Sir,

Return to G.M.
SD/13/47

I visited Lecce Station this morning. Train was due to leave at 0930 hrs but only 250 had arrived by then. Troops continued to arrive in batches & it was evident that the train would not leave before midday. I saw the General who commands LECCE Garrison & he assured me that 840 men would leave and in addition certain personnel who were escorting them. CCRR etc

Each man had 2 Blankets a packet of food chocolate etc & in addition 2 days rations were carried.

About 70% were in civilian clothes which in many cases were little more than rags. Boots in all cases were in a shocking state of repair.

I spoke to some of the men who were quite cheerful & confident that they would be clothed on arrival.

Question. Does P.B.S. ^{realise} the number of men who will require clothing & boots. Many of these men have found their way through the German lines, others have been at home on indefinite leave & been taken away a few days before Easter - a big festival in this country

I understand - I feel it is very damaging to moral and the Italian attitude towards the Allies if there is chaos, no accommodation, no clothing, on their arrival.
