COMMENT

ITALIAN ARMY RECRUITING CAUSES COMMUNIST ALARM.

Caller: Listen comrade, is URSIC there? Call him as I have something important to tell him.
Callee: URSIC is not here. I do not know where he is.
Caller: Could you tell me when recruiting began for the Italian Army?
Callee: No, I know nothing about it.
Caller: Take note of the following and give it to URSIC. Let him go over and see if he can find any proof of the calling up of recruits for the Italian Army. Do you know that in TRIESTE they have tried to recruit young men? Do you understand what I mean? This must be reported up there....to ALGER. He has some of the cards sent to the young men and has to take some of them with him.

DEMOCRATIZING THE ARMY

Caller:

Concerning the recent calling up of the classes born in 1924 and in 1925, the Youth Federation of BRGAMO held a meeting and passed a motion requesting an explanation from the Government for this decision. Moreover, they ask for a democratization of the Army, the recognition of internal soldiers control commissions, democratic election of internal soldiers, factory workers be given credit for their services rendered in the Army, and be reinstated into their former positions; and finally that Partisans be admitted into the Army. This is very interesting. As far as the Government crisis is concerned, the Provincial Congress of BRGAMO stands against Liberal and Conservative elements and has expressed the wish that insurrectional forces, represented by the C.L.N., seize the reins of the Government. Finally, with regard to the youth front, they ask for the intervention of the party's directory against MATTEOTTI SOLARI, and DI RIPPETTO (2). The political report has

Caller:

Concerning the recent calling up of the classes born in 1924 and in 1925, the Youth Federation of BERGAMO held a meeting and passed a motion requesting an explanation from the Government for this decision.

Moreover, they ask for a demoralization of the Army, the recognition of internal soldiers control commissions, democratically elected by soldiers.

They request the separation of reactionary officers and that factory workers be given credit for their services rendered in the Army, and be reinstated into their former positions; and finally that partisans be admitted into the Army.

Finally, with regard to the youth front, they ask for the intervention of the Party's directory against MATTEOTTI SOLARI, and DI RUPERTO (?). The political report has 3165 written by LOCATI and it is really good.

Callee:

Those people from BERGAMO are very good boys with a sound political judgement.

Caller:

LOCATI is 22, and he is a very sound young man.

FASCIST PRINCIPLES STILL PREVAIL IN THE ITALIAN ARMY SAYS WRITER

".....Just here among these men who fought on the frontlines, I always believed, to free Italy from the cruel invader and from his fascist accomplices. These persons boast to have done more than we did, ignoring what we have done; these soldiers of the Italian Liberation Corps, now prove more fascist than those who were executed by us....as for the time being they are not able to do anything else, they answer our songs with their hymn: 'Gloria alla patria'....that our dear comrades have to be despised and were stupid. They really are the former fascists, who in the late Italian army had a pay of L.30 a day, while a soldier only received 5 lire. Yesterday evening they confessed that: '80% of us are convinced fascists - they said - and we shall never change our mind; you perillians 'll have to pay for it later on'. Do you understand? They will never change their mind! They are like their comrades of the Republican Folgore, and we treated them as brothers who came to free us. How we were betrayed! No doubt, if this letter goes through the Censorship you will never read it,....the people must not know their enemies, they must not be misled. They will be ready to suffer the people's misfortune."

UNFAVOURABLE COMMENT ON ITALIAN MILITARY SERVICE

".....As for myself, after finishing my school-education, I was called to arms before I was able to arrange my future life. Now I have been leading this dirty nomadic life for five long years, besides within the last two years I passed through the most difficult conditions of life, destruction and hunger. When I believed that everything had finished and I would be allowed to begin a new life, I find myself still forced to remain here to continue this fruitless and disgusting career. What can we do when we return home after spending the best years of our life in military service? What shall be our future? All our difficulties are due to our patriotic sentiment to serve the Fatherland while others have remained at home to profiteer from questionable enterprises. You can well realize that we are not enthusiastic about our future. Also, you must understand that we are allotted a remuneration which is less in amount than that paid to an ordinary street-cleaner. They tell us that the State's financial condition is poor, but we would like to reply, if the State cannot pay us adequately why are we not discharged from military service and returned home? This is the reward paid to us by a Government which had called us its best citizens....."

APPLICATION FOR ENLISTMENT OF AN ITALIAN OFFICER WHO WAS A

MEMBER OF THE FASCIST REPUBLICAN ARMY

"I'll probably make an application for enlistment, which nevertheless will probably not be accepted, since, during the German occupation; with 95% of the GENOA officers, I took an oath to the U.N.U.C.I. for the fascist Republic, in order to avoid retaliations and deportation. Those who were lucky to be in Southern Italy after the Armistice are now considered heroes, whilst we are but renegades."

Miei cari forse nelle mie lettere noterete molto patriottismo ma attribuitelo alle grandi sofferenze sostenute e al grande odio che si nutre verso il nemico.

Noi ieri in forma solenne abbiamo festeggiato il 23° Anniversario della fondazione dell'Armata Rossa che si batte oggi valorosamente per la libertà di tutti i popoli soggiogati. Insieme a noi gridate anche voi: «Viva l'Armata Rossa, Viva il suo eroico Condottiere Compagno Stalin, Morte al Fascismo, libertà al popolo».

Miei cari sono ormai 19 mesi che combatto vittoriosamente per questo grande scopo, contro il fascismo, sono e siamo decisi noi tutti di combattere fino a che questo non sia scomparso completamente nella nostra terra e nelle terre gemiche. Vedete, non occorrono eccedeme, non occorre l'eccessivo coltura. Nella lotta ci siamo forgiati nella lotta cerchiamo i nostri diritti, nella lotta avremo la ricompensa.

SMALL-FOX CASES HALT REPATRIATION

A few days ago repatriation of military personnel started, but shortly afterwards it was stopped because of two cases of small-pox. The vaccine arrived from Italy, and all who are to be repatriated must first get their injections.

Tomorrow will see it start again. There are not many large ships coming, but other naval means are arriving to take us to Italy. They carry about 1000 persons at a time. They arrive twice a week. We are about 300,000 civilian and military.

