Will you please write to C.2.M. upon the above subject. This American SILVER STAR is the equivalent to our D.C.M., it was awarded to me for action in a British Battle ('Bangro' Nov. 21-43) while serving with the 8th Indian Division. I want them to clarify the position with reference to the above Award.

I first wrote them from Hospital in January 1944 year, they have since probably corresponded with the Hospital (70 Brit Gen.) but I have heard nothing. From H Training Depot they were officially written and enclosed was a copy of a personal letter from Gen. L.L.Lemmitzer, Deputy Chief of Staff, Allied Armies in Italy; together with a copy of the official Citation.

The Award was presented personally by Gen. L.L.Lemmitzer in the presence of Brigadier Bull, the C.C., S.A. and members of the 3rd. Field Regiment on 29 th August 44 near Florence.

I still have no confirmation from the British Army and no entry in my Pay Book. Will they please do something in the matter.
