Subject: Wireless Station No. 301 - Innocent's Confront.

... 2 Polish Corps, 1945.

1. The Wireless Station No. 398 issued by you on 2 Dec. to Don Corrallo Generalo Camacho was deficient in the following items:-

Coil (Unit 0-500)	5, 7-4	100
Condenser	3 20 or 0 50, 50 mm
"	" 0 22, 42 mm
Battery Bt.
Emergency Meter	214
Tool Box	22 43
Spare Box
Crystals
Valve VV	220
"	" VV 213

2. Then I visited the Depot and H. J. Polcyns on 30 October in order to inspect the set and to obtain authority for trading it. I was assured by Joe O.J. No. 3 Depot that the station and generator would be issued complete. I am not informed that the station has deficiencies as stated in para 1 above and that the generator is being temporarily retained in order to provide the Depot with electric light.

5. In view of the above I would be very grateful if you would like to send such of the Issues at present deficient as are available. Because that the generator is made a syllable as useful as possible and that, at all events, it is not handed over to him when the work passes to the control of the latter.

2. When I visited the Depot and the 2 teleboys on 30 October in order to inspect the set and to obtain authority for dropping it I was assured by the D.O. No. 3 that the station and generator would be issued complete. I am not informed that the station has deficiencies on water in turn I show and that the generator is being temporarily obtained in order to provide the Depot with electric light.

3. In view of the above I would be very grateful if you would:-

- (1) Issue such of the items at present deficient as are available.
- (2) Ensure that the generator is made available as quickly as possible and that, at all events, it is not handed over to the Depot when the Depot passes to the control of the latter.

The binocular 7x 50 M.G.A. is very luminous. Such characteristic has been attained by using treated lenses, very much more transparent than the normal ones and reducing the number of lenses to three for each binocular: the two normal Porro alignment system prisms and the collective I. ocular lenses have been replaced by a lens made up from a so-called "Koe-type" prism and a lens ~~put together~~ ^{put together}. The said replacement has however made the ~~extra-axial luminous~~ ^{extra-axial luminous} bands, owing to the fact that the reticulum would have to be put along the run of the luminous bands where, instead, the said ~~prism~~ ^{prism} is.

On the 8/9/43 still no reports had come from the ~~commands~~ ^{ships} and we are not ^{now} in position of stating where the few models of such binoculars are. Enquiries have been ordered and we are awaiting the results.

Riferimento foglio II/25142 in data 12 corrente di codesto Ministero.

I binocoli in argomento furono costruiti dalla ditta Galileo per conto della R. Marina nei primi mesi del 1943 solo a titolo di campioni perché con essi si potessero effettuare i necessari esperimenti e quindi decidere in merito alla adozione del nuovo tipo di strumento.

Gli esperimenti furono condotti presso la Ditta costruttrice (Officine Galileo di Milano) e presso il reparto Ottico di Marina La Spezia e diedero risultati soddisfacenti. I binocoli furono poi distribuiti a diverse Navi, con incarico ai Comandi di bordo di riferire, appena possibile, circa i vantaggi o meno, da essi presentati, in confronto a quelli normali prismatici, nell'uso pratico a bordo.

Il binocolo 7X50 M.G.A. è molto luminoso. Tale caratteristica è stata conseguita adoperando ottiche trattate, molto più trasparenti di quelle normali e riducendo a tre il numero di ottiche

Gli esperimenti furono condotti presso la Ditta costruttrice (Officine Galileo di Milano) e presso il reparto Ottico di Marina di Spezia e diedero risultati soddisfacenti. I binocoli furono poi distribuiti a diverse Navi, con incarico ai Comandi di bordo di riferire, appena possibile, circa i vantaggi o meno, da essi presentati, in confronto a quelli normali prismatici, nell'uso pratico a bordo.

Il binocolo 7X50 M.G.A. è molto luminoso. Tale caratteristica è stata conseguita adoperando ottiche trattate, molto più trasparenti di quelle normali e riducendo a tre il numero di ottiche per ciascuno binocolo: i due prismi del normale sistema raddrizzatore di Porro e la lente collettiva dell'oculare sono stati sostituiti da una ottica costituita da un prisma cosiddetto a "scarpa" e una lente incollati insieme.

La detta sostituzione ha però reso materialmente impossibile la sistemazione del reticolo oltre che di un diaframma di apertura, per i fasci luminosi extrasensibili, dato che reticolo e diaframma avrebbero dovuto essere posti lungo il percorso dei fasci luminosi là dove sta invece il detto prisma a "scarpa"

All'8 settembre 1943 non era pervenuta ancora alcuna relazione dei Comandi di bordo ed attualmente non si è in grado di comunicare ove i pochi esemplari di tali binocoli possono trovarsi.

Sono state disposte ricerche in merito e si fa riserva di comunicare l'esito.

From: Ministry for Foreign Affairs

REF: 11/05271

To: U.S.G. (A.I.M.)

DATE: 17 April 1945

SUBJECT: Radio Material at Villa Cisneros

Reference A.M. letter 67125/Z of 15th December 1944.