Il rimpatrio pochi giorni fa era incominciato per i militari, ma poi subito fu sospeso, perché è stato verificato 2 casi di vaiolo, ma poi subito è venuta la vaccinazione dell'Italia e adesso ogni rimpatriante deve fare la vaccinazione e domani ricominciano di nuovo il rimpatrio, ma però non è che vengono delle navi grandi, ma bensì vengono mezzi da sbarco che ne portano sì e no un migliaio alla volta, e vengono due volte alla settimana, quindi qui gli italiani fra militari, militari e civili ne siamo circa 300,000.

On the 26th I went to the Commando in BUGOJNO to inform myself and they answered me, because of lack of men and also because near your Commando there are fascist bandits, we can't send you, but as soon a Brigade arrives to clean that zone you will be sent to Italy.

So let us hope that we may see each other at least next month. In the meanwhile as soon as I returned to PROZOR I wrote to the Italian Commando in Ragusa, which is there for our repatriation.

We inform the above mentioned Command about the forgotten existence in PROZOR (Bosnia) of a certain number of Italians, who have no other scope of life, than to return to Italy and their families. We are as follows:

42 in PROZOR, 8 in GORNJI VAKUF, 4 in BUGOJNO, depending of the comanda mjesta and all together depending of the Podrucje (provincja) JAJCE. - Until now all our steps here and there have been in vain, we got only evasive answers.

As we heard of this Command in RAGUSA, we are writing to you, with the hope that at least Italians should take interest in us.

UNEMPLOYMENT PROBLEM DUE TO THE FINANCIAL QUESTION

"We foresee extensive unemployment upon the repatriation of ex-prisoners and the emigrants from Africa. Work, however, doesn't lack, since many towns must be entirely rebuilt. But nothing will be achieved unless our currency acquires a definite value, since trade and financial question have been paralysed for a while. Besides we wonder what has been the result of the BRETTON WOODS Conference about world monetary questions, the decisions of which were to have been carried into effect during the time of the reconstruction of all the countries. But all these plans have failed."

JUGOSLAV REPRISALS AGAINST ITALIANS FOR DEMONSTRATIONS IN ITALY
(Trans.)

I am the commander of an Italian work Battalion (about 400 workers) and we have been collaborating with the Yugoslav Partisans for eight (8) months. We work on the home front of Yugoslavia. Yet our actual situation is most critical, because of the controversies over Trieste and Istria. You in Italy are demonstrating and we pay for it.

The stupid citizens should understand this, but unfortunately the demonstrations continue and they reach the point of outrage!!! God save us! I wrote to many military Authorities in Rome explaining the case, but have never received a reply. In Belgrade there doesn't exist any diplomatic Italian Representatives, that is the worst.

APPRECIATION & CENSORSHIP REPORT NO. 70

PER PERIOD 1-15 JAN 45 INCLUSIVE

Part 6 - Italian Troops with 15 Army Group

1. MORALE - NEW PERSPECTIVES. Mail was examined from the following Combat Groups - Cassino, Frosinone, L'Aquila, Legnano and Polvere; also from 230 Divisions and 4th Divisions.

Although some writers show a good and patriotic spirit, a restless desire for release from the front appears to be steadily increasing.

(a) A. G. G.: "We are guarding the sacred border of our land - a hot sign of the good opinion our troops have earned from the Allies in just over a year of war, fought hard and generally under really difficult conditions; of joy, because it confirms the certainty that the boundaries of our land will remain as they were." - (Regg. Veneto).

(b) A. G. G.: "I have recently returned from imprisonment in Greece, but immediately on arriving in Italy I took up arms again and fought those whom I had always hated. Today I am satisfied. I believe that the Italian blood shed in common cause with that of the Allies should compensate for past mistakes which have ruined us." - (87 Regg. Frosinone).

(c) Regg. Veneto: "Morale would be high if it were not for the justifiable anxiety about release. I have done continuous service since 16 March 1938. I suffered, as I know that our country needed by sacrifice, but now it is enough. Why are they putting off sending us home?" - (88 Regg. Veneto).

(d) A. G. G.: "I am definitely going mad. The war has been finished a long time, but still there is no talk of sending us home - if they do not make up their minds within a few days, I shall decide for myself. The partisans and the internees have been sent home, whereas we who have done our duty are not considered." - (Quart. Gen. 15 Legnano).

2. MORALE - OLD PERSPECTIVES. No change. A few writers show pride in their share in the defeat of Germany, but the chief preoccupation of the majority is again their desire to be demobilized and to return to their homes.

(a) Regg. Veneto: "I have heard with pleasure that someone actually thinks of the Italian soldier, who with his contribution, be it ever so small, will give back strength and credit to his country. We shall rebuild this our Italy . . . and we will defend her as if someone were trying to cut off a portion of our own bodies." - (9 or 11 Legnano).

(b) A. G. G.: "Our sacrifices receive no recognition, no praise. See what

- sign of the good opinion our troops have earned from the Allies in just over a year of war, fought hard and generally under really difficult conditions; of joy, because it confirms the certainty that the boundaries of our land will remain as they were." - (Rag Nedo).
- (b) A. NCO: "We have recently returned from imprisonment in Greece, but immediately on arriving in Italy I took up arms again and fought those whom I had always hated. Today I am satisfied. I believe that the Italian blood shed in common cause with that of the Allies should compensate for past mistakes which have ruined us." - (67 Rag Vent).
- (c) Rag Vent: "Loreto would be high if it were not for the justifiable anxiety about release. I have done continuous service since 18 March 1936. I suffered, as I knew that our country needed my sacrifice, but now it is enough. May are they putting off sending me home?" - (68 Rag Vent).
- (d) A. Spr: "I am definitely going mad. The war has been finished a long time, but still there is no talk of sending us home - if they do not make up their minds within a few days, I shall decide for myself. The partisans and the internees have been sent home, whereas we who have done our duty are not considered." - (Quart Can Up Log-nano).

