.
3. Please advise if it is possible to obtain quantities of these weapons from the Italian Army, and, if so, through what channels application should be made.
4. Twenty pistols are required immediately and approximately the same figures are likely to be required monthly.

Reference your letter SD/1/2 dated 9 June.

1. Issues of Italian Arms and Amn to Allied Units are entirely at your discretion and may be made without reference to this H.Q.
2. It is considered that a monthly statement as suggested in your para. 4 would be useful for reference purposes.