The Italian Embassy in Madrid approached on the matter referred to in the above quoted letter, on the 25th January, and informed us as follows :-

"In reference to the request made by the U.S.G. in the above quoted letter, also referred to this Temporary Military Attache, I have the honour to submit that, for the moment, it appears extremely difficult to take steps for the recovery or reimbursement of the radio material at Villa Cisneros. In fact whilst relations between this Military Office and the Spanish Authorities are now maintained solely through the General Staff, the dispatch of the radio material to Villa Cisneros was agreed upon at the time by the Chief of the "Iber" Section of the MIIB directly with the Spanish Intelligence Service, and unknown to the General Staff. I would also add that the Military Office of this Embassy is temporarily controlled by the Naval Attache while awaiting the arrival of Colonel Menno; as we are now dealing with a matter of extreme delicacy it would appear preferable that the matter was conducted by the appointed Military Attache once he has established useful contacts in these military circles.

In considering the above I think it advisable to recall the attention of that Ministry to the fact that :-

- 1) - the radio material referred to, even if recovered, may not be forwarded to Italy except through the Allies;
- 2) - the Military Attache, upon receipt of orders, in April 1944, to hand over the radio material in his possession (ministerial telegram of 24th March 1944), did not mention, for obvious reasons, the existence of the radio materials which were at Villa Cisneros in the hands of the Spanish Authorities.

Should the materials be returned, it would not be easy to explain their origin to the English and United States Ambassadors here, and it is extremely probable that the affair would cause serious incidents with the Spanish Authorities to whom the Allies would not fail to administer severe rebukes for the favours which they have done us in the past.

785020

"In reference to the request made by the U.S.C. in the above quoted letter, also referred to this Temporary Military Attaché, I gave the honour to submit that, for the moment, it appears extremely difficult to take steps for the recovery or reimbursement of the radio material at Villa Cienfuegos. In fact whilst relation between this Military Office and the Spanish Authorities are now maintained solely through the General Staff, the dispatch of the radio material to Villa Cienfuegos was agreed upon at the time by the Chief of the "Fiber" Section of the MHS directly with the Spanish Intelligence Service, and unknown to the General Staff. I would also add that the Military Office of this Embassy is temporarily controlled by the Royal Attaché while awaiting the arrival of Colonel Lemos; as we are now dealing with a matter of extreme delicacy, it would appear preferable that the matter was conducted by the appointed Military Attaché once he has established useful contacts in these military circles.

In considering the above I think it advisable to recall the attention of that Ministry to the fact that :-

- 1) - the radio material referred to, even if recovered, can not be forwarded to Italy except through the Allies;
- 2) - the Military Attaché, upon receipt of orders, in April 1944, to hand over the radio material in his possession (Ministerial telegram of 24th March 1944), did not mention, for obvious reasons, the existence of the radio materials which were at Villa Cienfuegos in the hands of the Spanish Authorities.

Should the materials now be returned, it would not be easy to explain their origin to the English and United States Ambassadors here, and it is extremely probable that the affair would cause serious incidents with the Spanish Authorities to whom the Allies would not fail to administer severe reprimands for the favours which they have done us in the past.

On the other hand, the Offices of the Military, Naval, and Air Attachés, have informed me that the radio materials formerly in their possession and handed over last year to the British Embassy were of a much better quality and of a far superior value to those materials at Villa Cienfuegos. I therefore take the liberty of suggesting to that Ministry, the advisability of approaching the Allied Authorities with a view to arranging, should there be a deficiency of radio materials in Italy, for the forwarding to Italy of the apparatus handed over in the past by this Embassy."

In respect of the above quoted communication, this Ministry considers :-

- 1) - It does not appear advisable to wait, before opening discussions with the Spanish Government regarding the restoration of our radio materials which were formerly at the Villa Cisneros, for the going to Madrid of the new Military Attache, given that he has recently been sent back.
- 2) - In view of the difficulties (even granted) that the restitution of the materials in question is obtained from the Spanish Government) involved in transporting them to Italy, we submit the advisability of giving instructions to the Italian Embassy in Madrid that they endeavour to negotiate the sale of them to the said Government. Should that S.M. agree to the latter proposal we should like to know the approximate price we should try to obtain.

We await information as to the instructions we must send to the Italian Embassy in Madrid regarding the matter dealt with.

We also beg to be informed of the opinions of that S.M. regarding the suggestions made by the said Embassy in respect of the radio materials handed over in the past by our military attaché in Madrid to the British Embassy in Madrid.

[illegible][illegible]

The first of these is the fact that the C_{60} molecule is a truncated icosahedron, which is a polyhedron with 32 faces, 12 of which are pentagons and 20 are hexagons.
 This structure is very similar to a soccer ball, and it is this structure that gives
 C_{60} its unique properties.

Qualcun potrebbe obiettare che, per quanto riguarda l'aspetto economico, l'attuale situazione è stata raggiunta da un numero di paesi che non ha mai raggiunto l'Unione Sovietica. Ma, se si considera che l'Unione Sovietica ha una popolazione di 250 milioni di abitanti, mentre i paesi che hanno raggiunto la stessa situazione ne hanno solo 100 milioni, si può dire che l'Unione Sovietica ha una situazione economica molto più avanzata di quella dei paesi che hanno raggiunto la stessa situazione.