2. MOBILE - OLD PUNISHMENTS. No change. A few writers show pride in their share in the defeat of Germany, but the chief preoccupation of the majority is again their desire to be demobilised and to return to their homes.
- (a) Rag Vent: "I have heard with pleasure that someone actually thinks of the Italian soldier, who with his contribution, be it ever so small, will give back strength and credit to his country. We shall rebuild this our Italy . . . and we will defend her as if someone were trying to cut off a portion of our own bodies." - (9 Gr All Police).
- (b) A. WO: "Our sacrifices receive no recognition, no praise. See what a condition we are reduced to after giving all that was in our power to give to our distressed country." - (507 Stg Guardia).
- (c) A. NCO: "Military life is going on just the same and I can assure you that nobody can understand our state of mind. . . . It (only, the Minister for War will make up his mind once and for all to release us from this great torment."

3. TRIESTE. A determination to resist any future attempts to sever Trieste from Italian sovereignty is vehemently expressed by numbers of writers.
- For example:
- A. Offr: "Trieste - do not doubt that all Italians are firmly resolved to fight for it, just as our fathers fought. We of the 'Gromma' feel that diplomacy has tripped up there, and we have had to stand by, but we are only waiting to move, and our only aim, cost what it may, sacrifice what we must, is to plant in Trieste our Tricolour. We all, without exception, dream of that."

4. INQUIRY. According to personnel of Combat Group Folgore, the local inhabitants in the neighborhood of Trento are proving unfriendly to Italian troops.

(a) An Offer: "I am in the same place where I was in 1938-39, it is more German than formerly as there is no longer any trace of the people who were Italian." The Germans had them all transported while the region was under their control during the Republican era."

(b) A NCO: "The people here are dressed in German costume. A few of them are pleasant, but the others hate us."

(c) A Sgt: "We always stay in our villa, as it is more than our skin is worth to go for a walk."

5. POSTAL SERVICES. A number of complaints of delayed letters are again encountered.

(a) An Offer: "While the Americans get replies from America in a week, we receive letters a month old. . . . I think negligence is largely responsible." - (Sgt Grupo 516 Folgore).

(b) A WO: "The postal service functions in a most scandalous manner. I cannot understand how it can take a postcard a month to travel 2 or 3 hundred km."

APPRECIATION & CENSORSHIP REPORT NO. 69

FOR PERIOD 16-31 MAY 45 INCLUSIVE.

Part C - Italian Troops with 15 Army Group.

1. MORALE - NEW FORMATIONS. Mail was examined from the following Combat Groups - Cremona, Priuli, Legnano and Folgore, also from 234 Divisions, Nucleo Avanzato Vice Comando 242, and Comando 240 Divisions.

A patriotic determination to devote every effort to the work of rehabilitating Italy is expressed by many writers. There are, however, numbers of men whose morale appears to be falling rapidly. Uncertainty with regard to official demobilization plans seems to be a major source of discontent; the sight of numerous young Italians in civilian clothes is an aggravating factor, and it is evident that unless some hope is given of a comparatively early release from the forces there may be a considerable amount of desertion.

(a) A Pte: "The war in Italy is over and we must now initiate work of reconstruction to restore our country and place her on the same level as the Great Powers. All our capacity for work must be devoted to this arduous task." - (Combat Gp Cremona).

(b) An OR: "You cannot imagine how low my morale is. They talk of sending us on leave, but say nothing about our discharge. I am not the only one to feel fed up about it, we all do who see youths living quietly at home while we still serve." - (Combat Gp Legnano).

(c) A Pte: "I am expecting to get leave, and when the time comes for me to return from leave to this accursed mob I shall not do so. My life is being ruined - the best part of it has now gone." - (Combat Gp Priuli).

2. MORALE - OLD FORMATIONS. There are those who refer proudly to their share in the victory over Germany, but the chief preoccupation of the majority seems to be a longing for demobilization in order that they may return to their homes and pick up the threads of civilian life.

(a) A NCO: "The war is over at last, but nothing has yet been said about sending us home, and as far as I'm concerned until that happens the war might just as well still be going on. We want to get away from military life for good and all."

(b) An OR: "A strange feeling seems to fill us now that the war is over. We seem to have no desire to do anything. First of all, there seems no reason to keep in the service as many men who have every right to go home; secondly, we see and feel a kind of passive resistance on the part of high command towards any solution of so many problems that anyone with any common sense . . . would find extremely simple. And do you know why this is? Because they want to keep an artificial organization going, with resulting high rates of pay, just for a swarm of high-ranking officers who would otherwise have to go home and work for official demobilization plans seems to be a major source of discontent; the sight of numerous young Italian in civilian clothes is an aggravating factor, and it is evident that unless some hope is given of a comparatively early release from the forces there may be a considerable amount of desertion.

(a) A pte: "The war in Italy is over and we must now initiate work of reconstruction to restore our country and place her on the same level as the Great Powers. All our capacity for work must be devoted to this arduous task." - (Combat Op Grimsby).

(b) An Offr: "You cannot imagine how low my morale is. They talk of sending us on leave, but say nothing about our discharge. I am not the only one to feel fed up about it, we all do who see youths living quietly at home while we still serve." - (Combat Op Legnano).

(c) A pte: "I am expecting to get leave, and when the time comes for me to return: first leave to this assumed mob I shall not do so. My life is being ruined - the best part of it has now gone." - (Combat Op Trivoli).

2. MORALE - OLD POPULATIONS. There are those who refer proudly to their share in the victory over Germany, but the chief preoccupation of the majority seems to be a longing for demobilization in order that they may return to their homes and pick up the threads of civilian life.

(a) A MCO: "The war is over at last, but nothing has yet been said about sending us home, and as far as I'm concerned until that happens the war might just as well still be going on. We want to get away from military life for good and all."

(b) An Offr: "A strange feeling seems to fill us now that the war is over. We seem to have no desire to do anything. First of all, there seems no reason to keep in the service so many men who have every right to go home; secondly, we see and feel a kind of passive resistance on the part of high command towards any solution of so many problems that anyone with any common sense . . . would find extremely simple. And do you know why this is? Because they want to keep an artificial organization going, with resulting high rates of pay, just for a swarm of high-ranking officers who would otherwise have to go home and work for a living like anyone else. And meanwhile time passes, day after day, and we get no chance to begin rebuilding our lives, although we who have given our best to our country have that right."

