Ref. I3/14 Camp. dated 23/11/45

1) Ref your BOL/1/ dated 26/11/45, your attention is drawn to Chapter II para 201 of "Regulations for Release from the Army 1945", which states, " Release on compassionate grounds is permissable only for a definite period, and may granted by the War Office only".

2) In view of this governing factor, the procedure for Dvr Royds should be as follows. -STATE 32 Victoria Street London SW1 should be contacted by Royds's parents, and the case if deserving, will be taken up by them direct with War Office, who will authorise release.

3) What can be arranged by this HQ, is a compassionate posting to Home establishment, if accepted by Dvr Royds, however this would not mean release, and the procedure shown in para 2 above would still have to be carried out in the UK.

4) Documents are returned herewith for whatever action i.e. Para 2, or 3, Dvr Royds wishes to take.
