That night he ^{long} talked with Gustine, and he was rather down hearted ^(thinking of me.....)
Gustine Reassured him.

Was the idea that I was dead working in his unsteady mind? I do not know but the following morning (Tuesday 5 JUNE), Father got out of bed and he told mother that he was going out on the fields..... they would never see him again, he was never to come home again. Three days later - three days of anxiety for all, the police found the body in the Auby canal, near the bridge Gres aux Asturies. The corpse was taken to the morgue, and on Saturday the funeral took place, with Catholic rites.

Two days after the burial, I returned, struck ^{long} by this incomprehensible mourning - I found the family in mourning and sadness - but of course I was a moral comfort for all.

Father left no note explaining his act, he left the key to the safe with Irene.

Father had said on several occasions that he was fed up with life. This sad news will plunge you in mourning; as after all Father was in the best of health and nothing could make me foresee such an end. Father left no documents explaining his resolution.

Tomorrow I will be going to the cemetery and I will kneel before the grave of the one who was a good father, spent all his life keeping a large family; when working he was in his element and the honesty of his children depended on this quality. I would have liked to see him and to return together to our country and to see him rest by his ancestors.

A mass will be celebrated at the Auby church on the 5th of July. We shall all attend and concentrate in deep thoughts of the one who is no more.

Dear Antoine no matter how the hour may seem sad be strong as I always have been and think of your mother, your brothers who need your love and spiritual comfort.

Brother's Letter.

June 13, 1945

Dear Brother,

It is your brother Eugene who is writing you, I would have liked it to bring you pleasure, as I am again near Mother, but the whole family now mourns a great loss, Dad no longer lives. He rests in the Auby Cemetery, in foreign ground, I who used to dream of the cemetery of Villasalto and of our ancestors.

I came back from Germany on the 11th of June, at two in the morning; I Knocked at the door and it was Giuseppe who opened the door..... I made for our parents room, mother cried when she saw me, Father's place was empty: death had taken him to the abyss of shadows. Alas, I never had the chance of kissing him (int. note: before father's death).

For some time Father had changed: was it the accident he had at Vitry last year (in the head)? was it the freezing of foreign assets (which, ^{obviously} included the father's pension)? was the love for his country? was it because I hadn't returned yet? or was it a neurasthenic crisis who drove him to commit suicide?

Had I returned a week earlier I might have ^{straightened out} ~~straightened out~~ him and I assure you that he would have never ^{committed} ~~made~~ that fatal ^{act} ~~act~~. Alas its Fate.....

None of the neighbours or family ever expected that, Father worked, cultivated and sowed his grounds, worked on his fruit trees, looked after his rabbits, his goat; Father had obtained some moorland, in a word he was a courageous man, active, who lived for work, brought up a large family and he was an honest and a spiritual man.

A few days before the mishap, Father was in excellent mood, he used to go to Pilmo Mattano's place to play cards.....

When Alice Welter came to see him about repairing ^{Army} ~~his~~ shoes, he said "its Sunday for me too". I have been notified that the Mother of the a/named Italian Officer has recently passed away. As he is in an age group which will not be released before the 28th October, and the fact that his home is in PRESSO FABRO - PENDICE SCOGLIETTO 12, TRIESTE, it is impossible for him to proceed there on leave under normal circumstances.

This Officer has been with me for the past eighteen months, has always worked hard and afforded me with the closest co-operation. It is my wish therefore that he should proceed home on compassionate leave as soon as possible.

The Italian Authorities cannot provide him with a Military pass to enter the area of TRIESTE as he is still in the Italian Forces. Is it possible therefore, for a British permit to be granted to this Officer?

Villeupt le 28 Mars 1945.

Cher fils

Aujourd'hui 28 Mars, nous avons reçu ta lettre du 13 Mars. Qui tu penses nous a fait grand plaisir, car aujourd'hui a été un bien beau jour, car depuis 1 an et demi que j'attendais, il est enfin arrivé. Ta première lettre ne nous est pas parvenue.

Bien cher fils ta lettre a été une bien grande joie et une consolation pour moi, Mais tu sais nous avons une bien triste nouvelle à t'apprendre, ton pauvre papa est mort le 5 Février 1945. Que veux-tu je ne peux te le cacher plus longtemps, mais puisque tu nous espères tous en bon santé, il faut te dire ce grand malheur qui nous est arrivé. Ton papa ne s'était jamais si bien porté que cet hiver, mais ce matin du 5 février il partait avec Delio chercher du coke à l'usine, il était très bien, son charbon chargé il se remettait en route, n'ayant fait que quelques mètres il dit à Delio d'arrêter la charrette et il tombe mort dans ses bras, mais Delio ne croyait qu'il avait une ~~fièvre~~ ^{fièvre} appelant, l'infirmier ne put que constater le décès, causé par une embolie au cœur, cher fils tu feras comme ta pauvre maman, prend courage, car moi vois-tu, il m'en faut, et j'en ai toujours eu. Je vivais toujours dans l'espoir de tes nouvelles. et dans mon malheur, j'ai eu une grande joie avoir une lettre de toi cher fils.

Aussitôt que j'ai su qu'on pouvait écrire en Italie, j'ai déjà écrit trois fois, chez mes parents, pour savoir de leur nouvelle et des tiennes, puis j'ai même écrit au Maire de Litoria, et de ses trois lettres j'en ai eu aucune réponse. Je suis très contente que tu me dis que tu iras toi-même sur les lieux pour savoir ce que la famille devient, tu m'en donneras au plus vite des nouvelles.

Delio se porte bien et il est bien grandi, en ce moment il travaille chez les américains à la cuisine, il n'est plus si méchant, son caractère est bien changé et il est assez débrouillard.

Quand à Pierrette elle a été opérée de l'appendicite, à présent elle est en bonne santé.

Depuis ce jour du 5 février, ma santé n'était pas bonne, car pour moi cela a été un très grand choc, car je ne m'attendais pas à un malheur pareil, à présent je reprend courage surtout à présent que j'ai eu enfin les chères nouvelles, j'en aurais tout les jours plus.

Je te dirais que 20 jours après ton papa est mort Bellini il a fait une mauvaise mort, il a beaucoup souffert et mort d'une maladie à l'estomac.

J'espère qu'après le malheur qui nous est arrivé, que tu te débrouillera pour avoir une permission, écris nous si il te fallait quelques papiers.

Aujourd'hui la maison était pleine de monde, sitôt que la brisa couru que j'avais eu de tes nouvelles, tous sont venus voir si c'était vrai. Pour ce soir je termine ma lettre, le bonjour de tout tes amis. Dans l'espoir de te lire au plus vite je t'embrasse bien fort. Ta maman Regina. Un gros baiser de ta soeur Pierrette.

Mais tes amis et nous aussi nous t'envoyons les notes de quelques pagues.