3. TRISTO. Great anxiety regarding the present situation in Trieste is frequently encountered in the mail.

(a) An Offr: "Yesterday I returned from Trieste. Conditions are very bad, one only sees gloomy and preoccupied faces, Yugoslavs armed to the teeth roam the streets. We don't know what will happen when the miserable amount of food is exhausted. An Italian demonstration was suppressed with blood, many died. In the city one only sees Yugoslav and Allied flags on public buildings."

(b) An Offr: "Physically I am well, but am morally depressed by the happenings in Gorizia and in the other cities of Ven. Giulia. Imagine a band of cynics doing what they like in a civilized city. Tito's forces, the new Slav army, pride of Yugoslavia, turn people out of their houses and put them in prison because they are Italians."

- (c) An Officer: "I cannot describe the impression I got when I entered Trieste - so think only that I wept. Everywhere there were bands of poor, ignorant, uneducated wretches - they call them Tito's army. They all have the necessary firearms. . . . They have the idiotic ideals of ridgers from the lowest part of Africa; if they find a trinket or a bit of trash - a bone or a tin, an iron ring or an old shoe, they hang it around their necks, ankles or wrists. . . . They terrify the civilians, who dare not defend themselves in any way because any demonstration by an Italian is answered with a shot. They are trying to kill all Italian feeling. . . . In Rome it is more or less the same - or maybe a little worse. I cannot believe that such a state of affairs can last - that civilized and intelligent peoples like the British and Americans, who have fought a war to bring liberty and justice, can permit such an unjust scene to continue. I cannot believe that the other Italians will renounce their brothers in Giulia and let them be trampled on by the Slavs."

4. CONDITIONS IN NORTH ITALY. Troops in the North constantly refer to the low cost of living in their area, and to the absence of damage to property.

- (a) Rank unstated: "It's really grand - with very little money you can eat what you like - just imagine white bread at 4 lire the kilo, beef at 15, grain at 2.50. In fact on 10 lire a day you can do well." - (24 Reg Comado).
- (b) A Pto: "Hero life is almost normal - just imagine, you can get lunch in a restaurant for 50 lire. . . . The people in these parts have never known bread rationing all through the war." - (240 Div).
- (c) An Officer: "In the city public services have never ceased to function. The railways are already running. Flat works are busy, and the engineers of Milan reckon on restoring the province in 3-5 years. The Patriots of the North have really been a art." - (134 Reg Art).

5. POLITICS. The cessation of hostilities seems to have resulted in the beginning of a renewed interest in politics among the troops.

- (a) Rank unstated: "I am very disappointed not to have taken part in the May Day demonstrations. Comrades, do not seek to have pity on those comrades who for well on twenty-four years have dragged us in the mud. . . . Do not try to fight in the dark, but with open eyes, and have no pity for those who showed us no pity. Destroy - or else we shall never have peace."
- (b) A Pto: "The opportunity and surroundings are particularly suitable. . . and we have therefore decided to form a new fascism, without fighting - republicanism, if you like. We already have some members, have decided on the salute."
- (c) Rank unstated: "To-day we (24 Reg Inf) had a visit from the Prince of Piedmont. What a cheek! He was greeted with whistles and shouts

- (c) Rank unstated: "To-day we (24 Regt Inf) had a visit from the Prince of Piedmont. What a cheek! He was greeted with whistles and shouts intended for the House of Savoy. He did not even finish his inspection."
- (d) An C.O.: "In my village I learnt that life had been impossible these last few months because of the continual persecution by the 'Black Brigades'. Many people were tortured and killed and I myself saw, only too clearly, the blood-spattered bullet wall against which my cousin was shot."

6. POSTAL SERVICES. Complaints of delayed mail are fairly frequent.

7. SECURITY & CENSORSHIP. The usual technical infringements of censorship regulations continue. Security remains good.

"We are now struggling for our lives against our new masters, especially our Eastern and Western neighbors, and against moral and material ruin which might bring us to a civil war. Meanwhile S. They all only agree on hatred for us; everyone is endeavouring to cut off from ITALY a part of its territory. Our dear "Latin sister" has even requested one million Croat workers for 4 years, as revenge "in kind" for crimes committed, a return to slavery. That's only the beginning! The nightmare of war will end, its destructions, ruins, killings will cease, our prisoners of war and internees will return to their families, Northern and Southern ITALY will unite once again and the foreigners will at last leave us alone amongst our ruins. Then we'll learn the terms of the shameful armistice; we'll know how much we paid and we have still to pay as occupational charges and for reconstruction; we'll learn the fate of our colonies and especially that of some Italian regions, eagerly coveted by other nations.

Known that, after the so-called victory, British aspiration of a world domination will be shattered. He's endeavouring to create a safety zone around the United Kingdom and the line to India, demolishing all obstacles he may meet on his way. That's the end we shall find! But Asia and especially the Far East, will be the danger spot. There STALIN will agitate for MANGUKHO, CONIA and something else whilst England is again relying on GREECE and TURKEY to prevent the Russian manoeuvre. But this time perhaps she will not succeed.

At S. FRANCISCO another war is being prepared, this between RUSSIA and ENGLAND.

UNFAVORABLE COMMENTS ON ARMY CAMP CONDITIONS

"I have been back at Camp 803 so called "dei quattro venti" (four winds) zone for two days now. Here life is discouraging and purposeless. This camp is unequipped and completely isolated from the rest of humanity. It's like living in a concentration camp instead of a camp of free Italians. Food is poor and scarce, equipment also poor. Imagine, I haven't been able to get my clothes and shoes yet. To top it all, every company is controlled by a British sergeant, so you can imagine how much influence a commander and his subaltern officers have over Italian military personnel. As I have already told you, at present I am resting, and I'm not in command of the unit. For my own personal dignity, I refuse to be controlled or guided in commanding the unit, by a foreign non-commissioned officer. I fought the Germans because I hated them, and now seeing the ways and systems of the Allies a feeling of contempt towards them is forming in my heart. Poor Italian people, conquered, illuded and looked on with contempt! If I sympathized with the democratic countries while I was a rebel in the lines that sympathy is now slowly changing into nausea. If Germany has committed great political and moral crimes

"I have been back at Camp 803 so called 'dei quattro venti' (four winds) zone for two days now. Here life is discouraging and purposeless. This camp is unequipped and completely isolated from the rest of humanity. It's like living in a concentration camp instead of a camp of free Italians. Food is poor and scarce, equipment also poor, imagine, I haven't been able to get my clothes and shoes yet. To top it all, every company is controlled by a British sergeant, so you can imagine how much influence a commander and his subaltern officers have over Italian military personnel. As I have already told you, at present I am resting, and I'm not in command of the unit. For my own personal dignity, I refuse to be controlled or guided in commanding the unit, by a foreign non-commissioned officer. I fought the Germans because I hated them, and now seeing the ways and systems of the Allies a feeling of contempt towards them is forming in my heart. Poor Italian people, conquered, illuded and looked on with contempt! If I sympathized with the democratic countries while I was a rebel in the lines that sympathy is now slowly changing into nausea.

