1. Para 4. Sups.

You will no doubt appreciate that amendments to the ration scale are not made by this HQ. The Italian War Ministry have been told not to make amendments without first consulting this HQ and further not to make increases without first ensuring that the supplies are available.

2. Para 5. Cigarettes.

It is noted that you have a supply of MILIT (repayment cigarettes). There should be no difficulty in obtaining ^{type 7} supplies - for method see para 6(c)(2) of MMIA Admin Instructions No 22 dated 20/2/45, copy sent to you. Free cigarettes should now be available - see para 6(b)(1) of Admin Instructions No 22.

3. Para 6. Soap.

It is agreed that the soap position has been bad. However, from now on, as a result of pressure, you should be receiving an adequate supply.

4. Para 7. Cognac.

This unfortunately has been in short supply. A scale was published before arrangements had been made by the Italian War Ministry to meet the demands. Supply is still inadequate but a supply is expected from Sardinia within the next few days.

5. Para 8. Disinfectants.

A communication dated 19th Jan 1945 was sent to you showing quantities released, also AFHQ sent a copy of release to your D.D.S.T. on 14th Feb 45.

6. Para 9. Provision through 14 CRASC.

Can you give details for investigation please?

7. In future you should either phone here or signal immediately your troubles regarding supplies so that early action can be taken.

1. I have received from Gen. Tomasselli, a report on his efforts to obtain the supplies of cigarettes due to him for the months of Sep, Oct., Nov and Dec., which have so far resulted in the receipt only of a consignment of cigarettes on repayment authorised in Sep.

2. On 4 Dec 44 a "Q" officer from 228 Div. was sent to Bari to investigate the reasons for the non arrival of the following expected consignments :-

- (a) 10.69 qtls MILIT on repayment for the month of Sep. (Auth. Min of War letter 10036/3 of 20 Sep.)
- (b) 8 qtls MILIT on repayment assigned to Del "A" for 228 Div. (Auth. Min. of War letter 11497/5/1 of 27 Oct.)
- (c) The entire Nov issue of cigarettes requested from the Min of War in 228 Div letter 1117/Co of 3 Oct.
- (d) The entire Dec issue of cigarettes requested from the Min of War in 228 Div letter 1117/Co of 17 Nov.

3. MMIA LO at 54 Area stated that no supplies were available for 228 Div., who should draw from British sources. When it was pointed out to him that the new 22843 came into force until 1 Jan 45, and that the cigarettes in question were authorised releases, he said that MMIA LO, EIGHTH ARMY, would have to take the matter up with HQ MMIA. Finally he permitted the issue of 10.69 qtls of MILIT on repayment (sub-para. 2(e) above), which Gen. Tomasselli has had to use as a free issue.