STAFF EQUIPMENT TABLESNOTES

ARW/6518/4 (A3)

1st, January, 1945G(AE)., A.P.H.Q.

These notes apply to all new Staff Equipment Tables and superseding Staff Equipment Tables published on or after 1st, January, 1945.

Notes 1 to 4 inclusive are for general information and notes 5 and 6 for addressees on automatic distribution, see G.R.O. 925/44.

1. VEHICLE EQUIPMENT

Staff Equipment Tables published prior to 1st, January, 1945 have included vehicle equipment as well as unit equipment normally found in A.Fs. G1098. Equipment in the former category includes items fitted to a vehicle as initially issued complete and listed in "Tables of Tools and Equipment for 'A' vehicles" or in "Station Lists for Signal Equipment".

A change has now been made, however, in that components of major equipments are no longer shown separately. For example - for such lorry 5-ton, Command HF, S.S.Fs. have hitherto shown the following items:-

- (i) Wireless Station 53/19.....1
- (ii) Reception Set R107.....1
- (iii) Telephones L.....4
- (iv) Cable DC Double.....miles.....4

Of this vehicle equipment, items (ii), (iii) and (iv) were added to unit equipment scales in S.S.Fs.

In future this complete vehicle equipment will be referred to as Wireless Station, Lorry 5-ton, Command HF and scales of telephones etc. will cover unit equipment only as in S.Fs. G1098. Vehicle equipment, including L.A.S., Wireless Stns. etc., on tanks will be denoted by the letter (V).

2. REVISION OF ITEM CODE NUMBERS.

Item code numbers now applied to Staff Equipment Tables conform to the new list for the names of War Office Controlled Stores.

- (i) Wireless Station 55/19.....1
- (ii) Reception Set 2407.....1
- (iii) Telephone L.....4
- (iv) Cable De Double.....miles.....3

Of this vehicle equipment, items (ii), (iii) and (iv) were added to unit equipment scales in G.E.Fs.

In future the complete vehicle equipment will be referred to as Wireless Station, Larry 3-ton, Command HP and scales of telephones etc. will cover unit equipment only as in G.Fs. G409b. Vehicle equipment, including Lias., Wireless Stns. etc, on tanks will be denoted by the letter (V).

2. REVISION OF ITEM CODE NUMBERS.

Item code numbers now applied to Staff Equipment Tables conform to the new list for the census of War Office Controlled Stores.

3. REGROUPING OF UNITS.

In many instances Units will appear on another Staff Equipment Table to that originally allocated. This is because a regrouping of units has taken place in order to include in a single table, units of a similar type, e.g. General Hospitals and Field Hospitals are now shown together in Table K/01/03.

4. LIST OF STORES.

In order to extend the value of Staff Equipment Tables, further equipments, particularly Signals Equipments, have been added to the list of Stores covered by these tables. A G.R.O. will be published in the near future showing this revised list of stores.

5. INDEX.

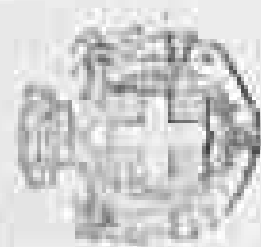

A revised index to units covered by Staff Equipment Tables will be published and issued to all concerned in the near future.

6. SEQUENCE OF TABLES.

A number of new tables to be issued shortly will not bear consecutive numbers but will be numbered, for example, J.50, J.51 etc. Demands should, therefore, not be made for Tables which appear to be outstanding. A G.R.O. listing current Tables will be published at frequent intervals.

It is considered that the Italian Army cannot possibly spare the two Siemens teleprinters as these are already in very short supply, and the weakening of Italian

No 1 Special Service is an Org. that deals with Screening Specially Selected

They also apparently do enemy wireless

Regarding the release of Italian Tech issue the Teleprinters. These are in short supply for the Italian Gov and Army.

The remainder is small and can be authorized.

SUBJECT: Analysis of Italian Signal Equipment

TO : Commanding Officer, Land Forces Sub-commission of the Allied Control Commission, C.M.S.

1. Information has been received to the effect that all captured Italian equipment was no longer to be disposed of as enemy equipment but was to be redistributed to the Italian military authorities.

2. It is expedient for the Signal Intelligence Service to bring to proper attention that this action must not be applied to Italian Signal Communications equipment, especially radio equipment, for the following reasons:

a. Many items of Italian signal equipment are closely modeled after, or have the same design as German equipments of similar nature. Therefore, analysis of such Italian equipment will result in a better knowledge of the German equipment.

b. Some items of Italian signal equipment are made in Germany for Italian use. Analysis of such equipment will reveal current peculiarities and techniques of German manufacturers and be of value for statistics on German production capabilities.

c. Examination of enemy equipment has several times resulted in the adoption of similar technical applications to our own signal equipment.

3. In view of the above considerations, it is requested that three (when possible) of each type of Italian signal apparatus, available at the Sardinian or other signal depots of enemy equipment, be released for complete intelligence and technical analysis by the 849th Signal Intelligence Service.