If GERMANY has committed great political and psychological errors regarding ITALY which helped mature the events of 8 September, ENGLAND regarded peerless in diplomacy and in the knowledge of all European character, is now well on the same road of psychological incomprehension...."

- Il chiamato - Comandante, volevo domandarvi per quell'ordine di movimento dei reparti del 4° gruppo. Ha parlato col generale Gaeta?
- Il chiamante - Gli Alleati vogliono che la caccia venga spostata da Isernia a Lecce ed il bombardamento nell'aeroporto dell'Urbe.
- Il chiamato - Gli equipaggi preferivano rimanere ai loro posti fino in settembre, dato che stanno bene. Ma è una zona non malarica.
- Il chiamante - Perché non mi hai fatto sapere questo prima? Ora gli Alleati hanno dato l'ordine ed ora non so come si può fare. Io cercherò di poter sistemare qualcosa. Per il bombardamento si potrà pure provvedere per un campo a Viterbo.
- Il chiamato - Cerchiamo di accontentare gli equipaggi.

APPRECIATION & CENSORSHIP REPORT NO. 63

FOR PERIOD 1-15 MAY 45 INCLUSIVE

Part G - Italian Troops with 15 Army Group

1. MORALE - NEW POSITIONS. Mail examined from: Combat Groups Cremona, Friuli, Mantova, Legnano, Folgore; 234 Division; Nucleo Avansato Vice Comando 242.

The final liberation of Italy and the part played in this achievement by Italian troops have raised the spirits of the great majority to a high level. Nevertheless, the realization that their country must now face the difficulties and toil of reconstruction is a sobering factor emphasized by numbers of writers. The belief that their own sacrifices in the common cause are not properly recognized by many of their fellow countrymen is expressed by some men in resentful terms.

(a) A HQ: "I have a right to feel proud, for I took an active part in this struggle. There were many, though, who would not answer the call of this poor country. . . . I thank God I was in it. All the stresses and hardships are now forgotten. We rejoice in our victory. But we remember that we must all work on, and must take a hand in the reconstruction that lies ahead."

(b) Rank untitled: "The welcome given us by the liberated people was enough to fill us with enthusiasm and emotion. They were very happy to know that they were free at last, and no longer under that continual fear - especially the men - of being deported to Germany."

(c) An OR: "The soldiers of Italy are the best soldiers in the world. Even the 'foreigners' say so, but the Italian people do not know it, and do not care, as usual."

2. MORALE - OLD POSITIONS. Although victory has done much to raise the general level of morale, and although it is hoped that the efforts of Italian units will bear fruit in the future treatment of their country by the Allies, there appears to be some uneasiness regarding the future of the nation. Bitterness against civilian indifference is also evident in the mail of these formations.

(a) An OR: "I have taken part in various battles and been witness to the liberation of many cities and provinces. The reception that they gave us makes one cry, when they know one for an Italian. It is an experience which I would not have missed for anything in the world, and I continually have cause to be thankful that I did not remain back in Rome."

(b) An OR: "Our Division has conducted itself far more gloriously than was

- (b) An OR: "Our Division has conducted itself far more gloriously than was reported in the paper. Our sacrifices in blood should make the Allies consider us no longer as a conquered people but as friends."
- (c) An OR: "There is something that worries us. What is going to happen to our country? Will its national integrity be respected? Let us hope that our contributions to the war against Germany will bear fruit and that the old Italian town of Trieste will be kept as such."
- (d) A NCO: "No civilians ever daign to come and see us - the many who sacrificed interests, family, to go and fight for the General Good, to be treated in this way now! We ask for nothing; but we thought that those of the Home Front would remember their own countrymen who were in action. I feel that soon our jealously guarded arms, which we used during the Underground days, will be used against those who dare to turn the cold shoulder to us now."

3. GENERAL. The great events that have taken place during the current period have caused minor topics to be almost entirely ignored in favour of those dealt with in the preceding paragraphs.

TRANSLATION

FROM: Civil Censorship Group

REF: Rome/T/14755

SUBJECT: Censored Phone Conversation.

Caller: - Good evening, ~~Pettiti~~; this is Bordoni. ~~General Piccini~~
The ~~Minister of the Interior~~ General Piccini, who is in Albania, has been here at the Ministry and pointed out some questions regarding the arrival of the "Gramsci" Brigade which will have to return to the country fully armed with personal and regimental weapons but must be disarmed upon arrival. Now then, it is possible that there may be some bad feeling and undisciplined acts at the time of the disarming so it will therefore be necessary to carry it out with a certain delicacy. It would be necessary therefore to send a high ranking officer to the spot who could explain to these people, beforehand, the reason for the disarmament, in such a way as not to cause them to think.....Persuasive measures would be necessary therefore.

Callee: - I don't have any high ranking officers ^{here} ~~there~~, because H.E. is still away and I have nobody, we could send the Major of the Garrison Commandant, Col. Acanfora.....

Caller: - All these people are coming back armed and from what I have heard from that officer, at the time of disarming there could arise, at least as far as one could surmise, a certain amount of discontent and it would therefore be necessary to do something about it Callee: - Fine! Tell me then, what are we to do? These are merely words and if they have any intentions?

Caller: - We shall have to do what was done with the "Garibaldi" Brigade.....

Callee: - Yes, but on that occasions there were Ministers, generals, princes, etc., and at the moment all that I can send to receive them is a Major, the highest ranker I've got. 12.
Who is in command of the brigade?

