REPORT on MOVEMENT Serial No. ED.2293/16

On the 26 Feb. 150 Italians were ordered to move from Afragola Camp to entrain at Casoria Station at 1100hours. The numbers were to be made up by 75 men from No.7 Coy and 75 men from No.8 Coy, and they were ordered to parade at 0900hours. Owing to the losses of personnel in previous movements, the British Cadre undertook to entrain these men. At 0900hours No. 8 Coy paraded the required number of men with rations and blankets ready to move off. This was good. No.7 Coy, with a strength of 600 men, paraded 28 men only at 0915hours. The Coy Commander was not present. On demand for the remaining 47 men the answer was that they were not available from No.7 Coy. At this point Capt Clarke of MMIA (3-District) arrived and the O.C. British Cadre asked whether he should move off the men who were on parade and entrain them or whether he should endeavour to make up the full 150 men and the train should be delayed. Capt Clarke requested that the number be made up fully and he himself went to Casoria Station to delay the train. At 0930hours the men of No.8 Coy moved off to Casoria Station complete, and at 1050hours the numbers of No.7 Coy were made up by drawing men from other Coys. This was done by the British Lieut. actually going to the Coy lines and getting men and bringing them back himself. By this time the Commander of No.7 Coy was on parade. He had no authority and had constantly to be fetched back from his tent to take charge. At 1050hours this Parade moved off to Casoria Station. In the meantime the RTO had had to use the engine of the train for other purposes. All the men were entrained and the full complement of 150 finally left Casoria Station at 1700hours.

The Commander of No.7 Coy has been adversely reported on as at no time did he show the slightest initiative and had no power of command whatsoever.

(Reference conversation CLARK - MAXWELL of 10 February)

1. On 9 February, from a draft of 700 men ordered forward from AFRAGOLA Camp, only 320 left with the train. The reason given by the Camp was that, although 700 men had been warned the previous evening, only 537 could be found on the morning of departure, and of these a further 217 absented themselves either on the way to the station or at the station itself.
2. Representations have been made to the Camp from this office on two previous occasions (G2/A of 23 Jan and SD/2 of 1 Feb.) when deficiencies have been reported. Every time the reply has been that, until an impenetrable wire fence is constructed round the Camp, it will be impossible to keep men in overnight, or to prevent them from absenting themselves when warned for a draft. It is understood that the newly appointed British Cadre is making this its priority task.
3. At the same time, it is very obvious that the Camp Staff has hitherto done very little towards disciplining and controlling the men, and has made the most of any difficulties that existed. Their attitude towards these deficiencies is one of hopeless resignation in the fact of the inevitable.
4. Major Adamson, who commands the new British Cadre, has some very definite plans for solving these problems. At present however he is handicapped by uncertainty over his position. He states that his W.E. has not yet been approved and that, beyond orders to go to work in the Camp, he has had no directive on his duties there.
5. If the sending forward of reinforcements is to be guaranteed and transport space is not to be wasted, it is very necessary that definite instructions and support should be given to the British Cadre.

Reference my G2/A of 25 Jan.

1. Para. 5 of the a/m letter requested you to report on the steps you had taken to ensure that the irregularities mentioned therein should not recur. No reference to this was made in your reply, No. 306/46 of 25 Jan.
2. On 31 Jan you were ordered to entrain 1000 reinforcements at 1000 hours at CASORIA Station. Of these only 859 departed, the rest having presumably absented themselves between the camp and the station. Furthermore the RTO complained to this office that the train was delayed an hour by the disorderly conduct of the men both on the road and in the station.
3. Since it appears that your method of preparing drafts, marching them to the Station and supervising their entraining is unsatisfactory, the attached instructions are forwarded for compliance on the occasion of all future departures of drafts.

GEORGE D. SMITH, JR

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE CONDUCTING OF DRAFTS TO CASORIA STATION

1. When a draft has been ordered to entrain at CASORIA Station, the Camp Commandant will appoint a senior officer as Entraining Officer. This officer will report for instructions to the RTO half an hour before the draft is due at the station, and will be responsible for seeing that all the RTO's orders regarding entraining and discipline in the station are obeyed. He will not leave the station until the train has left. He will have a senior NCO and two Carabinieri to assist him.
2. All drafts, before leaving Camp, will be formed into parties of 100. Each party will be commanded by a Conducting Officer, who will be assisted by another officer (to march in the rear of the party), and not less than 5 NCOs.
3. Conducting Officers will be responsible for marching their parties in good order to the station. They will halt their parties outside the station and report to the Entraining Officer for instructions. They will not leave the station or dismiss their NCOs without orders from the Entraining Officer.
4. The Entraining Officer will not allow men to fall out either outside the station or on the platform. He will see that they are marched into the train and he will not allow any man to leave the train once he has entered it. He will employ as many of the Conducting Officers and NCOs as he requires to keep good order and supervise the train until it leaves the station.

Commandant AFRAGOLA Camp

Copy to: Land Forces Sub Comm. A.C. (M.M.I.A.) L
MMIA LO 3 District
227 Division

1. On orders from HQ MMIA this office arranged with you that 218 specialist personnel for GEBANO and 84 NCO's for ORVITO should travel with No. 1 GT Coy, leaving AFRAGOLA Camp at 0900 hours on 22 January. You later reported that none of these had left.
2. On 23 January, other vehicles reported at AFRAGOLA Camp, to collect the 84 a/m NCO's. You later reported that only 43 were sent off.
3. On both of these occasions not only were orders not complied with, but valuable vehicle space was wasted and urgently needed reinforcements failed to go forward.
4. This office gave you notice of these orders four (4) days before the men were due to move, so that you could have considered and made arrangements to overcome the difficulties that you reported afterwards as the reasons why they were not sent off.
5. Please forward to this office a report on the disciplinary action you have taken against those responsible for these irregularities and on the steps you have taken to ensure that they do not occur again.
