Piedimonte d'Alife, 30 July 1946

TO: The Allied General Command in Italy
Caserta

I am not one of the lazy, unworthy and idle Italians who are appealing to your Command in order to obtain something. Indeed, I am a veteran of the war for the liberation of Italy as I have fought for two years with the 5th and 8th Armies.

When they needed us, the Italian Military Authorities made a lot of promises to us in regard to our future employment; yet now, after having served for fourteen years in the Army and after having given my blood in the War of Liberation, I have had my applications rejected by the Ministry of War and have been discharged by the Army.

Is that the proper way to treat the veterans of the war of liberation?

I am now applying to your Allied Command so that steps be made with the Italian Military Authorities in order to secure me an employment as I am starving to death with my mother and wife.

I know that the Allies are gentlemen, and always willing to help the weak.

CERTIFIED TRUE COPY

FRANCENIGO Prov. TREVISO.
July 22nd, 1946.

To the Capt. of Allied Military Government,
ROME.

Dear Sir,

Since the last February 1941, the Allied and Italian Police came for information about my husband Mr. Armando ROMANO di fa Giulio, born in SACTIS Prov. UDINE 1902, sent by the Ministero dell'Aeronautica, Dept. of the Air Force, (His residence address was: Via Altino No. 8, Rome) where he was employed for 22 years in the 1940 he was called to the army in which he has given service for four years in the war. In the meantime he has been very ill with Malaria for a year and a half contracted in Sardinia. He could prove this with a doctor certificate. In the meantime he has not been paid as an Employee, nor has given us family relief; like all the other employees.

We never had any help from the City of any kind, while help either as a war damage. We had to live in the country on our own pocket. In the meantime I had a big operation and a baby born dead and all the expense was paid by my parents. You could imagine my condition. I am a Canadian woman married in this terrible country.

My husband has been out of work since 1940. He has been to Rome personally last June to see if he could have work on the amount owing to him but yet we haven't seen an answer from the Dept. of the Air Force Rome.

I would kindly please you for a favor if it's possible to try and see for us. If my husband could have the amount owing to him. I am sure nobody else could do better than you for us.

Thanking you very much for all kindness favor,

Very truly

Mrs. Luisa ROMANO