Declassified E.O. 12356 Section 3.3/NND No. 785020

Caller: - An ex-Sergeant is in command! he is concerned with solving the question of the ranks given to his men. in short he wants confirmation given to the ranks given to the men.....Now then, there is another question: together with the "Gramsci" Brigade there will be returning 2 batteries of the 41st. "Florence" Artillery Regt., who will be escorting the Regimental standard. From what I have been told these 2 Batteries form the only disciplined, spirited, and uniform, Italian military units and it would therefore be necessary to give them the most festive and solemn reception possible, also because of the reception to be given to the Standard.

Callee: - In respect of the "Gramsci", could you send here, by air ~~fr~~ from Rome, a speaker, a military or civilian propagandist who could persuade these people who are arriving.

Caller: - The brigade should be repatriated today. The men of the "Gramsci" need to be told that the law applies to everybody the same and that with their repatriation, for the time being at least, they no longer belong to the Army and for that reason, not because of mistrust, they must hand over their weapons, which they will get back when they rejoin the Italian Army.

Callee: - This is an argument which should be put to them by a propagandist who was with them in Albania, which would put a different face on the matter. I shall tell the Garrison Commandant about it, he being the highest ranker at my disposal.

COMMENT

ITALIAN SOLDIERS MISTREATED BY YUGOSLAV PARTISANS

We are working at repairing bridges and the partisans will not let us leave until we finished these bridges; the most important of all is that we haven't enough to eat, and all the partisans command us. They send us from here to there, one tells us to go to one place and the other tells us to go to another, and one can't listen to everybody, and if I or one of my companions disobey, they point their rifles or pistols at us and shoot. We are forced to obey.

DISCONTENT OF ITALIAN SITUATION

We know that all the classes from 1910 up are mobilized, and it is certain that the Allies don't consider Italy as a co-belligerent and don't permit the formation of any Army. Also the Partisans get disarmed, when their work finishes and they liberate their territory. That I read personally in an Article, which reproduced the speech of a Communist Minister in Rome. And so we are a flock without a pastor, and there should be said something else that in the moment one can't say, which makes the situation of the flock more painful.

Si sa che dal 1910 in su le classi sono mobilitate quando poi è certo che gli Alleati non considerano l'Italia come co-belligerente e non permettono formazione di alcun esercito. Perfino i partigiani vengono disarmati quando la loro opera è cessata essendo liberata la località. Ciò ho letto personalmente un opuscolo riprodotto un discorso tenuto da un Ministro Comunista in Roma. E così via. Siamo insomma un branco di pecore senza pastore ed a ciò si dovrebbe aggiungere qualche altra cosa, che per momento deve essere taciuto, che rende la situazione del branco ancora più penosa.

Caller: Hello, General Branca?

Callee: Yes, who is it?

Caller: I am Major Cerico of the Ministry of War; I am calling in behalf of His Excellency the Minister Palermo who requests you to look over these charges from Vizzini, brought by Lt. Rizzo of the Royal Carabinieri, against Platania, Catalina and Verdine, accused of having promoted and held a meeting in a public place on March 25, 1945, at Vizzini.

Callee: Yes, all right.

Caller: Is that clear, General? It's about a meeting at the H.Q. of the Communist Party; they met there, and this Lieutenant reported them - instead of "at the H.Q. of the Communist Party" we can mention any place we like. His Excellency is particularly anxious to have these charges reviewed by you and would like you to get hold of this Lieutenant.

Callee: Tell His Excellency to leave it to me.

Caller: I will be back in Naples in 10 or 15 days; we are awaiting the return of His Excellency Amaltea who is conducting the last interrogations.

Callee: Very well. I shall reply by telephone.

Callee: Thank you, General, at your service.

Caller: - listen, last night we sent you a very urgent telegram with which I informed you that there arrived in Brindisi 991 men of the Glaucoi Division.

Caller: They are men who have come back from Albania; they arrived hungry and carried no food and we therefore sent an urgent telegram to the Secretariat of His ^{son} Excellency in order to have him direct that a stock of be created in Brindisi for these returning men; I am surprised that you did not yet receive this telegram.

Callee: Very well, I shall attend to it at once.

TranslationClearance work on Pantelleria

- Caller : We have received a letter from the mission which leads to the belief that there had been requested an authorization to send Italians to the island of Pantelleria. The mission replies that no military personnel can be sent to the island. The reply refers to letter 6387/03 of April 16th. Was this letter addressed to you too?
- Callee : It was addressed to SMIA (?) and says: "The personnel of this H.Q. sent to Pantelleria at the time for the rearrangement of material belonging to Italian military administration has completed its work on April 20th and returned to its station at once. The material was stored and entrusted to subordinate personnel on the island. The lack of personnel leads to the belief that the material will become unusable and will - if the rules concerning the conservation of explosives are not strictly adhered to - give rise to incidents endangering public safety. You may appoint two senior NCO's as IC's."
- Caller : The mission replied that no Army personnel must be sent to Pantelleria.
- Callee : They'll have to take the responsibility themselves for what may happen concerning the stocks of material, especially the explosives.
- Caller : The Ministry of War has not been approached concerning the matter.

Caller : Lt. Sbardella here. Who are you ?

Callee : Maj. Yennucci.

Caller : Good morning, Major. We have 1300 men here without Kits : we have absolutely nothing for them to wear.

Callee : Does this include also the battalions to be mustered for service up North ?

Caller : 500 are ready to go, but the frontier groups need fur-lined coats, nailed shoes, etc.; they will go up there wearing ordinary uniforms which, however, are not appropriate for high mountains.

Callee : They'll have to get along, because it is not possible to obtain what you are asking for.

Caller : We also need mess tins and canteens.

Callee : We don't have a single canteen.

