ALLIED MILITARY GOVERNMENT
5th ARMY (C.A.S.)Public Safety Division
28th April, 1944Subject:- Carabinieri from Sardinia.To:- Chief, Public Safety Division.

On 25th February, 1944, I went to Cagliari, Sardinia, for the purpose of supervising the transport of the following personnel and vehicles of Carabinieri for the Rome Contingent, from Sardinia to Naples:-

- 153 Officers and men of CC.RR.
- 67 Police horses
- 10 Motor lorries
- 5 Motor cars
- 44 Motor cycles
- 1 Motor cycle and sidecar.

I contacted various Officers of A.C.C. and Port Authority at Cagliari and eventually, on the morning of 4th March, 1944, saw the above vehicles, horses and men loaded on the "Mont Everest", a Liberty ship, at Cagliari Docks.

I returned to Naples by air the following day, having been informed that the journey by ship would take at least 48 hours, and I made all necessary arrangements for the accommodation of horses and men at Naples. Stables at Caserta had been fixed up, fodder and bedding obtained and waiting for the arrival of the contingent.

I attended the docks at Naples each morning from that date and also arranged for a Carabinieri to be in attendance there to report the arrival of the ship, so that there should be no delay or inconvenience caused to the horses, which were in rather poor condition for travelling.

The ship actually docked on the morning of Wednesday, 8th March, 1944. I was on the dockside when the horses were landed. Owing to the extended length of their stay on board ship, they were not in a condition to travel by road to Caserta, which is approximately 6 hours walk for them from Naples, so I made provisional arrangements for their stay at Naples for the night. I brought fodder and grain from Caserta by truck, and the animals were fed and watered in local accommodation near the docks.

The following day I brought another truckload of fodder and the horses commenced their journey to Caserta by road; they were rested halfway to their destination and again fed on the roadside. They reached the stables at 9-30 p.m., where everything was ready for them, and a hot meal awaited the riders. It was unfortunate that it rained all the day in question and the roads were in bad condition, but it will be seen from above, that everything possible was done to properly receive and accommodate this shipment, which had been delayed at sea for double the anticipated time of the journey from Sardinia.

The vehicles and personnel, other than mounted men, were accommodated at Naples. They were received personally by Lt-Colonel Perinetti, and received a hot meal at the Caserma. During the time they were waiting on the dockside, I distributed 12 cases of "C" rations amongst them.

These "C" Rations I obtained on loan from stock held by Captain Hott at the Fire Brigade Station, Naples.

A. SAUNDERS (signed)
Major,
Superintendent of Carabinieri.
AMG. 5th Army.

Lt. Shaw;

Re our talk recently with Col. Simmons, you will see from this report that all possible steps were taken on this side to deal properly with the arrival of the animals.

Kindly show Col. Simmons this report please.
