This HQ has been informed that v.e.f. 7 May/45 there will be established in Rome a censorship Unit to be known as "Censura Centrale Militare, Rome".

This will enable mail to be distributed direct by P.M. 3800 from Rome and should lead as stated in your above quoted letter to a speeding up of the Postal Services.

The question of opening a more advanced censorship unit to deal with the newly liberated areas in the North will be taken up by LMIA with AFHQ. You are requested to forward your recommendations as to the most suitable locality having in mind the future organization of the Italian Army Postal Services in the North.

1. Herewith translation of Draft Order drawn up by this Office for the signature of General Ronco, Chief of Staff of the Italian Army.
2. Following the final approval of the plan for an Italian military press censorship organisation, the Italian General Staff somewhat hastily sent out orders mobilising forthwith all the '45 Officers and 15 E.M. authorised under the new establishment. Capt. Del Mare, Chief of our Italian section, immediately went round to the War Office and explained that we wished this establishment to serve as a pool, upon which we can draw for personnel as our commitments grow with the liberation of North Italy.
3. The enclosed Draft Order provides for the immediate appointment of Officers in towns now under Italian Government jurisdiction, and publishing daily papers.
4. Reference para (4) of the Order, it has been thought advisable, even at the cost of a few days' delay, to bring the new officers up to Rome. Here they will have the opportunity to see how the whole system functions, the procedure for censorship of news agencies and the radio network, censorship of provincial correspondents' telephoned stories, etc. They will also come into personal contact with all members of this office. Finally, they will go to their duty stations. It is then hoped that the officers destined for Bari, Palermo and Cagliari, after a short period of instruction by the Allied officers at present stationed there, will be able to release these three officers for duty further north.