- Il chiamante - Bisogna mettere in chiaro questo, che il Comando Territoriale non ha ancora l'idea di quelle che sono le sue attribuzioni e le nostre. In quanto alla pretesa che fanl(?) ed io dobbiamo procurare tutte le volte i viveri. In questa occasione si è lasciato sorprendere sebbene avesse avuto giorni prima preavviso dell'arrivo di questa gente.
- Il chiamato - Capito.
- Il chiamante - Sono stato ieri a Taranto, e Santa Teresa l'organizzazione del campo è ancora quella che era 10 giorni fa in quanto il comandante del campo, il comandante presidio ed io avevamo chiesto: filo telefonico, baracche, teli da tenda e non si è ancora fatto niente, perché quel comando non aveva ancora provveduto. Quei mille individui venuti dalla Albania dovranno fare una contumacia di 16 giorni per i casi di vaiolo.
- Il chiamato - Ma non è più vaiolo.
- Il chiamante - Non fa nulla. I 16 giorni di contumacia ci vogliono. Poi, l'arrivo degli altri è sospeso in quanto gli inglesi li vaccineranno

Il chiamato - Si.
Il chiamante - Qui parla il Maggiore Sibillo senti: qui ci segnalano che i "Raduci della Prigionia" rimpatriano con tre coperte. L'ufficiale che ci dà queste informazioni dice che gli Alleati hanno disposto che le tre coperte di ognuno che rimpatria devono essere tratteneute al "Centro Alloggi" per essere distribuite ai "Profughi". Being ill with malaria as are most of the Italians in

I had to hide my rank as an officer and assume that of

Conversation has already begun

Caller: what happened was, that Orlando, during a speech delivered at Palermo to the 6th Aosta Infantry Brigade, thought it advisable to send me a telegram, which I received complete, in which he also included the best wished of the Colonel Commanding. I don't know why, but while I received the telegram complete, and the Orbis and Ansa agencies gave it out complete, the Press only published half of it, censoring the second half I should like to know who the scoundrel was who censored it.....

Caltee: I know nothing about it, something to do with telegraphic censorship, perhaps.....

Caller: Well, how do you explain that I received it complete and Orbis and Ansa also gave it out complete?.....it's certainly something to do with Press censorship.

Caltee: That is if it hasn't been censored by the Sicilian High Commissioner, or.....

Caller: But where does the High Commissioner come in, when I repeat I received the telegram complete and the Rome Agencies also gave it out complete. They're all scoundrel... it's obvious that someone has done this beautiful piece of work, it's absolutely unworthy of an anti-fascist.... shameful.... preventing the press from publishing it... they've done it to me before and they're still doing it.

Caltee: On behalf of the Allies we have censored nothing therefore I'm not concerned with what others may have done. I've done nothing like it.

Caller: I've also telephoned Natalini on the matter.

Caltee: Good, well ask Natalini how the thing occurred, but don't take it up with me, Roberto.

Caller: To censor a telegram which the Press should have published.... cheats, scoundrels I don't want to mix Orlando up in the matter because that would displease me immensely.

Caltee: Send me this telegram so that I can look into the matter.... there is certainly someone who doesn't like you personally and has had this idea of harming you, but censoring doesn't come into it.....

Caller: Well, then????

Caltee: I regret that you think that it may have been I... Because this what happens when one wishes to censor something; it's the Minister of the Interior who turns round to the Allied Censor and says, "Don't publish this news"....

ITALIAN WORK WITHOUT PAY

I am again in Scutari with the SICELP. Before one worked with the Germans, and they paid us. Since their departure we work for the Partisans. Five months under them, and not a penny have we received for wages. They treat us like slaves. If the firm did not have food, we would now be in the middle of the street. As they don't help us, they would let us starve. I hope this misery ends soon.

Se la ditta non aveva un po' di viveri, adesso eravamo in mezzo ad una strada, poichè non vi fanno nessun aiuto ci avrebbero fatto morire, spero che finisca presto questa disgrazia.....

ITALIAN SOLDIERS MISREATED BY YUGOSLAV PARTISANS

We are working at repairing bridges and these partisans will not let us leave until we finished these bridges, the most important of all is that we don't have enough to eat, and all the partisans command us. They send us from here to there, one tells us to go one place & the other tells us to go to another, and one can't listen to everybody, and if one or one of my companions don't do as they say, they point their rifles or pistols and shoot. ARRIVAL OF REPATRIATED PERSONNEL

Il chiamante 1-C'è il generale Mannerini?

Il chiamato 1-No, signor Colonnello, non c'è. Il generale è al Nord. Sono il Ten.Col. Bordoni.

Il chiamante 1-Dunque, ieri sera sono sbarcati a Brindisi 17 ufficiali e 229 uomini. Per oggi sono previsti altri 1000 uomini. Di un po' Bordoni; è vero quello che dicono i giornali che prigionieri che stavano in Germania sono arrivati a Mantova?

Il chiamato 1- Sì, c'è stata una prima invasione.

Il chiamante 1- Come si prevedeva.

Il chiamato 1- Ne sono arrivati anche qui a Roma. Ce ne sono una ventina.

Il chiamante 1- Qui c'è Pinna che vuole Vallese.

Il chiamato 1- Sì, subito.

Il chiamante 2- Pronto Vallese, qui ieri sono sbarcati quegli uomini del "Gramsci" al comando del Maggiore Fantacci, ma sono stati bloccati perchè si sono verificati due casi di vaiolo. La Direzione di Sanità ora ha disposto per l'isolamento. Questi sono arrivati senza viveri per la giornata. Le autorità anglo-americane si dichiarano incompetenti. Ora tu dovresti chiedere alla MMIA per vedere cosa bisogna fare. Il capo della M.M.I.A. locale vorrebbe sciogliere i centri alloggi. L'ufficio del comintern ha Il chiamante - Allora, da dove provengono quei 791 uomini?

Il chiamato - Provengono dall'Albania e dalla Grecia ed una parte di essi è composta di civili.
Il chiamante - Ho capito. La Delegazione Trasporti, però, me li aveva segnalati come provenienti da Salonico....

RE DISARMING OF ITALIAN UNITS

Il chiamante - La Divisione Garibaldi è stata disarmata, ma egli ha parlato prima al Generale Manerini.
Il chiamato - Ad ogni modo
Il chiamante - Bisognerebbe sapere, sentire gli Alleati che cosa intendono fare.
Il chiamato - Io faranno loro
Il chiamante - Va bene, ma se accade qualche cosa ?
Il chiamato - L'altra volta gli ha parlato il generale Manerini.
Il chiamante - Ma c'era della gente satoravole e quello influisce anche moralmente.
Il chiamato - Secondo me si dovrebbe sentire gli Alleati se hanno intenzione di fermarli, e nel caso che manifestassero questa intenzione parlare a questi qui dicendo....
Il chiamante - Che c'è questo pericolo ?
Il chiamato - Sì, dato che l'altra volta all'arrivo della Divisione Garibaldi questa è stata disarmata, si dovrebbe chiedere se hanno la stessa intenzione per questi qui.

