Subject - TRAINING HANDBOOK - 1947

Ref. Trng/3A dated 14 Dec 46.

1. The following notes and table obtained in liaison with Signal School (Italian) OPERATIONAL, are forwarded.
2. Proposed table is at variance with table shown on Page 32 of Training Handbook - 1946 and is not in accordance with syllabi or principles laid down for training of Royal Signals personnel.
3. Signal School (Italy) state the training Programme was agreed with S.M.A.
4. It is not understood why this system has been adopted for 1947.
5. British Army training programmes allow one weeks instruction on battery charging. It will be noted that attached table shows a period of 2 months for similar instruction.

Subject: Training Handbook - 1947

It has become necessary to revise the information contained in the Training Handbook 1946 as some of the data therein is no longer in accordance with the present situation.

It is therefore requested that up to date information on each of the Military Schools be collected forthwith and a summary of amendments to the 1946 edition be forwarded to this HQ by the 15th January 1947. In this connection it will not be necessary to give details of changes of War Establishments as G(GB) Branch M.M.I.A. will supply this information.

The new Handbook will be published during the early part of February.