We are to form the 524th Btg. but the components are not here yet because they went home of their own accord. Suspicious characters, ex-convicts, Sardinians and Sicilians came to blows with knives yesterday, which resulted in one death and another dying. The recruits copy their elders.....They do as they please.....I worked for half an hour tidying up the rags that we used as covers during the night; they are filthy, probably full of lice, an inch thick straw mattress...."

COMPLAINTS ON NOT HAVING ITALIAN MILITARY MISSION IN BELGRADE

The French people who were here for a long time are leaving for Italy and I send you this letter through them..... Missions for nearly every foreign country have arrived except ours. I don't understand why, perhaps our Government has forgotten us? Who knows, perhaps they think that we don't need their help.....

RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN JUGOSLAVIA AND ITALY

I am still in Belgrade where the concentration of all the Itallians is carried out, as the relations between this Government and Italian Government are not very friendly, because of is it one could think of some restrictive measures concerning us, but we want to think with a bit of optimism and that is because of our repatriation.....I am pleased to verify nevertheless the small interest of our Government, all these Italians love their country more than ever and long to return home, so that we will be able to get together with our brothers to fight together against the enemy, who still treads our soil.-

Sono tuttora a Belgrado ove si sta effettuando il concentramento di tutti gli italiani; dati i rapporti poco amichevoli di questo Governo col Governo Italiano a cause dell'Italia si potrebbe pensare a qualche misura restrittiva a nostro riguardo, ma vogliamo pensare con un po' di ottimismo e cioè che ciò sia dovuto ad interessamento per il nostro rimpatrio.....Sono contento di constatare che nonostante la mancanza di interessamento

Al momento della capitolazione mi trovavo a Cattaro al Comando della Divisione Emilia. Per alcuni giorni combattemmo contro i tedeschi, poi il mio comando ritenendo la situazione militare insostenibile, decise di imbarcarsi per l'Italia lasciando però la maggior parte dei soldati in balia di sé stessi. Io dissi al mio generale che preferivo la via della montagna per continuare la guerriglia con i partigiani jugoslavi. Con altri ufficiali e soldati formammo un battaglione di cui io ero il vice-comandante e ci unimmo ai partigiani.....

Caller: I'm not accusing you, but those parasites in the government, and I'm going to jump on them....they've stabbed me in the back after all that I've done but it'll finish, it'll soon finish, things will change.... you see.... I'm soon going to Naples to give an address and you see what comes of it.... Even now Bonomi writes to me all only after having cut me out of the command of the Patriots.....

Calles: And who did they give it to???

Caller: I don't know but I think, that compensation Commission..... after all that I've done I see a mere Lieutenant General giving me orders... but it's enough, it's time that my dignity was restored to me, cancelling the decree that deprived me of my rank and discharged me from the Army because of being anti-fascist..... Tell Bonomi that I'm no longer going to be fooled with by anybody, if not, one of these days I'm going to attend a full meeting of the Council of the Ministers and cause a scandal, a scandal for all of Rome and I'm also capable of unchaining a few of those present there..... I must not be annoyed, if not I will make a report to the Allies, and what a report, and many will feel the effect of it..... I have never asked for anything, I have never annoyed anybody yet they do all this to me..... yet there is a law which says that all those who lose their positions due to being anti-fascist will all be restored to them &... they've given me nothing..... in fact....

Calles: It is true that.....

Caller: Poor Amendola! I'm sorry that Fascism collapsed now, because it's the only government that the Italians want, a government of screw-jacks..... poor Amendola who gave up his life for these scoundrels.

Calles: Calm yourself now, Robert we'll see how things go tomorrow morning.....

RE CONDITIONS IN TRANSIT CAMP

Trasmmissione del seguente fonogramma:
" Dal centro C. Bari al gruppo 1/c. (Maggiore Nani - Roma) N°864/C.B.
Sono giunte il giorno 20 corrente mese dalla Grecia 104 mogli ufficiali, sottoufficiali e militari di truppa italiani. Per motivi di organizzazione i loro mariti vengono trattiene temporaneamente a Taranto al campo reduci Balcani Sant'Andrea. Queste donne di cui moltissime in stato interessante si trovano riunite in uno stanzone della locale stazione ferroviaria di Bari senza nessuna igiene e con un trattamento ignominioso. Nessuna organizzazione civile o militare ha provveduto ad una decente sistemazione. Lo spettacolo è deleterio anche per la popolazione civile che critica. Elementi esterni si interessano della cosa e ne fanno propaganda che trova facile esca. Si fa presente che questo centro ha tentato di interessarsene ma il locale comando presidio non ha approvato le iniziative di tal sorta. Quanto sopra si fa presente per una segnalazione alle Autorità competenti per ragioni morali ed umanitarie. Segue relazione. "

OFFICERS TO BE QUESTIONED

- Il chiamante - Pronto, addio colonnello, senti sempre in relazione a qual-l'aviere Giorgio De Marchis, mi puoi dire qualcosa?
- Il chiamato - Caro Falcone, io ho telefonato persino al suo comandante e gli ho detto che me lo faccia venire qui al più presto.
- Il chiamante - Fai in modo di poterlo avere nelle tue mani perchè il primo aiutante di S.A.R. il Luogotenente del Regno mi ha detto di telefonarti ancora perchè lo vuole interrogare personalmente. Però vedi che lui mi ha accennato pure per il Ten. Ferrari(?) che è nipote del Primo Ministro di Bulgaria a Sofia, quindi tu fai del tutto per rintracciarli entrambi.
- Il chiamato - Senti è meglio che tu ti metti d'accordo con Sandon che io appena lo pesco te lo spedirò subito a Roma.
- Il chiamante - Va bene, intanto se tu riesci a sapere qualcosa di nuovo me lo comunichi immediatamente.
- Il chiamato - Stai tranquillo, solo ti voglio fare osservare che io non ho potuto avere prima precisazioni in quanto mi avevi detto che era giovane e basta mentre adesso non si sa se è primo aviere o tenente.
